Insurance Company

No. 70 DELAWARE STREET, LEAVENWORTH, KANSAS

ALL POLICIES NON-FORFEITING.

Dividends on the Contribution Plan.
Securing the Greatest Pecuniary Advantage to the Policy Holders

REASONS FOR INSURING IN THIS COMPANY:

1st. This is a Western Company, managed by Western men, whose known financial character, ability and position, afford ample guaranty for its careful and successful management.
2d. Its Policies are all non-forfeiting.
3d. Premium all cash. It receives no notes and gives none Policy holders have no interest to pay, and no outstanding notes as liens upon their policies.
4th. It has no restriction upon travel.
5th. Its dividends are made upon the contribution plan.
6th. Its business is exclusively life insurance.

DIVIDENDS

Are the accumulation of interest upon premiums paid, hence the Company that loans its assets at the highest rate of interest can give you the largest dividends. Eastern companies invest their moneys at 6 per cent., while this makes its investments at twelve per cent. or more.

The advantage of Western investments to the policy holder appears in the following startling figures: The amount of $1,000, invested for fifty years at

6	per cent. compound interest, is		$ 18,420.15
8	"	"	46,901.64
10	"	"	117,390.85
12	"	"	318,078.00

It is obvious that this company offers greater financial advantages and inducements to the policy-holder than any other company in existance

LOCAL NEWS

A large number of emigrant wagons arrived in the city to-day.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Frank Kershaw is a little better.

O. H. Mathews formerly publisher of the Ashland Times has gone to Pleasant Hill, Saline county, where he will start a new paper to be called the Argus.

Four precincts in Saline county give 194 votes for the new constitution and only 17 against it, 16 of those being in Crete.

Our readers will remember that a fine gold watch was stolen from Dr. Donelan, of this city, nearly two years ago. The watch turned up in Council Bluffs, Iowa, a short time since, and the Doctor now carries the same old time piece.

The Republicans of Nemaha county nominated their candidates for the various county offices by ballot on the day of the election. Hon. G. W. Crew, is their nominee for Sheriff, and Hon. Wm. Daily for county Treasurer. Both are good men and both are—well, they are all right, and will be elected triumphantly.

H. A. Buell, of the Rulo Register, has started a new paper at Arago, called the Press. Buell can now say, partially with Forney: I am publisher of "two papers, both Democratic."

Mr. G. W. Mayfield has opened a new store at Greenwood station, on the B. & M. Greenwood is to become a thriving little place, being surrounded by an agricultural region that defies the world to beat it.

It is stated that Col. Noteware, of Omaha, spent two weeks electioneering against the constitution in two precincts of Saunders county, and in one of the precincts there were four votes against the document, and the other one went unanimous for it. Judge Sprague was too many for the Col.

If you want a real "Household Blessing in Disguise," go to H. J. Straight's and ask for one of those fire kindlers. It will save its value every winter's morning; beside it is a good prevention of hard words and ugly thoughts. Try one.

Under the heading of "not conquered yet," the Blair Times says the constitution had only 18 majority in that burgh. We suppose it means that the people have not quite conquered the politicians. Well, if they have not, they have worried them somewhat, and about one more siege will conquer them.

Born, to the wife of H. N. Orr, Esq. of this city, on the 21st inst., a daughter.

The official vote of Cass county shows 528 majority for the Constitution. South Bend precinct gave a small majority against it.

The contract for the erection of the lunatic asylum has been awarded to R. D. Silver at $58,600, he being the next lowest bidder to Benns & Price, who failed to give the proper securities.

Another Printer arrived to-day at the residence of our fellow typo, L. C. Stiles, and its name is Hannah.

The unanimous wish of the HERALD boys, while enjoying the bountiful treat, was, that she might live to be a joy to her parents, and a blessing to society—as beautiful as her mother, as generous as her father; and as social and sprightly as both.

Wm. Kershaw, Esq. arrived in the city Thursday evening, brought by the sickness of his brother.

The articles on "Our Public Schools," which have appeared in the HERALD for the past few weeks, are attracting much attention from those interested in educational matters, and we doubt not they will have the effect to create, as they were designated to do, a new interest in this very important subject. The author (Rev. R. Foster)is well known throughout the State as an educator of great ability, having spent many years of his life in the study and practice of the science of education.

We have received the first number of the Seward county Reporter, published at the town of Seward in this State, by Charles a Croney. It is a neat paper, sound on politics and the new constitution. We wish it success.

Mr. Geo. Ball and Mr. Wm. Croy, of Dayton, Ohio, called at the HERALD sanctum this morning. They came west with a view of locating, and will take a thorough look before deciding upon a location. Mr. Croy is a newspaper man of large experience, and will probably engage in the business in this State. They were a part of a company of thirty excursionists from Dayton.

Don't forget that the Cass County Annual Fair commences on the 11th of October. Everybody will be there.

A H. & G. Buck have just received a fine assortment of Wooden and Willow Ware, among which can be found some of the latest novelties in this line. They also have a fine assortment of groceries, canned and green fruits.

Bucks have exhausted that extensive orchard at Burlington, and they are now drawing from a new purchase in Illinois. The rush for their cheap and excellent fruits is perfectly wonderful.

Judge J. Derham, of Abingdon, Ill., Prof of Natural and Physical Sciences in Abingdon College, is in the city, the guest of his brother-in-law, Geo. W. Smith, Esq. Prof. Derham expresses himself as well pleased with our State. He will remain for a week or two, and then proceed west to the Pacific coast.

Miss Bennett, of the firm of Mrs L. B. Crocker & Co., has gone to Chicago to lay in a stock of Fall and Winter goods, where she will remain some two or three weeks, in order to select the very latest styles of Millinery goods as they come into the market.

She will send the first instalment so as to reach Plattsmouth about the last of the month. Ladies will do well to wait for the arrival, as nothing but the most approved patterns and styles will be selected.

COURT ADJOURNED.

By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that Court has been adjourned until the 2d. of October.

COUNTY FAIR.

The County Fair Grounds are now being placed in fine order. New fences, new building, new cattle yards, first class half-mile track, and other features, will be certain to draw a large crowd.

THE ELETION.

We have advices from Brownville that Johnson county has given 100 majority against the constitution; Gage is reported about even, and Pawnee and Richardson are said to give about 300 majority for the constitution.

MEMBERSHIP TICKETS.

Those who have subscribed for membership tickets in the Cass county Agricultural and Mechanical Association can obtain them by calling at the HERALD office, or at the office of either the President or Treasurer of the Society.

PREMIUM LISTS.

The different vice-presidents of the Cass County Agricultural and Mechanical Association are requested to call at the office of D. H. Wheeler & Co. or at the HERALD office, and get copies of the premium list for distribution.

CHANGE OF PROGRAMME.

The B. & M. Co. have commenced the construction of a landing for their barges at the foot of Main street, and will transfer all the business to that point as soon as the landing is completed. They will also change the landing on the Iowa side to Bethlehem. This will be an advantage to the city as well as to the railroad company.

STILL AHEAD.

Nebraska is now recognized as the banner fruit State of the Union, and she well merits the proud distinction. Notwithstanding the terrible destruction of fruit in this locality by the hail, there is yet an abundance of fine fruit here. B. F. Hobbs, Esq. of Rock Bluffs, has presented the HERALD office with a specimen of peaches (the most difficult fruit to produce in the State) which will compare favorably with anything in the Union. They are a fine flavored, delicious fruit, and one of those brought us weighs ten ounces. Who beats it?

PAWNEE NOT HEARD FROM.

Reports from Pawnee county are still conflicting, some claiming that it has given 400 for the constitution while others claim that it has given a small majority against it. We await the official returns from that county with interest, for upon it seems to hang the fate of the constitution.

BELSHAZZAR'S FEAST.

The rendition of this difficult cantata last Saturday evening, at Fitzgerald's Hall, by the Plattsmouth Musical Association, was a perfect success, far surpassing the expectations of the most sanguine. Miss Ella Crocker, as Queen, outdid herself, especially in the closing scene, where she rendered one of the most difficult solos of the performance. The character of Belshazzar was admirably rendered by T. W. Evans, while Rev. Foster would almost delude one into the belief that he was the original Daniel who interpreted the "hand writing on the wall." Too much praise cannot be bestowed upon Mr. Richard Newel, who had charge of the musical departmen, and Mrs. J. C. Baker, to whom belongs the credit of the dramatic arrangement of the piece. When we consider that this performance was entirely of home talent, developed by a home teacher, we cannot but say that Plattsmouth boasts as fine musical talent as can be found anywhere. We would be pleased to speak of each individual who took part in the performance of Saturday evening could we do so without doing injustice to any; but where each one rendered their part so near perfection it is difficult to give the proper mead of praise to each as an individual. The large hall was well filled, and the proceeds of the single entertainment were about $80. This will defray all expenses and leave a reasonable sum to be expended for music, etc., by the Association. We hope they will continue the good work they have commenced under such favorable auspices.

The Brownville Advertiser, under the management of Maj. Caffrey, gives a terrible war-whoop over the supposed defeat of the new constitution, as follows:

"The long struggle is over. The voice of the sovereigns has been given expression to, and the constitution prepared for them by hands itching for plunder and hearts eager for the emoluments of place, has been buried under fully three thousand majority in the State. Glory enough for one day."

"Hearts eager for the emoluments of place" is good when applied to the body of gentlemen selected, as a rule, for their personal worth, and without regard to party politics; but "hands itching for plunder," when applied to the same body of men is perfectly delightful, and will be appreciated (no doubt properly so) by the great mass of the people who voted for these gentlemen. But "buried under fully three thousand majority" is just the least bit weak in our brother of the quill, considering the facts. Hold on, Maj., don't start out too brash if you expect to run more than a "quarter stretch."

It is said that a tree felled while in leaf, and allowed to lie until the foliage withers, the wood will be the soonest seasoned, as the leaves will draw all the sap before they die.

North Carolina papers report that the man whose son was the first rebel soldier killed in the war is an inmate of an almshouse in that State, but is opposed to the "new depar ure"

"When a distinguished American dies," said a shrewd and sarcastic observer not long ago, "his admiring friends and countrymen immediately resolve to build him a monument, and then—they don't build it"

It is only necessary to grow old to become more indulgent. I see no fault committed that I have not committed myself.—Goethe.
