A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment, and Radical Cure of Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Emissions, Sexual Debility, and Impediments to Marriage generally; Nervousness, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits; Mental and Physical Incapacity, resulting from self-abuse, &c.—By Robert J. Culverwell, M. D., author of the "Green Book," &c.

The world renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequence of self-abuse may be effectually removed without medicine, and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings or cordials, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically. This lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.

Sent under seal, in any address, in a plain sealed envelope, on the receipt of six cents, or two postage stamps. Also Dr. Culverwe l's "marriage guide," price 25 cents. Address the Publishers,

LOCAL NEWS

Surveyor General Cunningham removed his family to this city last week, where they have taken up a permanent abode.

In another column of our paper to day will be found a description of Franklin county, written by one of our citizens, who has just returned from an extended tour through our western counties, and his statements are reliable.

Mr. A. Austin, son of Hon. Benj. Austin, of this county, arrived at home last week from Evanston, Ill., where he has been attending school. He will remain at home during vacation.

The vexed question as to whether Mr. James should control the Constitutional Convention printing, and give it to a democratic paper instead of a Republican paper, has been settled by the Convention itself declaring its authority to control the matter, and by letting it to the lowest bidder. The Journal was the lowest bidder on most of the work, and consequently the Statesman and Bro James are left to hold the bag.

Dr. Renner is about to remove his German printing office to Lincoln, where he will resume the publication of his paper.

The Journal states, in answer to our query as to why Secretary James desired to give the Convention printing to the Democratic paper at Lincoln, that he has constantly worked and voted with that party since he has been a resident of that city. We are sorry to hear that such is the fact. Mr. James was elected as a Republican, and he should at least retain the semblance of a Republican until his term of office expires.

THE ORATORIO.

Professor Baker reports that the class in this splendid cantata are making rapid progress. At every rehersal the numbers are augmented, and decided improvements are made. Mrs. E. M. Winterstein will perform the splendid solos, as the Queen's first Maid of Honor. She has also consented to take the responsible part of leader of the Chorus, which with her splended voice and fine musical attainments, she is eminently qualified to fill.

Mr. Frank Kershaw has been assigned the part of Kings scribe. Zeresh's first Maid of Honor is Miss Frank C. Myers; second Maid of Honor Miss Sylvia Clayton.

GERMAN SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Our German fellow citizens, according to advertisement, held a meeting, and judging from appearances quite a successful one. After explaining the object of the meeting, which was to open a Sunday School for the Germans, they appointed J. Vallery, Esq., as President, besides a Superintendent, a Secretary, and a good staff of Teachers, who all seemed happy with the part which they had taken in this noble and glorious work. They made arrangements to open the school next Sunday, for the first time at 9½ a. m. All are cordially invited.

OUR GRAIN TRADE.

We have occasionally referred to the fact that Plattsmouth is the best grain market in the west, and that more grain is handled at this place than at any other city in the west. In saying this we mean to substantiate it by facts and figures. Mr. J. G. Hay thought he would count the loads of corn which came in on a single street yesterday, and he tallied ninety-five wagon loads, making an aggregate of not less than 5,000 bushels of corn which came into the city on a single road. He tallied one hundred and thirty-eight farm wagons, ten emigrant wagons and six loads of hay—Day before yesterday he counted ninety-one farm wagons on Main street at one time. These figures may not seem very large, but they give the thing just as it is, and people at a distance can estimate for themselves what business we have—especially when they consider that many of our farmers are in the midst of their winter wheat, rye and barley harvest.—Mr. Riordan, Agent of the B. & M. R. R., corroborates Mr. Hays statement by saying to us that they have shipped on an average of ten car loads of corn a day for the past ten days, and that fifteen cars had been loaded before three o'clock to day. This must soon make money matters easier in this locality, for every bushel brings so much cash into the country.

TO THE FRIENDS OF POMOLOGY IN NEBRASKA.

The American Pomological Society will hold its thirteenth annual session at Richmond, Virginia, September 6th, 7th, and 8th, 1871. It is my intention to attend this meeting, and I desire to take with me such a collection of fruits grown in Nebraska as I know the State can produce. Will the friends correspond, and inform me what fruits they can furnish. I desire to present the collection as a State collection, and at the same time give each contributor individual credit.

HOUSE TO RENT.—The Episcopal Rectory can be rented by applient on to the Wardens. sl2d0tf

The amount spent last year in this country for missions and missions, home and foreign, was about eight million dollars; and that for artificial flowers fifteen million.

The city debt of New York, which five years ago was $40,000,000, now amounts to nearly $100,000,000. The effects of Democratic rule.

A Mississippi diver, whose business it is to rummage among the wrecks at the bottom of that perilous stream relates some disagreeable experiences.—His work has to be done in total darkness. The sunlight cannot penetrate the turbid water, and no artificial light can be used. The diver has to feel about with bare hands which are in constant danger of contact with unpleasant things. "Divers," he says, "always shun a corpse, knowing the touch is deadly poison to them with their hands softened by the water." He complains bitterly of a way the large fish and turtles have of running foul of his legs, keeping them bruised and sore by their familiarities.

THE COUNTY FAIR—OUR OPINION ABOUT STOCK.

EIGHT MILE GROVE, Cass Co., Neb. June 28th, 1871.

EDITOR HERALD:—We are gratified that through your columns the subject of County Fair has been a grateful until some motion is being taken, and the probability of success is good.

I have recently visited the stock yards of Messrs. E. Sage, Shryder (of Three Groves) and A. B. Taylor, and have seen at each some very fine pigs, that would be hard to beat in this State—Your humble servant also has some that are pronounced good by many good judges. After saying these, the choice is a brood of seven, two that being a than one year old, weighed on the 18th day of that remained three—it was eight weeks and two days—weight, forty-five and one-half pounds. Whoever can beat this has our consent to do so. I also have a cow that has been doing pretty well in the way of milk and butter. The first week of the present month her milk was kept by itself. I weighed the milk for twenty-four hours—weight, forty-four pounds; the butter for the week 11¼ pounds. Now, as the man who tells the first story stands no chance, I shall probably be badly beaten; but I will just say that the pigs might have had a better chance; as for the cow, she might have done better under more favorable circumstances, as the weather was very warm and butter was only 10 cents per pound, and a drag at that. There are also some very fine colts in this section which we are not afraid to place beside anything in the county. Among these we mention those owned by Messrs. Mutz, King and Bates, respectively, while there are others perhaps equally worthy of notice. These are sired by the justly celebrated blooded horse, "Morgan," raised by Timberland & Co., of Virginia, and now owned by O. T. Austin, formerly a resident of this county. We doubt not that the enterprising people of Cass Co. will take a deep interest in the fair and will make it a success, in the full sense of the word.

B. A.

No Plant yields so great an amount of nutriment from the same extent of soil as the banana. Humboldt estimated that it returns 20 times as much as the potato, and 133 times as much as wheat.

"Salt" is the subject of the school boy's latest composition: "The salt is a spice which spoils the potatoes—if you forget to put it on."

In Wyoming Territory where the women vote, the bride furnishes the ring and the parson's fee, and the bridegroom does the fainting.

The Burlington and Missouri railroad company will put up two hundred miles of boards fence this year.

Honest and courageous people have very little to say about either their courage or their honesty. The one has no need to boast of his brightness nor the more of the effulgence.

In order to give most folks a chance to go to the Salt Lake camp meetings this summer, the round trips from New York are being made for even $224 cost to $150. This saving of $80, is to a New Yorker who earns only $2 a day and has a large family to support, something of an object.

While a vender of greens in Boston last week was endeavoring to dispose of his stock in trade his poor old nag balked and refused to budge an inch. The driver finally began belaboring the animal with a stick, when an old lady threw her head out of a window and exclaimed, "Have you mercy? "No, ma'am," replied the pedlar, "nothing but greens."

Many a man dreads throwing away his life at once, who shrinks not from throwing it away piecemeal.—Hooe.

Any one may do a casual act of good nature; but a continuation of them shows it a part of the temperament.

Many men spread the Gospel to secure them views, reputation, business or friendship. This is trading in divine things. And what is the hope of the hypocrite, although he has gained when God taketh away his soul?

The Rev. Mr. Talmadge, of Brooklyn, in a letter to one of the newspapers, expresses an opinion that, as a minister is set up for an example to his flock, he ought to have the best horse in the congregation. A minister, he says, is no more sacred when riding behind a spavined and ring-boned nag than when whirling along at the rate of a horse that can swallow a mile in 2.40.

A Chicago editor thinks it strange that the Indians have no phrase to express the word "honesty." Whereupon the Detroit Free Press remarks that there is nothing strange about it. Does he suppose the Indian agents would be feeling around the past ten years and not pocket the word?

The Constitutional Convention.

In looking in upon this body, and in view of the hard times, the expense to the State, and the course of the past Legislature, we were led to exclaim of what use is this Constitutional Convention, and why have a Constitutional Convention at all? The time was when constitutions were made to limit the encroachments of constituted authorities upon the rights of the people, but of what use they can now possibly be under the rule of our politicians is beyond our conception to determine.

Our present constitution says, no Legislature shall draw pay for more than forty days at any one session. In violation of this principle, our last Legislators demanded and received pay for nearly one hundred days. It distinctly says the State shall not incur an indebtedness of over $50 000. The auditor says that the State is now indebted somewhere between $200,000 to $447,000. It distinctly says that no Legislator shall be appointed or elected to any office of his own creating. Many of our present Legislators are in the Constitutional Convention a body which could have had no existence had they not so provided by an act duly passed and approved. Now if these things are permitted, and they are, then is our convention a useless expense and a constitution however wise and good of no use. If these things are permitted in the green tree, what may we expect in the dry—Brownville Advertiser.

A newly married French couple being visited with a serenade, the bride inquired its meaning. "My dear," replied her husband, "it is usual in this town of ours, when a gentleman is married, for all the ladies whom he has jilted or flirted with to bring him each a bridal present of a loaf of bread, accompanied with music."

How can we lose our wealth when it consists in the honest labor of our own hand? And how can we be sad when the spring of our joy is in our own bosom?

Legal Notice.

Lewis S. Keeler, vs. David W. Fisher,

David W. Fisher non-resident defendant will take notice that Lewis S. Keeler, on the 6th of June A. D. 1871, filed his petition in the office of the Clerk of the District Court, Second Judicial District, in and for Cass county, Neb. The object and prayer of which is that plaintiff Lewis S. Keeler asks judgment against defendant David W. Fisher, for the sum of $280 with interest from the 16th day of August 1869 at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum, upon a certain promissory note dated August 16th 1869, calling for the sum of $280, with interest at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum from maturity. And also that a certain mortgage deed bearing even date with said promissory note and given to secure the payment of the same, upon the south west quarter (¼) section no. twelve (12) in Township 11 north of range no. twelve (12) in Cass county Nebraska, may be foreclosed and that said real estate may be sold to satisfy said claim together with interest and cost of suit.

You are required to answer this petition on or before the 24th day of July A. D. 1871.
