J. W. MARSHALL, P. M.

From Saturday's Daily

Chas. E. Perkins, Superintendent of the B. & M. R. R., arrived on the morning Express from Burlington.

Some of the citizens in the south part of the city are getting tired of their neighbors, and talk about creating a vacancy in the locality.

Dr. F. Renner, assistant U. S. Assessor for the District of Nebraska, arrived in the city last evening. Parties interested can find him at the office of D. H. Wheeler & Co

We noticed a large quantity of Lincoln freight being taken from the cars at the foot of Main street yesterday. Lincoln merchants are learning that the Chicago, Plattsmouth and Fort Kearney route is the quickest and cheapest.

Nasby has met with success in putting things mildly, by terming the rebellion the "Late onpleasantness," but the Mormon elders outed this by sugaring polygamy so as to make it read, "The patriarchal family relation."

Twelve hundred police guard the headquarters of the New York Democracy. It is presumable, says the Press, that they are intended to protect those within from the rogues without. But how much more to the honor and profit of the city would it be if they could afford protection to those without against those within. The Democracy that requires an army to guard against itself is unworthy countenance and support.

Parties desiring insurance should be careful to select good companies, and be satisfied that the company has a right to do business in this State by having complied with the requirements of the State laws. The statements of the "underwriters Agency" and of the "Home," as required by law, will be found in the columns of the weekly HERALD.

From Monday's Daily.

Eli Plummer, of the firm of Clark & Plummer, is now East buying goods for their house in this city.

There is more grain being shipped in bulk from Platsmouth than from any other point in the State.

We learn that P. G. Dobson, of Rock Bluff, recently lost a very fine Chester White hog, valued at over $50.

It is expected that Prince Arthur will visit Plattsmouth in a short time on his way to the Pacific coast. He takes the great through route via Chicago, Burlington & Plattsmouth.

Mr. Frank Reed, railroad yard master, has invested in some very fine property east of Captain Murphy's new residence, where he purposes making a home. The railroad men are all taking hold of Plattsmouth property. They see which "way the cat is jumping."

Those beautiful iron railings around the porticos of the Brooks House were manufactured by Wayman & Curtis, of the Plattsmouth machine shops. Murphy & Fitzgerald believe in patronizing home manufacture.

The Chronicle says: "A new railroad company has been organized to build from this city to Plattsmouth. One hundred and eiwhty-five thousand dollars in stock now subscribed. No bonds." That is a first rate idea. It will give Nebraska City a first rate eastern and western connection with the Chicago, Plattsmouth and Pacific Railroad.

A Nebraska City exchange boasts of twenty-eight hotel arrivals in one day, and adds. "This looks like business." Yes, it does very well, but the Platte Valley House register, of this city, will show an average of over fifty a day, besides the hundreds that pass through on trains without stopping at a hotel.

A big jollification was had in Omaha the other day over the adoption of the Fifteenth Amendment. Speeches were made by many colored men, and a fine time, generally, was had.

The H. S. Turner made our landing at 8:30 this morning, unloaded a quantity of freight, took on some goods for retail houses in Omaha, and proceeded up stream.

E. T. Duke & Co. received yesterday nearly a car load of pitchforks, hoes, rakes, etc. We are glad to see our dealers going in heavy this Spring. The demand is great, and heavy purchases enables them to sell at low prices.

Of late Plattsmouth receives periodical visits from a certain jovial, good natured fellow, who has lots of friends, but at the same time a strong "hankering" for selling the same whenever he can, to have a good laugh at them. Yesterday he successfully practiced one of his innocent jokes on Mr. C——, who immediately invited everybody to take a cigar. We are of the opinion he will not be so ready, the next time, to propound the question—"What can I do for you, sir?"

The river is still raising slowly. It is almost out of the banks in some places.

Clark's new billiard hall is progressing rapidly. He is adding a bowling alley to the establishment.

The Turner passed down yesterday evening, leaving a quantity of goods at our landing.

The steamer Elkhorn passed up yesterday. She brought a small amount of goods from St. Joseph, all for this city.

Murphy & Fitzgerald are putting a large kitchen and tier of rooms on the north end of the Brooks House.

Sidewalks have grown rapidly during the past month. You can now travel up Main street as far as Sixth street on a good brick or plank walk.

Mr. Doty, of East Plattsmouth, shot a Pellican last Friday which measured nine feet six inches accross the wings.—A pretty good sized bird.

Several car loads of brick were loaded at the R. R. Company's yards last Saturday for use on the road west. A portion of them will be used at Louisville Station.

Councilman Gass is entitled to the gratitude of the people for his untiring efforts in getting through the Council the Ordinance relative to lighting the streets.

Married, at the Probate office in Plattsmouth, by Judge Childs, Probate Judge, Major Jas. Titus, late of the Union Army and Miss Anna M. Nichols, an accomplished lady from old Virginia.

The river is higher than we have seen it this early in the season for many years, and is still rising.

Mr. Ripple, the great Brewery man of Plattsmouth, has recently completed a large beer celler in the hill near his brewery. We shall take occasion to "interview" it at some future time.

A. Hamberger, Esq., of St. Joseph, the head of the House of Hamburger & Berliner of this city, has been stopping in our city several days. He leaves for St. Joseph Monday.

Mr. Geo. S. Smith arrived in the city this morning by the B. & M. Road direct from Illinois. He brings his 'better half' along this time, and now considers himself a fixt ure of the city.

Several horse races took place yesterday afternoon on the race course, about three miles west of the city.

There were several very fine horses from Council Bluffs and Omaha on the ground; nevertheless, betting was very light, and it seemed to us that most of the crowd had come out, like ourself, for the purpose of enjoying an afternoon ride on one of the most delightful April days we ever saw in Nebraska.

We hope none of our patrons will either take offence or think strange if our collector asks them for a few dollars in money. We are laboring hard for the town, and must have money to keep up the establishment. It "takes money to run a newspaper" as well as to build a railroad, as the Midland Pacific Company and ourself can testify.

A large Catfish, weighing some fifty pounds, was caught by hand at the foot of Main street to day, in the edge of the river. He was swimming in shallow water, and was gathered by the tale and hauled ashore by an energetic fisherman, named Geo. Hutchins.

The work of driving piles for the R. R. bridge south of the Machine Shops was completed yesterday, and the driver removed to the rear of Shannon's Livery stable, where piles are to be driven for the foundations for a new barn.

Two new Church buildings are about to be erected at Weeping Water—the Methodist and Congregational. The latter is to cost about $3,000, over $2,000 of which has already been raised by subscription.

Some graceless scamps exhibited the brute in their nature last night by wantonly breaking several grindstones in front of Schnasse's and Duke's stores. Marshal Murphy offers a reward of $10 for information that will lead to their conviction. We hope they may be caught.

We are informed by Dr. Renner, the U. S. Assessor for this division, that the annual assessment of Plattsmouth shows an increase of 300 per cent. over last year. As soon as the lists are completed we shall lay before our readers an abstract of the income returns and special taxes of Cass county.

We learn that a very fine school exhibition was held at Eight Mile Grove recently. We would be pleased to have friends in the country send us a note of things of this character, or any other which they may deem interesting to the people.

A "peoples" ticket was elected in Brownville at the recent city election.—The Advertiser gives the following reasons.

"There are two principal reasons why the regular Republican Ticket was defeated. First; it did not receive sufficient votes. Second; the People's received more votes than it did "vox populi"

Mr. Paul Hill, R. R. Transfer Agent, arrived from the east Saturday morning. He immediately set about finding a permanent landing for the railroad boat. We have not learned what success he met with.

Julius Silversmith, Esq., who has endeavoured to establish some kind of a paper in every town from the Pacific coast to Council Bluffs, has pulled up stakes at the latter place and moved along eastward. We expect to hear from him soon over on the Missis ippi, where he will "go down" on some small town.

The lands for the English colony, of which we spoke a few days since, are located about five miles south west from Weeping Water Falls.

An exchange says: "The Alaska Herald is sold by Agapius Honcharcuko, the publisher, for three raxostchki per annum." Cheap.

The bridge on Third St. is nearly completed, and the St. Commissioner is having the approaches put in order.

There is a fine opening for city prisoners to make themselves useful on the grading of the street immediastly east of the jail. There is work for the whole gang there.

Captain Murphy commenced operation as street commissioner this morning, and will call on all citizens within the next twenty days to either work out their road tax or par the money. Murphy "means business."

The Western Saloon was entered by some unknown persons during the afternoon yesterday, and a small amount of money, some liquors and cegars abstracted. An entrance was effected through the window.

Plattsmouth is a good town in which to "make a raise." A gentleman of color came to the city recently very hard up, and commenced to black boots for a living. He has now come out with a very good suit of gray clothes which he claims the right to wear half the time. The DAILY HERALD has more than 60 subscribers now.

We would suggest to the City Council the propriety of dividing the police force and putting one half on duty at night.—The present force is probably more than is actually necessary during the day, but would answer the purpose very well if divided and one half given day duty and the other half night duty. The present arrangement only gives police protection during the day and the evening. Some recent performances demonstrate that we need it all night.

The Brownville Advertiser copies our item relating to "solemnizing a writ of matrimony," and adds: "This reminds us of a matrimonial affair that occurred in this country about the date of the foregoing. Our Probate Judge was called on one evening, while away from his office, for marriage license; not wishing to return to his office, he replied to the intended bridegroom. "You just go ahead to-night, the same as if you were married, and I'll make it all right in the morning."

From Tuesday's Daily.

The new R. R. Landings will be completed to-day, and transfering of cars resumed to-morrow.

Mr. Thos. Thomas has sent east for some Chester White pigs. He believes in the best of everything.

Parties are in the city with a patent well boring apparatus. They have been at work to-day at Maj. Wheeler's place.

We received a letter yesterday from the Rev. W. I. Cutter, who informs us that during his journey east he heard much talk about Plattsmouth.

There is more shipping done to and from Plattsmouth than at any other point in Nebraska. There were over eight hundred cars transfered at this point during the month of March.

There is little question as to termina point (practically) of the U. P. R. R. now. We incline to the belief that it stops somewhere west of the west bank of the river proper—until the w ate falls.

Mr. Guthman, proprietor of the brick building on the corner of Main street, returned from Chicago a few days since. We understand he will open a shooting gallery in a short time in the room now occupied by Mr. Clark.

The railroad landing on the Iowa side is hereafter to be directly opposite Main street, instead of two miles up the river.

J. M. Hogshead has retired from the Beatrice Clarion, Theredore Coleman will hereafter control the columns of that journal.

See advertisement of "desirable residence for sale." This property is situated in one of the most pleasant locations in the city, and can be had at reasonable figures.

We understand that the water is so high that no transfering can be done at Omaha. Passengers get to the city in small boats, but no freights are attempted to be crossed over.

The people of Otoe county in convention assembled at Nebraska City last Saturday, passed resolutions complimenting and endorsing W. H. H. Waters. Waters has fought gallantly down there, and the people will not soon forget him.

We advise the property holders in the original townsite of Plattsmouth to look well to their interests, and not allow the bulk of building to strike a new channel. The proprietors of additions to Plattsmouth are doing heavy work for their localities, and they will carry off the prize if the proprietors of the old town do not bestir themselves.

There was a very important taxpayers' county convention held in Nebraska City last Saturday, and yet the Press has not even so much as noticed that a meeting of any kind was held. What is the reason? Is it because the people, in convention assembled, saw fit to pass resolutions endorsing W. H. H. Waters?

Agent Wentz, of the B. & M. R. R., informs us that he is daily receiving large quantities of goods for Ashland, Lincoln, and other points west of Plattsmouth.—Shippers are anxiously awaiting the running of regular trains to South Bend or Ashland. Could not some arrangement be made to deliver goods from the cars near the end of the track? It would be a great convenience to shippers.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Summer coats were brought into requisition to-day.

It is a common remark of strangers who visit our city that there is more life and business here than in any place they have seen in the west.

See advertisement of E. H. Schutt's City Restaurant. He keeps a nice place and sets a good table. Farmers and others will find this a good place to get a 'lunch' when in the city.

Mr. Bohanan, of Lincoln, has been in the city several days. He is watching the superior stock markets of this city to pick up a few nice beaves for the people of Lincoln to eat.

We learn from I. L. Holbrook, Esq., that Ashland is improving very rapidly this spring.

Hesser is already on hand with his early vegetables. The HERALD office has received a bountiful supply.

Wayman & Curtis, Machinists, are adding to their shops. The increase of business makes more room a necessity.

A lot of heavy iron for the R. R. bridges across Salt Creek were sent out yesterday.

Marshal Murphy has divided his police force, and we now have some one on duty all the time, both day and night.

Mr. Palmerton, of Ashland, was in the city this morning, and left on the morning train for home. He informs us that carpenters, teamsters and laborers are in good demand there.

There is more business done in Plattsmouth in one day now than there was in a week last spring. Instead of selling a few goods to be carried out by hand, our merchants are now selling by the car load at a time.

Prole & Yeates charged their soda fountain yesterday. We "sampled" it, and concluded it was not bad to take. They are expecting a new fountain in a few days, which will equal anything in the west.

Vollentine & Hain, of Ashland, have dissolved their partnership, and the business will hereafter be carried on by Vollentine & Co. Mr. Vollentine left for the east on yesterday evening's express train to purchase goods. They are doing a large business.

We are in receipt of a new paper called the News, published at Covington, Nebraska, nearly opposite Sioux City. B. L. Northup is the enterprising editor and proprietor. It is a neat seven column paper, Republican in politics.

Prof. Miller returned from Chicago this morning, where he has purchased something over one hundred thousand feet of pine lumber, to be used in the erection of business and dwelling houses at Ashland. Miller & Griffin are going in heavy on the improvement business at Ashland.

Look out for fires during this windy time. There is no apparatus to assist in the extinguishing of a fire, should one start in the city, and there is no telling when it would end. Will the people here never take steps to secure a fire engine until after the town burns down.

We publish, to day, our first letter from L. R. Warner, Esq., descriptive of Fillmore county. The readers of the HERALD will be pleased to know that Mr. Warner has consented to become a regular contributor for the columns of the paper.

We call the special attention of our readers to the advertisement of Hamburger & Berliner, of the Bee Hive store, in to-days paper. They have the capital and the inclination to do a large business, and they are bound to sell goods at the lowest figures possible.

Moses Dodge, Esq., of this city who returned home from Arizona recently, brought with him some specimens of rock salt, which he informs us abounds in parts of Arizona. It is clear as crystal, and perfectly pure. A specimen can be seen on the desk at Tootle, Hanna & Clark's Bank.

The farmers in this locality have all their wheat in the ground, and many of them have already commenced plowing for corn. The season so far has been very favorable for farmers,—at least since fair weather commenced.

The railroad Co. have been dumping rock along the river front above this landing for the past week. They propose check-mating the old muddy.

W. N. Smith, Esq., of Omaha, Locksmith, Engraver, etc., is in the city for a few days taking orders for work. The firm of which he is a member do an extensive business in their line, and do an excellent job.

We are in receipt of the first number of the Ashland Times, published at Ashland, Neb., by Orin H. Mathews, Esq. It is a live paper, of good mechanical appearance, Republican in politics, devoted especially to the interests of Saunders county and the city of Ashland. The number before us gives evidence of much benefit to accrue to Ashland from the regular publication of the paper, and success to its enterprising publisher.

A couple of "low downs" came into Clark's billiard room last evening and attempted a disturbance. Mr. Clark does not believe much in a disorderly house, and demonstrated to the individuals aforesaid that they had certainly mistaken the place when they attempted a disturbance where he ruled. This is the first time we have heard of any disorderly conduct at Clark's hall, and we doubt if the same parties will care to repeat the performance.

A boy eight years old, in one of our public schools, having been told that a reptile "is an animal that creeps," on being asked to name one on examination by, promptly and triumphantly replied, "a baby."

We notice that most of our merchants are bringing on much larger stocks of goods this season than heretofore, which indicates their intention of increasing business. We understand Doom, Bro. & Co. contemplate entering largely into the wholesale trade this season. We see no reason why this should not be done by many of our best firms.

"A strange craft in these waters" has been lying at the mouth of Platte for the past two days. A reconnoitering party who ventured within a few miles of her, with mountain howetzers in their vest pockets, decided that she consisted of a flat-bottomed boat with a cabin built of boards and painted blue. She came from the direction of sun set, but how far we are unable to say. We hope, if she is a "friendly craft," she will send her boat ashore and report.

We understand that Maxwell & Chapman will have their new abstract of titles in Cass county, completed in a very few days. They have spared neither time nor money in getting up an abstract that is as near perfect as anything we ever saw. It shows the original entry, every deed, mortgage or other voluntary conveyance, also the District Court record, the date of every instrument of conveyance, where it was made, and whether or not it was witnessed, and whether the laws of the state where made required a witness, the consideration, whether stamped, when filed for record, etc. In fact, there is no point touching the title of property that is not thoroughly covered by this abstract. They have had four men at work for nearly five months, and can give you the whole thing in a "nut shell." They have platted every subdivision of less than forty acres, also all the additions to the city, giving the chain of title complete to any and all tracts of land in Cass county, no matter how intricate the boundary description.

FIRE AT LINCOLN.

Atwood and Pioneer House Stables Burned.

We learn from Thos. H. Hyde, Esq., of Lincoln, that a fire broke out in the rear of the Atwood and Pioneer Houses about 2 o'clock last Tuesday, which entirely consumed the stables belonging to those Houses. The Atwood House Stable was valued at about $1,000, and the Pioneer House Stable at about $300 or $400. There was no insurance on either one. Most of the contents was saved.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

NEW BRITAIN, HAMILTON CO., IND., May 2.

DR. C. W. ROMACK—Dear Sir: This will certify that my wife had been laboring under a severe attack of palpitation of the heart and dyspepsia, and her case had been given up as incurable. I then resorted to the various patent medicins of the day, but she found no relief from them. At last I was requested to procure some of your Scandinavian Blood Purifier and Blood Pills. I purchased from your agent D. N. Hanna, one bottle of the Blood Purifier and two boxes of the Blood Pills, and proceeded with them according to directions. She found relief from both diseases after using three or four bottles. I will, therefore, cheerfully recommend your medicine to the suffering community, especially the females. Yours &c.
