SAN DOMINGO. We see that the President Las sent to the Senate a message relative to the annexation of San Domingo to the government of the United States. The treaty accompanying the message was negotiated by Baer, President of San Domingo, and Mr. Perry, commercial agent of the United States, at San Domingo.

The main features of the treaty are that this government shall pay $1,500,-000-San Domingo to pay her debts and redeem her currency. She is to come in as a Territory.
