

LOCAL NEWS

PLATISMOUJA NEBRASKA

Table with 3 columns: Station, Train No., and Time. Lists various rail routes and schedules for the B. & M. R. R. in Nebraska.

B. & M. R. R. IN NEBRASKA. To take effect Sunday, May 15.

C. B. & ST. JOE R. R. To take effect, Sunday, May 15.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF THE PLATISMOUJA.

Table with 3 columns: Station, Train No., and Time. Lists arrival and departure times for the Platismoouja.

The travel over the B. & M. in Nebraska is increasing very rapidly.

The Bettine Express thinks that place is destined to be a great railroad center.

We are glad to learn that Col. Furness is about to commence the publication of a daily newspaper.

A distinctive fire occurred at Fremont yesterday.

The hands employed on the Omaha, Plattsmouth & Gulf Railroad are on a strike.

The printers on the Nebraska City Chronicle are on a "strike."

The latest railroad sensation in St. Joseph is the Chicago, St. Joseph and Santa Fe Railroad.

We understand that officer Frank Williams contemplates opening a small brick building one door west of the hardware office.

The latest railroad sensation in St. Joseph is the Chicago, St. Joseph and Santa Fe Railroad.

We understand that officer Frank Williams contemplates opening a small brick building one door west of the hardware office.

The work of putting up street lamps was commenced today.

We understand that officer Frank Williams contemplates opening a small brick building one door west of the hardware office.

We hope more of the farmers of Cass county will try raising winter wheat than have heretofore done so.

The Shippers of grain have been light during the past month.

Grain is coming in lively. The grain buyers of the city are paying from three to five cents higher for wheat and corn than can be realized at any other town on the river.

John B. Clark, of the banking firm of Tinkle, Hanna & Clark, arrived at home last evening.

The Railroad steamer Gallatin is making regular trips between the tip-rap work and the quarry.

A substitute for a grain elevator has been erected on the hill north of the Herald office.

We understand Deputy Clerk J. M. Beardsley has invested largely in city property.

We have occasional complaints from different quarters that the LIBERAL does not arrive on time.

The Brownville Agricultural Society is a farmer complaining to us of his poor crops the other day.

Dr. Stewart, of Pawnee county has been nominated as candidate for State Senator for the Fourth Senatorial District.

The Brownville Agricultural Society has been organized for the purpose of improving the cultivation of the soil.

Rev. H. W. Kullins, for fourteen years past the Pastor of the Lutheran Church at Omaha, has tendered his resignation.

It is said just before a rain is the best time for "suckers" to be taken.

A great advantage of a railroad is that the farmer can ship his own grain.

We are glad to learn that John R. Clark, Esq., is a little better today.

Our townman N. H. Orr has been quite ill for some weeks.

Wm. Stadelmann has sold his lot and shop establishment to Mr. O'Brien.

In the published delinquent list, a description occurred as follows: Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, block 4 N 5 E.

The young men's Christian association are closing the gambling institutions at Saratoga.

The Omaha Herald thinks the Democracy will bring "living issues" before the people this fall.

We are in receipt of some excellent sheet music composed by Otto Behr.

Henry Robinson, Esq., has removed his Wholesale Liquor establishment to the room formerly occupied by the B. & M. R. R. store.

We see by the Nebraska City papers that the Democratic primary meetings have taken place and delegates opposed to the Morton "Fetion" in that county.

A wall of rock appears above the water, a few feet out from the bank.

Mr. E. H. Cooper, special agent of the Patman Fire Insurance Co., of Hartford, Conn., was in our city yesterday.

A wall of rock appears above the water, a few feet out from the bank.

Secretary Kennel went south to St. Joseph to-day on business connected with the Salt Sales on the 27th September.

Lincoln Land Office, was in our city to-day on his way to the Capital.

We clip the following notice of our townman, W. C. Brown, Esq., from the Nebraska City Chronicle.

Mr. Brown commands the respect of all with whom he comes in contact.

Hon. John Gillispie, State Auditor, went west yesterday.

There will be preaching at the Court House at 11 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. next Sabbath.

A party of five Germans, consisting of Romeo Werner, Gust. Walther, Wm. Walther, Richard Walther and Aug. Niess, left the city this afternoon for an extended buffalo hunt.

Our city was lighted with gas Saturday evening, for the first time.

A fire broke out at Fremont, Nebraska, at 2 a. m. yesterday.

Col. Theo. Danae, Chief Engineer and Superintendent of the B. & M. R. R. in Neb., arrived in the city this morning.

Fitzgerald is perfectly irrepresible, and hardly a day passes over but he makes a new investment in city property.

It is no longer questioned by those who are posted in the shipment of grain that our city is the great grain mart of the west.

Be referred to our advertising columns it will be seen that Nat. Brown has established a line of Stages between Lincoln, the present western terminus of the B. & M. R. R. in Nebraska.

Capt. E. B. Murphy, of this city, has received a number of passes to be furnished soldiers in this locality who served in Iowa Regiments during the war.

In accordance with an act of the Legislature, the question will be voted on at the coming election whether or not a convention will be held for the purpose of amending the State Constitution.

While Mr. George Elliott, one of the largest farmers of the western part of the county, was endeavoring to oil the horse-power of a threshing machine.

Capt. Murphy, Deputy U. S. Marshal, arrived at home last evening.

He thinks Cass is one of the most glorious counties in the State.

He makes a minute an examination as he has. He reports to us a large number of valuable improvements in the county.

He thinks Cass is one of the most glorious counties in the State.

He makes a minute an examination as he has. He reports to us a large number of valuable improvements in the county.

He thinks Cass is one of the most glorious counties in the State.

He makes a minute an examination as he has. He reports to us a large number of valuable improvements in the county.

He thinks Cass is one of the most glorious counties in the State.

He makes a minute an examination as he has. He reports to us a large number of valuable improvements in the county.

He thinks Cass is one of the most glorious counties in the State.

He makes a minute an examination as he has. He reports to us a large number of valuable improvements in the county.

considerable store of knowledge" should make application for the school, and announce himself to the people in the following manner: "I propose to teach your school, but I wish it distinctly understood that your children shall not carry from my school any considerable store of knowledge."

A party of five Germans, consisting of Romeo Werner, Gust. Walther, Wm. Walther, Richard Walther and Aug. Niess, left the city this afternoon for an extended buffalo hunt.

Our city was lighted with gas Saturday evening, for the first time.

A fire broke out at Fremont, Nebraska, at 2 a. m. yesterday.

Col. Theo. Danae, Chief Engineer and Superintendent of the B. & M. R. R. in Neb., arrived in the city this morning.

Fitzgerald is perfectly irrepresible, and hardly a day passes over but he makes a new investment in city property.

It is no longer questioned by those who are posted in the shipment of grain that our city is the great grain mart of the west.

Be referred to our advertising columns it will be seen that Nat. Brown has established a line of Stages between Lincoln, the present western terminus of the B. & M. R. R. in Nebraska.

Capt. E. B. Murphy, of this city, has received a number of passes to be furnished soldiers in this locality who served in Iowa Regiments during the war.

In accordance with an act of the Legislature, the question will be voted on at the coming election whether or not a convention will be held for the purpose of amending the State Constitution.

While Mr. George Elliott, one of the largest farmers of the western part of the county, was endeavoring to oil the horse-power of a threshing machine.

Capt. Murphy, Deputy U. S. Marshal, arrived at home last evening.

He thinks Cass is one of the most glorious counties in the State.

He makes a minute an examination as he has. He reports to us a large number of valuable improvements in the county.

He thinks Cass is one of the most glorious counties in the State.

He makes a minute an examination as he has. He reports to us a large number of valuable improvements in the county.

He thinks Cass is one of the most glorious counties in the State.

He makes a minute an examination as he has. He reports to us a large number of valuable improvements in the county.

He thinks Cass is one of the most glorious counties in the State.

He makes a minute an examination as he has. He reports to us a large number of valuable improvements in the county.

He thinks Cass is one of the most glorious counties in the State.

He makes a minute an examination as he has. He reports to us a large number of valuable improvements in the county.

He thinks Cass is one of the most glorious counties in the State.

Advertisement for D. Schnasse & Co., featuring 'GREAT RUSH! LARGE CROWDS!' and listing various goods like Spring and Summer Goods, Dress Goods, and Stock of New York Store.

Advertisement for S. Bloom & Co. featuring an illustration of a pig and listing 'GROCERIES, HARDWARE, QUEENSWARE, WOODEN-WARE, GLASSWARE, YANKEE NOTIONS, HATS AND CAPS'.

Advertisement for A. W. Prole, 'Successor to White & Battery', featuring 'WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DRUGGIST' and 'The Largest and Most Complete' stock of goods.

Advertisement for W. C. Merk, 'DEALER IN Stoves, Tin, Hardware & Farming Tools', also listing 'RIPPL'S BEER GARDEN' and 'NEW BREWERY'.

Advertisement for 'THE BLUE RIVER STAGE CO.' listing stages to Lincoln and Blue River City, and offering passenger service.

Advertisement for 'VALLEY'S & RUFFER'S' offering a new supply of Boots and Shoes, and mentioning 'The Last Fall'.

Advertisement for 'GROVER & BAKER'S Sewing Machine' featuring 'Dry Goods' and 'Machines'.

Advertisement for 'MAXWELL & CLAPPAN' offering 'a good dwelling house and outbuildings'.

Advertisement for 'D. H. Wheeler & Co.' offering 'sale over 100 lots in the City of Plattsmouth'.

Advertisement for 'VALLEY'S & RUFFER'S' offering 'Are now receiving the largest stock of Dress Goods ever brought to this market'.

Advertisement for 'FOR RENT' offering 'Two or three rooms, suitable for housekeeping, corner of 7th and 8th streets'.

Advertisement for 'ESTRAY NOTICE' regarding 'A Bay Steer, one year old, with a white face, and a dark brown horse'.

Advertisement for 'SHERIFF'S SALE' regarding 'John Ballentine, William Ballentine & Geo. T. McKay'.

Advertisement for 'LEGAL NOTICE' regarding 'The State of Nebraska'.

Advertisement for 'NOTICE' regarding 'In herob given that on the 21st day of July'.

Advertisement for 'NOTICE' regarding 'In herob given that on the 21st day of July'.

Advertisement for 'NOTICE' regarding 'In herob given that on the 21st day of July'.

Advertisement for 'NOTICE' regarding 'In herob given that on the 21st day of July'.