

LOCAL NEWS.

Clark & Blanner commenced this morning to shed a small lot of 20,000 bushels of corn, which they intend shipping during the next few days. They have engaged Porter's steam power chopper, which will turn out about 2,000 a day.

The question of sheep raising in Nebraska has attracted much attention during the past few years. Persons intending to engage in the business will do well to consult with J. H. Buttery, Esq., of this city. He has a cheap method of raising them.

An Iowa paper says: "Two children died at Davenport, Iowa, from excessive heat, while attending a circus performance at that place, Monday last." They might have been saved by a few draughts of that delicious water kept at Buttery's.

The Omaha insect (called the Bee) occasionally infests its sting under the neck of the larger animals of the town, making them wince perceptibly. The Plattsmouth Herald is looked for at Crete, we are assured, with more interest than any other paper in the State, and it has a larger circulation there than all the other papers in the State combined.

Darrington has put on a line of coaches between this city and Pacific Junction, to run in connection with the K. C. St. Joe & C. B. R. R. We hear it rumored that he intends to transfer freight, also, but of this we have no reliable information.

A new National Bank has been opened at Nebraska City, with P. J. McCann, Robert Hawke, Wm. E. Dillon, Robert Linton, N. R. Pinyey, J. P. Metcalf and W. W. Bell as Directors, and D. J. McCann as President, W. W. Bell as Cashier.

Surveyor General Cunningham is entitled to such credit for the interest he manifested in securing the sending of troops to protect Mr. Dougherty's party of surveyors. Dougherty's party two years ago, it will be remembered, fought the Indians for a day and night, and only got away after losing everything they had.

Mr. Geo. A. S. Padlock, for many years the popular landlord of the Wyoming House, Omaha, has retired from that position, and his brother-in-law, J. C. Hickey, has assumed control of the establishment. Hickey will be remembered as the former landlord of the Brooks House in this city.

Dr. John Black has a very old looking walking stick, made from a branch of Manzanita wood, which grows in the mountains of California. It is a fine grained wood, and it is almost impossible to find a stick of sufficient length for a cane that is not too crooked to use. The Dr. brought home three of these sticks, one of which he carries himself, another was presented to Hon. J. G. McCreath of Omaha, and the third, through the kindness of the Dr., will be laid up among the archives of the Human.
