

WHERE THE LAND GOES.

Table with columns: Month, Acres, and other details regarding land sales.

THROWING DIRT.

It is singular that some people never can get along and feel comfortable unless they are throwing dirt at somebody...

SET IT RIGHT.

We have heard it intimated, by evil disposed persons, and those who desire to injure our worthy acting Governor, W. H. James, that he had connived at the swindling of the State out of the 90,000 acres of Agricultural College Lands.

EDITOR ADVERTISER.

There are many matters of great importance by the Constitutional Convention in session at Lincoln, about which the people and particularly the press of the State, should express themselves to the end that delegates may be enabled to comply with the wishes of their constituents.

THE LINCOLN SALT BASINS.

The Organization of a Powerful Company. One Million Dollars Represented in the Manufacture of Salt at Lincoln.

The Soldiers' Union of Nebraska held a meeting at the Board of Trade rooms, Tuesday evening, at 7 o'clock.

Another English colony arrived here on Sunday evening. They left Liverpool on the first day of June, and in about seventeen days found themselves west of the Mississippi.

Refugee by a day's rest in the quiet refuge which the railroad company open gratuitously to all weary travelers.

The old man was wise. He has now only ten pounds and a ticket to Nebraska; but he, and especially his children after him, are sure to rise to a higher position than would have been possible in the old home, where he could not by any possibility ever own enough land for his grave.

Why Did He Not Die? is the title of a new novel. We have not read the contumund, but believe the answer to be—because he refused to take his medicine.

The editor of the Morrisburg (Canada) Courier must be a very popular man in that burg. His friends made a purse and sent him off on a visit to Europe for the benefit of his health.

A man who is going to do good with his money when he shall get a great deal of it, makes a bargain with the devil, and the devil outwits him.

They cure delirium tremens in Italy by the administration of a solution of arsenic in heroic doses.

Little four-year-old girl who has "been there" gives the following recipe for vaccination: "scrape your arm a little; scrape it till it hurts you in a little party; let it dry; and that's all—till it takes."

The inventor of the Bavarian mirallease receives $4,000 for the invention, and an additional sum of $120 as royalty on every mirallease which leaves the government manufactory.

Texas has 3,800,000 cattle, consisting of 950,000 heaves, 950,000 cows, and 1,900,000 young cattle. The plains on which these cattle roam contain about 152,000,000 acres of ground.

A FEARFUL STORM.

Several Persons Killed. Immense Loss of Property. From the Omaha Tribune and Republican, 7th.

We hear distressing reports of ruin and disaster along the track of the terrible storm of wind and rain that passed over this city, between 5 and 7 o'clock, Wednesday evening.

THE KNIGHT NEIGHBORHOOD. The people who live in the Knight neighborhood, about ten miles northwest of this city, had a terrible time.

A DISTURBED FUNERAL PROCESSION. The procession that was following to the grave the body of Lewis Thompson, the boy who was drowned in the Papillon on Sunday last, was overtaken by the tempest about four miles west of this city.

A TRAIN BLOWN FROM THE TRACK. The afternoon train on the Fremont and Elkhorn Valley Railroad was struck by the storm, between Scribner and Crowl and the three coaches were lifted from the track.

AT LONE TREE. The U. S. Express train, which had drawn up to the water tank at Lone Tree, was backed away from the building when the approach of the storm was noticed.

ELSEWHERE. At Blair, the Sioux City and Pacific round house was blown down, and the watchman with his son, narrowly escaped from the ruins with their lives.

THE USE OF WALKING.

Walking for young and active persons is by far the best exercise; riding is good for the elderly, middle aged and invalids.

It is in vain to hope to please all alike. Let a man stand with his feet in what direction he will he will necessarily turn his back on one-half of the world.

A man who cannot command his temper, and who breaks out into fits of passion, should not think of being a man of business.

All the cares of the day ought to be laid aside with your clothes. None of them must be carried to bed with us; and in this respect, custom may obtain very great power over the thoughts.
