PRE-EMPTION CIRCULAR.

Burlington & Missouri River Railroad Company in Nebraska.

"As I was telling you, my dear Mrs. Grundy. I came on my mule to Weeping Water in asadly dilapidated condition—seas hat, some boots coat stockings—in short, destitute of all those convenient appurtenances which ornament a well dressed man—having been deprived of all by the merciless savages, who even took my cigar PLATTSMOUTH, Nam., Feb. 15, 1870.

The Burlington & Missouri River Railroad Company in Nebraska expects to receive early next summer, patents from the United States for all Lambs to which they may be entitled, lying East of and including Range Six, East of the Sixth Principal Meridian.

When title shall be obtained, the lands will be for sale as below stated and illustrated:

On Long, or Ten Years Credit.

The Burlington & Missouri River Railroad Company in Nebraska will sell Prairie Land on a long credit of ten years, with six per cent interest, and sell Prairie and Timber Lands on a short credit of two years, with ten per cent interest on balance unpaid, or for each. The short credit and each price is twenty per cent less than the long credit price. To make the torms and practical results of these different plans of sale perfectly plain, let the following examples be considered:

Long Credit Illustrated

Say that 40 acres of land, at $10 per acre-$400, is bought on long credit of ten years, on April 1, 1870. The payments will be due and payable as follows: Interest. Amount. April 1, 1870, pay 6 per cent April 1, 1871, pay 6 per cent interest as before. $24 00 $24 00 Then one-ninth of principal, as follows: 11 45 11 45 11 44 14 45 11 11 11 45 14 45 41 44 8 00 5 33 2 66

If 80 acres is bought at $5 per acre, or if 160 acres is bought at $2.50 per acre, the payments will be due when and for the same amounts as on the above forty acres at $10 per acre. Short Credit Illustrated.

5400 00 $144 00 $544 00

Say the same 40 acres as above is bought on our shorteredit of two years, the price will be $8 per acre, 20 per cent less than the long credit price-$320, payable as follows:

April 1, 1870, 15 of principal, 1, 1871, 15 do, and 10 % int. $21.34 128 01 1, 1872, 15 do, and 10 % int. $21.34 128 01 10 66 117 32 Tetals. On final payment of either kind of contract, the buyer is entitled to a general warranty deed

For Cash, or the Company's Bands, in full at date of purchase, the same forty acres as above can be bought at 88 per acro-$120, and then get a deed. their face and accrued interest in payment for land if the purchase is large enough to cover the full amount of the bond.

Health, Comfort and Economy

Three reasons for bearding with

Conditions of Pre-Emption.

1. The Campany will grant pre-emptions as oliews: In Kanges Six and Seven East, on and after April 1, 1870.

In Ranges Eight and Nine East, on and after April 5, 1870.

In Ranges Ten and Eleven East, on and after April 8, 1870.

In Ranges Twelve, Thirteen and Fourteen East, on and after April 13, 1870.

Opportunity will be given on each of said days for any two parts the pay want the Two blocks northwest of brick Echeol House. He has a BATH HOUSE, free to patrons; his for any two or more persons who may want the same land to bid therefor. The pre-emption will be granted to the one who will pay the most, and forthwith pay in cash, six percentum of the price, as in other cases, 2. In no case will a pre-emption right be granted to one person for a piece of land upon which another person is residing, or has any improvements, unless the facts in relation to the residence or improvements of such person are fully stated

3. After the Company shall have obtained title to the lands within the limits named, it will give public notice thereof in newspapers printed at Platismouth, Lincoln and Nebraska City, and of Platismouth, Lincoln and Nebraska City, and of a certain fixed day when it will a prepared to sell or make contracts for selling its lands. It will also at the same time and in the same manner, give notice to those who may take out pre emption, that they must, within sixty days after the day so fixed for selling, effect into contracts for the purchase of the land for which they may have applied. Special notice of said day will also be given to them by depositing letters in the Post Office, to their address, within two weeks after the day for selling is fixed. In case the pre-emption applicant shall fail to pay for, or enter into contract to pay for the land which he may have pre-empted before the expiration of said sixty days, he will thereby lose all benefit of his pre-emption right, and the prosety which he may have paid thereas will be forfeited.

4. In case a pre-emption applicant shall neglect or refuse to comply with the terms and conditions above mance, and shall so forfeit his pre-emption right, he will also forfeit all improvements that he may have made upon the land; emption right, he will also forfeit all improvements that he may have made upon the land; and in case he is residing thereon, and, after warning, shall neglect to give quiet and peaceable possession within ten days to said Company fifty dollars a menth from the date of his application until he shall volgotarily leave, or by law be ejected from the premises.

Pre-emptions will not be granted on timber lands, except on special conditions, and, as a general rule, pre-emptions will not be granted for less than one hundred and sixty acres, except in special cases where the sale of a smaller quantity will not injuriously affect the interests of the Company. While the Company intend to issue pre-emptions liberally, it will reserve the right to reject any application.

The money that the pre-emption applicant may pay, together with six per cent, interest thereon from date of payment, will be allowed to him as part of the purchase money, upon his entering into an absolute contract to purchase the pay with a pay they after the pay they have after the pay have a payed the pay with a payed to him as part of the purchase money, upon his entering into an absolute contract to purchase entering into an absolute contract to purchase the land within sixty days after the day is fixed and advertised that the Company is ready to soil
