And How They Were Made.

By J. D. McCabe, Jr. Profusely illustrated and beautifully bound. The most universally sought after book issued for years. It shows how a poor school master made $40,000,000; how a poor half-blind sailor became a great banker, a butcher's apprentice the wealthiest man in America, an unknown mechanic a millionaire in seven years—with many more such examples; how energy, talent, and patient industry have always met with success when properly exerted; how money can be made honestly and without sacrifice of principle. LOCAL NEWS!

Wm. Stadelmann, Esq., has sent home one of those miniature mowing machines called a "Lawn Mower."

There will be more people settle in Nebraska this season than during any two former years.

J. P. Lantz, Esq., of Lincoln, publisher of the Intelligencer, was in the city last night. He left for home to day.

Fitzgerald has furnished the Brooks House with a splendid new omnibus, in which guests are carried to and from trains free of cost.

Another homestead house on wheels passed through the city to-day.

E. M. Marsnan, Esq., Division Superintendent for this State of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, was in the city to-day looking after the affairs of the company. They expect to increase their service west in a short time.

Prof. Meuller went west this morning and will return to our city again to-morrow. Mueller is agent for most of the first-class musical instruments of the United States, and we advise parties to consult him before purchasing.

Maj. D. H. Wheeler, Secretary Nebraska State Board of Agriculture, has our thanks for a copy of the Constitution and By-Laws of the Board, together with a complete list of premiums offered for the next State Fair. The pamphlet was printed at the Advertiser office, and is a neat job.

Our Fillmore correspondent rejoices muchly over the B. & M. R. R., and thinks the HERALD has a cord of sympathy with him. You are right, friend "Ahaz." The HERALD "rejoices with those that rejoice, and weeps with those that weep," when their joy or sorrow is for a worthy object, as in this case.

Two mountain boats passed up the river yesterday evening.

The Journal reported 192 cases in the B. & M. yards at Lincoln last Monday. Not bad for a town in the heart of the "Great American Desert."

There seems to be a general complaint of the scarcity of money, but the universal verdict is that business is better in Plattsmouth than in any other city in the west.

E. G. Dovey delivers goods free to any part of the city.

The name of the company headed by Capt. E. B. Murphy, which left for the west a few days since, is the "Arapahoe Town Company."

Fitzgerald has a force of laborers at work clearing away the trash from his recent purchase of forty acres in the south west part of the city.

It does one good these dull times to step into the cheap cash store of D. Schnasse & Co. and see the piles of goods they are selling every day. Schnasse and Lenhoff are very popular men, and then they are fair men to deal with.

The Great Western Telegraph Co have the poles set between this city and Omaha, and are pushing ahead toward Nebraska City and St. Joseph. They will probably have the wires up and an office opened in a few days.

We have a word to say to our citizens, not by way of condemning but merely as a suggestion, that, when immigrants pass through our city on their way to settle up the fertile regions of our State, let us not hesitate nor weary in giving them all the information they desire in regard to our country. A word of encouragement, spoken in time, might be the instrument of bringing many more to our State. We should not be so entirely absorbed in our business that, when an immigrant asks us in regard to our soil, climate, our future prospects, or what not, we should give them a hasty answer and pass on. The immigrant wants encouragement, and we should give it to them at all times. They are "strangers in a strange land," and if we do not stop long enough to give them an encouraging word when they ask it, how must we expect them to get it?—We are all desirous of encouraging emigration to our State, but after they land on our soil are we not too prone to neglect them and their many wants?

Court at Ashland adjourned last evening, and Messrs. Marquett and Maxwell returned home this morning.

Rev. J. N. Parker, of Lincoln, had his right arm dislocated last Sunday morning while trying to hold a cow by the horns until she could be tied.

Gen. Cunningham came in from Lincoln last evening.

Dr. M. H. McCluskey, of Glenwood, the genial, whole-souled Mc. of former days—was in the city this morning and presented himself at the HERALD sanctum. We are glad to know that Mc. has prospered since he has been from here.

Hon. W. F. Chapin, Mayor of Lincoln came in from the Capital city this evening.

Mr. Thompson Bissell, of Saunders county, is one of the heaviest stock growers in the State. He fattened seventy head of the six car loads recently shipped east from this city, of which mention was made in the HERALD.

Will those gentlemen who were to have the trunk railroad constructed through Cass county without giving any aid, please tell us just when work is to commence?

W. M. Maddox, Republican, is elected to the House of Representatives from Richardson county to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Somerladd.

The "Eagle" locomotive gave out at Ashland this morning on her way west, having been worked so hard recently, in consequence of the great increase of busines, as to not give time for the proper repairs. She will be all right again in a day or two.

The Democrats elected their entire ticket in Richardson except one member of the Constitutional Convention.—Weaver, one of the Republican candidates, was elected.

AND YET ANOTHER.

To-day the Misses O'Brien advertise their superior stock of millinery goods, also that their establishment can do as good work in the dress and cloak making line as any other in the west. These young ladies desire a fair share of the patronage of the ladies of Plattsmouth, feeling confident their goods and work will give satisfaction.

HIP! HIP! HURRAH!! FOR THE B. & M. R. R. IN FILLMORE COUNTY NEBRASKA.

Ground has been broken as far west as town 8, range 3 west of the 6th principal meridian, and sub-contractors following the engineer's west ready to begin work on each mile as soon as they get it "staked out" Is it a reality? Has this night of years past? Is the light of civilization to dawn on this wilderness of the west? Have we hauled our last load of produce one hundred and twenty-five miles to "old muddy?" Are we to have a railroad and telegraph, and all their accompanying luxuries; HAIL AUSPICIOUS DAY!

Dear HERALD, will you and your readers rejoice with us? Let one long, glad shout of triumphant joy roll o'er these grand old prairies, and awake the echoes which have slumbered for ages past, only when awakened by the wild beasts, or the wilder savages war-whoop. "Westward the star of empire wends her way."

We were vexed at the jumble made by the jumarts who undertook to lead in the county organization, but our anger, caused by their stupid blunders, has all subsided, and we rejoice with joy unspeakable—enthusiastic joy! In a few days we can cross the street, take a seat in one of Pullman's Palace Cars, of the B. & M. Railroad, which will land us in five and a half days on the front steps of the dear old family mansion, in the Old Bay State. It is sixteen years since our step was last heard in the halls of that dear old Home. Father, mother, sister and brother, are sleeping beneath the weeping willow. Yet, we long to tread those halls once more. We long to sit by mother's grave, and weep tears of repentance for youthful follies, and there receive fresh fortitude for coming life. Through all these long years of care and strife we have never forgotten the friends nor home of our youth.—And oh! how earnestly we have wished for the day to dawn when we could take the cars in Fillmore county, Nebraska, for the old home in Massachusetts. We now see the dawning of that long wished for day, and we rejoice. We believe there is a chord in the heart of the HERALD which vibrates with the finest emotions, and in unison with our own, when touched by the finger of progression and development, such as is exhibited by the energetic people of Nebraska

Your respectfully, AHAZ.
FILLMORE County, May 9, 1871.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE.

Last night a number of our citizens assembled at Clark & Plummer's Hall for the purpose of organizing a Lodge of the Sons of Temperance. Nothing was done further than discussing the propriety of having such an organization in our place, and other matters of interest pertaining to the same. This Lodge, as we understand it, is not to conflict with the Order of Good Templars in any respect, but simply to have an organization of this kind in this place to still further the cause of Temperance. Its terms are liberal, and its workings of the most systematic kind. An officer will be here in a few weeks to organize, permanently, the Lodge. We wish our citizens who have the matter in hand success in their undertaking.

HEAVY BUSINESS.

The freight and passenger business over the B. & M. in Nebraska is increasing very rapidly. Their rolling stock is all pressed into use, and even the passenger trains are often compelled to attach freight cars—as was the case this morning.

Mr Merges is doing some of the finest work in marble we have seen for many years. The monument to the memory of our departed friend E. C. Lewis is a credit to any worker in marble in the west—not so much fancy work as some would desire, but of a massive and substantial kind that inspires one with an idea of greatness. The Merges Bros. have no superiors in the west as work men in marble.

"Luxuries of Modern Travel."

In these days the taste of the Traveling Public has become exceedingly fastidious. In order to obtain their patronage, a Railroad line must be able to insure Safety, Speed and comfortable transportation, by possessing the necessary qualifications of a first-class equipment of coaches and locomotives, a solid road-bed and heavy iron Pullman's Palace Sleeping cars, Pullman's dining cars, a direct route, good connections and careful management.

The Burlington route is making every effort to possess all these qualifications to a high degree, and offers a route to all points east, west, north south, by reason of its connections as follows:

1. At Omaha with the Pacific roads.
2. At Plattsmouth with the B. & M. R. R., in Nebraska.
3. At Hamburg, with the St Joseph Railroad for all points in Kansas, &c.
4. At Ottawa, with the Des Moines Valley and north Missouri railroads.
5. At Burlington with the B., C. R. & M. R. R., for Davetport, Muscatine, &c.
6. At Monmouth, with the R. R. I. & St. L. and Western Union Railroads, for St. Paul, and points in the north, and for St Louis and points in the south.
7. At Peoria, with the short line Bloomington route to Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Louisville and all points south and east.
8. At Peoria, with the T., P. & W. R. R., for Logan-port, Columbus, &c.
9. At Mendota, with all the Illinois Central.
