The Independence (Iowa) Bulletin FALL AND WINTER GOODS. records the heroic conduct of a lady teacher of that place, Miss Maggie Cooper. The school building in which she was teaching is provided with ventillating flues, connected with the rooms by registers. These registers are of cast iron, weighing about forty pounds each, and are let into the wall about thirteen feet from the floor. The other afternoon. GREAT RUSH! LARGE CROWDS! as two little boys were work at the blackboard, directly under the register, in Miss Cooper's room, the lady happened to cast her eye in the direction of the ceiling, and saw to her consternation that the heavy iron register was on the very point of falling on the heads of the un-conscious children Taking in the situat a glance, she saw that the little ones French renewed the fight on the 16th and were repulsed with heavy loss in killed.

Paris prices are rather steep. Here are a few of them. Ham sells at eight francs per pound. Lyons sausage, made of mule flesh it said, sells at sixteen francs per pound. Horse steak may be had for two and a half francs for each pound. A goose costs twenty-five francs; a chicken fifteen, a turkey fifty-five, and a pound of butter about fifteen francs or about three dollars. In fact there is no use trying to live, and making a sor lyance on Perrone.

Miss Motley, daughter of the late stence. The flesh is too expensive an American Minister, was married to-day establishment to be kept up by common people.

Married men are of two kinds-good and bad. The bad are truly horrible; the good very good indeed. The bad married man ill-treats his family in every way, and generally ends by running Bourbaki attacked the Prussians on away and leaving his wife to earn a hy-Sunday morning and on Monday and ing by needle-work. Harper's Bazar contains 16 folio pages of the size of Harper's Weekly, printed on superfine calendered paper, and is published weekly. MAIN STREET, (third door west of P O Plattsmouth - - - Neb. NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

Harper's Bazar contains, besides pictures, patterns, etc., a variety of matter of especial use and interest to the family; articles on health, dress, and housekeeping in all its branches; its Repairing and Varnishing neatly done.
Funerals attended at the shortest notice. NAOMI INSTITUTE dross, and housekeeping in all its branches; its editorialmatter is especially adapted to the circle
it is intended to interest and instruct; and it has, besides, good stories and literary matter of merit. It is not surprising that the journal, with such features, has achieved in a short time
an immense success; for something of its kind was desired in thousands of families, and its publishers have filled the demand. The young lady

TUESDAY. DEC. 13 is made a subscriber for life.—New York Evening Post.

The Baxar is excellent Like all the periodicals which the Harpers publish, it is almost idea'ly well edited, and the class of readers for whom it is intended—the mothers and daughters in average families—can not but profit by its good sense and good taste, which, we have no doubt, are to day making very many homes hapier than they may have been before the woman beran taking lessons in personal and household and social management from this good natured mentor.—The Nation, N.
