

Rents in Chicago are coming down. In Plattsmouth they are rising.

Our old friend Jesse Turner, Deputy U. S. Marshal, gave us a call this p. m. He goes west on the B. & M. to-morrow morning.

The old Second street bridge has been demolished, and the piles are being driven for the new one.

We hope the fixing of the sewers at the foot of Main street will not be delayed until heavy rains come.

One of the objects for which we have long labored is now being accomplished—the drawing of trade to Plattsmouth from the Iowa side of the river.

Deputy Sheriff Cheney, of Saunders county came after the prisoner, Densley, who was sent to our jail for safe keeping some two months ago.

We have very good authority for believing that the Press of Nebraska City, is about to suspend publication.

How does the Omaha Herald like the rebuke of such an honest democrat as Hon. J. S. Hunt, administered in his letter published in another column?

We publish an interesting article to-day from the Fremont Tribune in which are some extracts from the Nebraska City Chronicle.

The proprietor of the Platte Valley House is bound to keep up with the times, and has been putting the house in thorough order.

L. F. Reed, Esq., of Weeping Water, was in the city to-day on his way to Chicago. He goes for the purpose of purchasing goods; also in the capacity of delegate to the National Jubilee of the Congregational Church.

We had the pleasure of a call from W. R. Field, Esq., of Lincoln, this morning. Mr. Field is Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners of Lancaster county, and a man of considerable prominence in that locality.

We are informed that the Herold Bros. have leased the half lot on the north east corner of Main and fifth street and will immediately erect a business house thereon.

A gentleman who has been reading the HERALD for some time, and who was induced to come and look at Nebraska in consequence of representations made in the HERALD, told us this morning that after traveling about the country and examining it he had concluded that the HERALD had in no instance oversteered the mark in praising the State, and in many respects it had not spoken in terms of sufficient praise.

The large amount of goods received by our merchants this spring, indicate a healthy growth of trade at this point. We have been through most of the stores in town and can assure country dealers and consumers everywhere that they can find anything they want in Plattsmouth.

The Council Bluffs Nonpareil boats of one train arriving at that city with 147 passengers, and says that was the largest train ever ran into the city.

The belligerent "amendment" who was arrested, fined and sent to the lock-up yesterday, was released last evening on payment of fine.

The Sioux City Daily Times comes to us enlarged to a seven column paper, and presenting a very respectable appearance.

Another of the "fraternity" was brought up this morning for selling intoxicating drinks on the Sabbath, and fined $5 and costs.

The Council Bluffs Nonpareil (daily) is now received at this office. We always read the Nonpareil—when it is sent to us—classing it among our most valued exchanges.

We understand that a heavy contract for grading was let by the City Council a short time since.

The poles for the Railroad Telegraph will be set as far as Ashland this week, and the wire will be put up immediately.

The country has been blessed with a fine shower each day for the past three days. It has come just in time to be of great service to the wheat.

A small "knock down" occurred on Main street this afternoon. One of the participants (colored) was fined $5, and in default of payment was sent to the "lock up."

The universal testimony of strangers who stop at the Brooks House in this city is that it is the best house in the State.

In our article yesterday, relative to freights via the Keokuk Packet Line and the B. & M. R. R., we stated first class rates at 95 cents.

Billin & Son are getting their new building opposite the Brooks House nearly completed. They are putting in an elegant front, and in fact the entire building is first quality.

Read Mr. Ten Eick's advertisements. He is a liberal advertiser, and consequently a liberal dealer.

How does the Omaha Herald like the rebuke of such an honest democrat as Hon. J. S. Hunt, administered in his letter published in another column?

We are glad to know that our articles on the avenues are having the desired effect. Public opinion is being attracted to the subject, and every man who takes the trouble to examine the subject declares in favor of the immediate opening of them.

We publish an interesting article to-day from the Fremont Tribune in which are some extracts from the Nebraska City Chronicle.

The Railroad transfer business has increased wonderfully within the past month. The Transfer Company have been running two large Omnibuses, and yesterday they brought on the third one.

A large number of fruit trees are being set in Nebraska this spring. May moving has commenced. "Nate" Waybright has removed to summer quarters.

The Tribune says the population of Pawnee county is between 4000 and 5000. Hesser was on hand this morning with an arm full of lettuce, the first of the season.

Steamer Glasgow arrived at our levee at 12 m. to-day, loaded with freight for Plattsmouth. One of the "fraternity" in this city was arrested yesterday for selling intoxicating liquor on the Sabbath, and was fined $5.00 and costs.

Wm. Wilson, Esq., of Des Moines, Iowa, is in the city on a visit to his brother-in-law, S. Duke, Esq. They are a hale, hearty team of "silver greys."

The Council Bluffs Nonpareil boats of one train arriving at that city with 147 passengers, and says that was the largest train ever ran into the city.

Another of the "fraternity" was brought up this morning for selling intoxicating drinks on the Sabbath, and fined $5 and costs.

The Council Bluffs Nonpareil (daily) is now received at this office. We always read the Nonpareil—when it is sent to us—classing it among our most valued exchanges.

We understand that a heavy contract for grading was let by the City Council a short time since.

The poles for the Railroad Telegraph will be set as far as Ashland this week, and the wire will be put up immediately.

The country has been blessed with a fine shower each day for the past three days. It has come just in time to be of great service to the wheat.

A small "knock down" occurred on Main street this afternoon. One of the participants (colored) was fined $5, and in default of payment was sent to the "lock up."

The universal testimony of strangers who stop at the Brooks House in this city is that it is the best house in the State.

In our article yesterday, relative to freights via the Keokuk Packet Line and the B. & M. R. R., we stated first class rates at 95 cents.

Billin & Son are getting their new building opposite the Brooks House nearly completed. They are putting in an elegant front, and in fact the entire building is first quality.

Read Mr. Ten Eick's advertisements. He is a liberal advertiser, and consequently a liberal dealer.

How does the Omaha Herald like the rebuke of such an honest democrat as Hon. J. S. Hunt, administered in his letter published in another column?

We are glad to know that our articles on the avenues are having the desired effect. Public opinion is being attracted to the subject, and every man who takes the trouble to examine the subject declares in favor of the immediate opening of them.

We publish an interesting article to-day from the Fremont Tribune in which are some extracts from the Nebraska City Chronicle.

The Railroad transfer business has increased wonderfully within the past month. The Transfer Company have been running two large Omnibuses, and yesterday they brought on the third one.

A large number of fruit trees are being set in Nebraska this spring. May moving has commenced. "Nate" Waybright has removed to summer quarters.

The Tribune says the population of Pawnee county is between 4000 and 5000. Hesser was on hand this morning with an arm full of lettuce, the first of the season.

Steamer Glasgow arrived at our levee at 12 m. to-day, loaded with freight for Plattsmouth. One of the "fraternity" in this city was arrested yesterday for selling intoxicating liquor on the Sabbath, and was fined $5.00 and costs.

Wm. Wilson, Esq., of Des Moines, Iowa, is in the city on a visit to his brother-in-law, S. Duke, Esq. They are a hale, hearty team of "silver greys."

The Council Bluffs Nonpareil boats of one train arriving at that city with 147 passengers, and says that was the largest train ever ran into the city.

Another of the "fraternity" was brought up this morning for selling intoxicating drinks on the Sabbath, and fined $5 and costs.

The Council Bluffs Nonpareil (daily) is now received at this office. We always read the Nonpareil—when it is sent to us—classing it among our most valued exchanges.

We understand that a heavy contract for grading was let by the City Council a short time since.

The poles for the Railroad Telegraph will be set as far as Ashland this week, and the wire will be put up immediately.

The country has been blessed with a fine shower each day for the past three days. It has come just in time to be of great service to the wheat.

A small "knock down" occurred on Main street this afternoon. One of the participants (colored) was fined $5, and in default of payment was sent to the "lock up."

The universal testimony of strangers who stop at the Brooks House in this city is that it is the best house in the State.

In our article yesterday, relative to freights via the Keokuk Packet Line and the B. & M. R. R., we stated first class rates at 95 cents.

Billin & Son are getting their new building opposite the Brooks House nearly completed. They are putting in an elegant front, and in fact the entire building is first quality.

Read Mr. Ten Eick's advertisements. He is a liberal advertiser, and consequently a liberal dealer.

How does the Omaha Herald like the rebuke of such an honest democrat as Hon. J. S. Hunt, administered in his letter published in another column?

We are glad to know that our articles on the avenues are having the desired effect. Public opinion is being attracted to the subject, and every man who takes the trouble to examine the subject declares in favor of the immediate opening of them.

We publish an interesting article to-day from the Fremont Tribune in which are some extracts from the Nebraska City Chronicle.

The Railroad transfer business has increased wonderfully within the past month. The Transfer Company have been running two large Omnibuses, and yesterday they brought on the third one.

A large number of fruit trees are being set in Nebraska this spring. May moving has commenced. "Nate" Waybright has removed to summer quarters.

The Tribune says the population of Pawnee county is between 4000 and 5000. Hesser was on hand this morning with an arm full of lettuce, the first of the season.

Steamer Glasgow arrived at our levee at 12 m. to-day, loaded with freight for Plattsmouth. One of the "fraternity" in this city was arrested yesterday for selling intoxicating liquor on the Sabbath, and was fined $5.00 and costs.

Wm. Wilson, Esq., of Des Moines, Iowa, is in the city on a visit to his brother-in-law, S. Duke, Esq. They are a hale, hearty team of "silver greys."

The Council Bluffs Nonpareil boats of one train arriving at that city with 147 passengers, and says that was the largest train ever ran into the city.

Another of the "fraternity" was brought up this morning for selling intoxicating drinks on the Sabbath, and fined $5 and costs.

The Council Bluffs Nonpareil (daily) is now received at this office. We always read the Nonpareil—when it is sent to us—classing it among our most valued exchanges.

We understand that a heavy contract for grading was let by the City Council a short time since.

The poles for the Railroad Telegraph will be set as far as Ashland this week, and the wire will be put up immediately.

The country has been blessed with a fine shower each day for the past three days. It has come just in time to be of great service to the wheat.

A small "knock down" occurred on Main street this afternoon. One of the participants (colored) was fined $5, and in default of payment was sent to the "lock up."

The universal testimony of strangers who stop at the Brooks House in this city is that it is the best house in the State.

In our article yesterday, relative to freights via the Keokuk Packet Line and the B. & M. R. R., we stated first class rates at 95 cents.

Billin & Son are getting their new building opposite the Brooks House nearly completed. They are putting in an elegant front, and in fact the entire building is first quality.

Read Mr. Ten Eick's advertisements. He is a liberal advertiser, and consequently a liberal dealer.

How does the Omaha Herald like the rebuke of such an honest democrat as Hon. J. S. Hunt, administered in his letter published in another column?

We are glad to know that our articles on the avenues are having the desired effect. Public opinion is being attracted to the subject, and every man who takes the trouble to examine the subject declares in favor of the immediate opening of them.

We publish an interesting article to-day from the Fremont Tribune in which are some extracts from the Nebraska City Chronicle.

The Railroad transfer business has increased wonderfully within the past month. The Transfer Company have been running two large Omnibuses, and yesterday they brought on the third one.

A large number of fruit trees are being set in Nebraska this spring. May moving has commenced. "Nate" Waybright has removed to summer quarters.

The Tribune says the population of Pawnee county is between 4000 and 5000. Hesser was on hand this morning with an arm full of lettuce, the first of the season.

Steamer Glasgow arrived at our levee at 12 m. to-day, loaded with freight for Plattsmouth. One of the "fraternity" in this city was arrested yesterday for selling intoxicating liquor on the Sabbath, and was fined $5.00 and costs.

Wm. Wilson, Esq., of Des Moines, Iowa, is in the city on a visit to his brother-in-law, S. Duke, Esq. They are a hale, hearty team of "silver greys."

The Council Bluffs Nonpareil boats of one train arriving at that city with 147 passengers, and says that was the largest train ever ran into the city.

Another of the "fraternity" was brought up this morning for selling intoxicating drinks on the Sabbath, and fined $5 and costs.

The Council Bluffs Nonpareil (daily) is now received at this office. We always read the Nonpareil—when it is sent to us—classing it among our most valued exchanges.

We understand that a heavy contract for grading was let by the City Council a short time since.

The poles for the Railroad Telegraph will be set as far as Ashland this week, and the wire will be put up immediately.

The country has been blessed with a fine shower each day for the past three days. It has come just in time to be of great service to the wheat.

A small "knock down" occurred on Main street this afternoon. One of the participants (colored) was fined $5, and in default of payment was sent to the "lock up."

The universal testimony of strangers who stop at the Brooks House in this city is that it is the best house in the State.

In our article yesterday, relative to freights via the Keokuk Packet Line and the B. & M. R. R., we stated first class rates at 95 cents.

Billin & Son are getting their new building opposite the Brooks House nearly completed. They are putting in an elegant front, and in fact the entire building is first quality.

Read Mr. Ten Eick's advertisements. He is a liberal advertiser, and consequently a liberal dealer.

How does the Omaha Herald like the rebuke of such an honest democrat as Hon. J. S. Hunt, administered in his letter published in another column?

We are glad to know that our articles on the avenues are having the desired effect. Public opinion is being attracted to the subject, and every man who takes the trouble to examine the subject declares in favor of the immediate opening of them.

We publish an interesting article to-day from the Fremont Tribune in which are some extracts from the Nebraska City Chronicle.

The Railroad transfer business has increased wonderfully within the past month. The Transfer Company have been running two large Omnibuses, and yesterday they brought on the third one.

A large number of fruit trees are being set in Nebraska this spring. May moving has commenced. "Nate" Waybright has removed to summer quarters.

The Tribune says the population of Pawnee county is between 4000 and 5000. Hesser was on hand this morning with an arm full of lettuce, the first of the season.

Steamer Glasgow arrived at our levee at 12 m. to-day, loaded with freight for Plattsmouth. One of the "fraternity" in this city was arrested yesterday for selling intoxicating liquor on the Sabbath, and was fined $5.00 and costs.

Wm. Wilson, Esq., of Des Moines, Iowa, is in the city on a visit to his brother-in-law, S. Duke, Esq. They are a hale, hearty team of "silver greys."

The Council Bluffs Nonpareil boats of one train arriving at that city with 147 passengers, and says that was the largest train ever ran into the city.

DOOM, BRO. & CO., WHOLESALE AND RETAIL, DEALERS IN DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, BOOTS AND SHOES, YANKEE NOTIONS, QUEENSWARE, & C. Main street, Plattsmouth, Neb. Where Everything in Their Line Can be Found.

C. and P. We Call The Attention of the Public to Our Stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Queensware, Notions, Boots and Shoes, Hats and Caps.

HARDWARE AND AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS AT MATHEWS, DONNELLY & CO. Would respectfully inform the people of Cass and adjoining counties that they have just opened a LARGE Hardware and Agricultural Establishment.

GIVE US A CALL. And Examine our Stock, that you may go away satisfied if not HAPPY. MATHEWS, DONNELLY & CO.

HARDWARE STOVE AND TIN STORE. The most complete assortment of Queensware and Glassware in the market, will be found at Clark & Plummer's and their prices are remarkably low.

EL. T. DUKE & CO., Wholesale and Retail dealers in Hardware and Agricultural Implements, STOVES, TIN, SHEET IRON, BRASS, JAPANESE & STAMPED WARE, STEEL PLOWS.

JOB WORK! Tin Roofing, Gutters and Spouting Done on Short Notice. Stewart's Celebrated Combination Coal or Wood Cook Stove.

C. W. MERK, DEALER IN Stoves, Tin, Hardware & Farming Tools; MANUFACTURER OF TIN AND SHEET IRON WARE. I am Selling First-Class Goods and Guaranty Not to be Undersold, as I am Buying of First Hands.