

The street crossings should be cleaned and put in shape before a storm.

"Come to Pot." The first certificate of election for Secretary, Senatorial District.

Nebraska has adopted the "fall fashion" by giving a Republican majority uncommonly large.

Will some of our grain merchants look up the figures for us in the produce shipped from this point.

Isn't it about time "Pot" took off those "store clothes" again, in view of the order of Judge Lake?

One more time we ask if the city authorities will repair the bridge on Seventh street, south of Pearl?

Hon. A. L. Sprague has been in the city for a day or two. Sprague is doing a good business in Saunders.

Mr. Clark, father of our esteemed fellow townsman John R. Clark, is in the city for a few days on a visit.

Thistles appear to be growing in the streets of Nebraska City. The Times calls on the city "dads" to cut them.

Maj. Wheeler is having a new roof put on his residence, corner of Main and sixth streets.

Capt. E. B. Murphy is doing a good work for the city, in grading before his residence between Third and Fourth Streets.

We met the Recorder this morning. He was despondent. No cases—no drunks—no nothing. Alas for the degeneracy of the times!

Miss Elizabeth Wilson has been appointed postmaster at Wilson, in the county of Otoe, Nebraska, in place of Miss Margaret Wilson, resigned.

J. P. Lantz, of Lincoln, was in the city yesterday. He has out a new card with a map of the west on the back, which will serve as a pocket guide to immigrants to Nebraska.

The Council Bluffs folks are bragging about the water works they are to have. We had the finest ones in operation here last Saturday ever seen in the west. It rained all day, without ceasing a moment.

Three of the passengers of the ill-fated steamer Cambria were from Council Bluffs—Mrs. Hill, and Mrs. Smith and her son, who were going to England to visit the scenes and friends of long ago.

We understand that a fine Stage Coach has been put on between LaPlatte on the Omaha & Southwestern R. R. and this place. It will run Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

The prospects of peace in Europe have tumbled gold to 118, and wheat and other produce have gone down with it. This can be but a temporary fall, and we look for better times soon.

Mrs. J. V. B. Jackson, a former resident of this city, who has been in San Jose, California, for the past year, returned a few days since. She thinks of remaining in this city, and will probably invest in real estate.

It is said that Gov. Stephens, of Ky., U. S. Senator elect from that State, is disqualified for the position by reason, as is charged, that he accepted a Colonel's commission in the rebel army at the commencement of the war.

The Tenth Senatorial District has been served similar to ours of the Seventh.—The canvass was made with the returns of only three out of the seven counties in, and the certificate was issued to the Democrat, as here.

E. T. Shamp, Esq., is erecting a building on Sixth street, to be used by him as a Gunsmith Shop. This kind of an institution has long been needed in Platts-mouth.

Some fellow refused to pay his wash bill at Nebraska City recently and the local of the Times threatens to publish his name. The local seems to have a deep interest in the payment of the bill.

A drove of cattle were put into the river at Nebraska City recently to swim across, and twenty-five of them were drowned. They should have been supplied with Merriam's Life preservers.

We saw parties unloading a car of potatoes this morning, which had been loaded for Chicago. The drop in the market knocks the profit off.

Dr. N. B. Larsh, Superintendent of the State Lunatic Asylum, passed up on the western bound train for Lincoln. The Dr. hopes to have the Asylum in running order at an early day.

We have on our table "The Aeneid in Modern American." The "poetical license" apparently constituted the harness of this new book, and for good reason, instead of splitting laughter we recommend it to all lovers of the classic bard of Mantua. The cuts are artistic and numerous. Price 25cts. address Winsted Herald, Winsted Conn.

A good memory is a very important thing sometimes. The Nebraska City Times says, one day, that there are three or four hundred wagons coming into that burg loaded with grain every day, and in the very next issue, it attempts to show that they are doing a heavy grain business by asserting that the record of the sheds shows that there are as high as forty wagons loaded with grain weighed in a single day. Oh, what a memory!

A man in Lewiston, Me., has recently grafted a cash vine with complete success.

F. A. White, Esq., of Nebraska City, was in the city to-day. White is a first class man—always calls on the HERALD, and we are always pleased to see him.

Rev. J. M. Taggart has left Nebraska City and gone to Blair, to officiate as pastor of the Baptist Church in the latter place.

Parties interested are requested to pay attention to the notice of the City Marshal, published for the past few days, relative to paying claims for licenses.—Trouble may be saved by a prompt attention to the request of the Marshal.

By reference to a circular letter from A. E. Tomalin published to day, it will be seen that a new, short route has been opened to the east from Burlington.—This will elevate the B. & M. another notch in the scale, and make it the rail road line of the west.

We are in receipt of a neat pamphlet of the Charter and Ordinances of the city of Platts, published at the City of Platts. It is a credit to the mechanical skill and facilities of the proprietor of the Register.

As an instance of success on the part of the Labor Reform Party in this State, the Omaha papers announce the marriage of Frank Rooney, the President, and Miss Alice Butterfield.

We have just gathered a few bushels of the second crop of Isabella grapes grown on the same vines this season. The berry is about as large as usual, and a few clusters ripened. The most of them, however, were green, but fine for jellies.—Bonneville Advertiser.

The Public Schools of the City will open next Monday. We have two new brick School Houses, and the central one will be commenced in a few days.

A bridge at Denver, Col., sports this notice: "No vehicle drawn by more than one animal is allowed to cross this bridge in opposite directions at the same time."

Potatoes have dropped in Chicago from $1 to 40cts. per bushel. Those dealers who have purchased in this city recently at 42 cents a bushel, for the purpose of shipping to Chicago, will not realize more than one hundred per cent on their investments.

Fitzgerald has concluded to "back" the Brooks House himself for a time, and has secured the services of Mrs. Fox, the elder, to superintend the internal affairs of the establishment, assisted by her son Everett Fox. Mrs. Fox has superintended the machinery of a large hotel in the east, for many years, and we doubt not her skill and firmness will make the Brooks the best hotel in the west. Large additions of furniture bedding etc., are being made.

Mr. Frank McWhinney, of the Exchange Bank, Greenville, Ohio, was in our city a few days since. He was on a tour of observation through the west and seemed well pleased with our city and its business prospects. He is a substantial business man, just the kind we like to see coming to Platts-mouth. He is a brother-in-law of our fellow townsman, Charley Cooper.

We had the pleasure of a call this morning from Mr. G. W. Atkinson, editor and publisher of the West Virginia Journal, of Charleston, West Va., a Republican paper of the pure stripe. Mr. Atkinson is visiting the west with a view to investing in property and settling here.

The committee appointed to confer with the officers of the Omaha and S. W. R. R. Company returned to-day.—They report no definite propositions made on either side, but that a general talk was had, and that the company evidently mean business. The Company has decided to place a corps of Engineers at work to survey the different routes suggested by the Committee, after which some definite propositions will be made by the Company.

A hypocritical scoundrel in Athens inherited over his door: "Let no evil enter here." Diogenes went under it: "How does the owner get in?"

The above was considered 'sharp' in Diogenes, but if some common scrub of a Nebraska boy had perpetrated it no one would have ever thought of it again. It makes a great difference sometimes who does or says a 'cute' thing.

The Omaha Tribune starts itself with the question, "Whither are we drifting?" You are "drifting" to the "bad" just about as fast as it is possible to drift, if we are any judge. You should have asked and considered that question at an earlier date—before you bolted your party nominations and tried to break up the Republican organization in Nebraska.

The man who contemplated leaving the State on election day because he was afraid he would not vote right, has written another "stammer" to the Omaha Tribune. It is currently reported that "Pete" will pledge himself to not only re-district the county if elected County Superintendent, but to erect a new school house in each district. He would reply to the communication in the Tribune were it not that he is too busy laying the wires for his election.

T. M. C. A. There will be a Sociable of the Y. M. C. A. held at their rooms, opposite the Brooks House, Saturday evening, November 5th. Every one is earnestly so invited to be present, as a pleasant time is anticipated. The occasion will be supplied with vocal and instrumental music by the different "church choirs" and musicians of the city. Admission free.

J. N. WISE. R. BAXTER WINDHAM, EDWARD WILSON, Committee on Sociables.

The Argus says:—"Thirty house keepers in Troy are importing Chinese—"

At the Post-office in Plattsmouth, by Judge Child, October 27, 1870. Mrs. Hans C. Nelson and Mrs. Minnie Nelson, all of Plattsmouth.

Five thousand men, of all kinds, from the Millionaire to the laborer, are wanted here in Plattsmouth. To day there is a great call for men. Every laborer in the city is at work, and hundreds more are needed. Come, if you want work, or come, if you wish to make money on a small capital.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS. We are sorry to say that there is no town in the State where there has been the same carelessness in regard to public school houses as in Plattsmouth. But our people have at last aroused to the importance of the subject, and the work of erecting a fine Central School Building on the City Park, will be commenced immediately. The building is to cost some $25,000 or 40,000 and will be completed early next season. The city authorities have secured a small loan from the State School Fund with which to commence the work, and we learn that the foundations of the building will be put in at once. As soon as we are able to learn the exact size and plan of the building we will inform the readers of the HERALD in regard to them.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION. The meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, Tuesday night, was very gratifying, and gives promise of the great usefulness which such an organization is susceptible of. There were many of the finest voices of our lady vocalists in the singing, and we confess the gratitude we feel toward those fair and generous beings for lending us the great influence of their presence. These associations are now prospering in all the large cities of the Union, and the happy thought of merging our Literary Society into this Association is highly creditable to the good sense of our young men. One of the primary objects of this organization is to furnish their large Hall in a manner to render it attractive and pleasant, as a place of resort, after business hours, for our young men, and to keep new papers from all the large cities of the world, and from every State in the Union, upon the files, together with the readable magazines, published at home and abroad—thus giving meritorious recreation to the clerk, the professional man, and the tradesman, every evening. This news and reading room will be kept open from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. every day, and be under the supervision of a Librarian, and be appointed by the Board, and he will see that everything about the Hall is comfortable and pleasant for visitors.

Lectures, during the winter, will be invited, and steps have already been taken to secure some of the most famous lecturers of the country to address the Association, at which time, as at others, the members will do all in their power to show our citizens how praiseworthy is their work, and we do hope every good citizen of Plattsmouth will encourage and aid this organization as far as their power and ability will allow them.

Sociables will also form a feature in the entertainments to be provided by the Association. A Library will soon be formed, the nucleus for it having already been obtained; and pervading all its work will be found a generous, wholesome, Christian spirit, tending to strengthen the weak and to improve all.

Many of our young men look upon it as a sort of religious revival or camp meeting organization; but to such we say come and see. The Association is designed to strengthen our love of the Christian Religion without regard to sectarianism, and at the same time to furnish intellectual enjoyment of a beautiful character for all within the radius of its influence. The wonderful success of such organizations in all parts of the world encourages us to the belief that the Young Men's Christian Association of Plattsmouth will prove a permanent blessing in our midst. We urge every man, young and old alike, and every lady in the city, to join it without delay. Now is the time to show good will; we say do not wait to see if it is going to be successful, but join at once, and thus help to insure success.

Conductors are recommending, sometimes, as well as other people. A citizen of this city while traveling over the B. & M. accidentally lost his hat. Of course the train could not be stopped for a hat, but the Conductor took the trouble to see that it was found, and the owner received his hat yesterday by express, gratis.—Ad. City Chronicle.

And the same chap—whose name is Sheppard—stopped his train a few days since in Salt creek Valley, lugged up to a burning house where the "lone, lone woman" was wailing in the distance of her property without the power to save it—the passengers jumped out and soon quenched the flames and saved the house. Everybody likes to travel with Sheppard. The B. & M. folks always employ the best men in the country.

RECORDERS COURT. Oct. 31—One Michael—the balance of whose name we will leave in obscurity—was arrested on Saturday evening by officer Williams. Michael plead guilty to considerable "rightness." He was committed, in default of the needful. For further particulars inquire of Frank or look at his own coat.

Oct. 28—Before his Honor this morning came three cases of "red corn's" detestable, one of whom was a descendant of Ham "sandwiched" with mud, and a blacker, mud-like object we have never had the pleasure of seeing. He, it seems, had undertaken to cross the "branch." He crossed it, half way on the bridge and tumbled off. "Mud tumbled it." The mud fell was imposed on all, and suggestions have been made that Joe be indicted for keeping "bars" without a license.

Never wait for a thing to turn up—Go and turn it up yourself. It takes less time, and is sure to be done.

PERDUS CALLING FOR ANY OF THE ABOVE LETTERS WILL BE CONSIDERED "ADVERTISED."

J. W. MARSHALL, P. M.

Another victim of the "vine and woman" was brought up with a "short turn" in this city yesterday. The victims were Smith—not John Smith—and he claims his home in the north town of Burlington, Iowa.—He has been traveling during the past three years for a wholesale hardware house of that city—Dorland & Co.—and was by them trusted with large amounts of money, and was looked upon as an honest and industrious young man.—He left for a business trip through Iowa and Nebraska about three weeks ago, and about a week ago he returned to his employers $1,300 in money. About that time they heard he was on a "spec" and they began to feel uneasy. They waited a few days, and then Mr. Robert Donahue started to hunt the young man. He heard of him in several places through Iowa—where he had collected three or four hundred dollars—and finally found the veritable Smith here in Plattsmouth, spending his time and money in the saloons and houses of ill fame. He took him to the hotel Thursday evening, where the young man acknowledged his guilt. He gave Mr. Donahue $300 which he said was all the money he possessed. His books showed a deficiency of about $480. Smith gave an order on some relatives in Burlington for the amount. Donahue telegraphed yesterday to see if the order would be accepted, but the answer came in the negative.—Complaint was then entered before Judge Child, a warrant issued and placed in the hands of officer Williams, who soon found the young fellow safely (as he supposed) stowed away within the classic walls of "crib No. 2." He was brought before Judge Child where he was again confronted with his much wronged employer, who told him that if he would deliver to him all the money he had (as he believed he had not done so at first) and would go back to Burlington and arrange some way to pay the deficiency, he would not prosecute him, otherwise he would proceed with the prosecution on a criminal charge. The young man fished over $85 more. He was then searched, but nothing more was found except a dollar or two in change. They immediately departed for Burlington. Mr. Smith can thank his stars that his employer is filled with the "milk of human kindness," else he would be in jail awaiting trial.

A GOOD BOLE. We understand that our business men have agreed to close their stores at 7:30 p. m. This has been brought about by the solicitation of the Young Men's Christian Association of this place and we are informed that our merchants very readily and very cheerfully responded to the call made on them.

We are requested to ask all business men to put this rule into operation on Monday evening next. As the Saturday evening next is not included in the operation of this agreement, our citizens will observe that on and after next Saturday all stores in the city will close at 7:30 p. m., every evening except Saturdays.—This being known to our citizens they will govern themselves accordingly.

We are informed that the Reading Room of the Y. M. C. A. is now receiving a large number of Journals which will be increased steadily until it becomes second to none in the west for the number and character of its magazines and newspapers.

We again commend this association to the earnest support of every citizen, and urge all young men to join it, on our duty which can be done by paying $1. to J. N. Wise Librarian and enrolling their names in the list of members.

Notwithstanding the small fee is demanded and is necessary to preserve membership—the association desire to let all persons know that the Reading Room is FREE and they will be glad to furnish every evening. For the information of the ladies we would say that they are very much interested in paying 20 cents and we trust they will send themselves in the good name without delay. We are told a Committee of three gentlemen and three ladies will visit our citizens with a view to soliciting their names as members. Let us all take hold of this laudable enterprise to take it to success.
