"Luxuries of Modern Travel."

In these days the taste of the Traveling Public has become exceedingly fastidious. In order to obtain their patronage, a Railroad line must be able to insure Safety, Speed and comfortable transportation, by possessing the necessary qualifications of a first-class equipment of coaches and locomotives, a solid road-bed and heavy iron Pullman's Palace Sleeping cars, Pullman's dining cars, a direct route, good connections and careful management.

The Burlington route is making every effort to secure all these qualifications to a high degree, and offers a route to all points east, west, north and south, by means of its connections as follows:

At Omaha with the Pacific roads.
At Plattsmouth with the B. & M. R. R., in Nebraska.
At Hamburg, with the St Joseph Railroad for points in Kansas, &c.
At Ottumwa, with the Des Moines Valley and North Missouri railroads.
At Burlington with the B., C. R. & M. R. for Davenport, Muscatine, &c.
At Monmouth, with the R. R. I. & St. L. and Western Union Railroads, for St. Paul, and points in the north, and for St Louis and points in the south.
At Peoria, with the short line Bloomington to Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Louisville and points south and east.
At Peoria, with the T., P. & W. R. R., for Crestline, Columbus, &c.
At Mendota, with all the Illinois Central.
At CHICAGO, with all Trunk lines for the East.

Better advice can be given then, than to "Go the Burlington Route." dtf.

LOCAL NEWS

Parmele's brick block is progressing rapidly.

Track laying has commenced on the road between Crete and Beatrice.

R. M. Rolfe, of Nebraska City has been in town for a day or two, attending court.

Fitz. says he will complete the B. & M. road to the junction with the U. P. before the close of the present month.

Fitzgerald says he will have the road between Crete and Beatrice completed in forty days from date. Fitz. can do it if any live man can, "you bet."

Taylor Goodwin's tonsorial establishment, on Main street, has recently been refitted and furnished, and is now the neatest place in town to get a shave.—Call in, and you will lose your beard without hardly knowing it.

The best assortment and cheapest over and under clothing can be had at Wm. Stadelmann's. Oct. 3—d2w3

A little girl fell overboard from a ferry boat at Omaha last Wednesday, and was drowned before assistance could reach her.

The Omaha Republican hoists its Jackass, instead of a rooster, over the defeat of the new constitution. Query: Does the Republican mean by this that it is a triumph for that "bird?"

Those of our readers residing in the country will find it to their advantage to look over the columns of our paper before starting to town, to do their trading. By this means they will readily ascertain where the best and cheapest goods can be found. Good business men, who have first class goods for sale, always advertise liberally. This is true of this town, and their advertisements can be found in our columns.

If you want a good Beaver Overcoat for $12, go to Wm. Stadelmann's. Oct. 3—d2w3

Otoe county will vote on the 10th upon the proposition to aid the Trunk railroad. The question submitted there is for issuing county bonds, and there is a fair prospect that it will be defeated.—They should have submitted the question for precinct bonds.

The Omaha Herald evidently feels a little sheepish over its efforts to cry "fraud" on the canvass of the constitution vote. It intimates that there would have been fraud if there had been any fraud. Perhaps—altogether likely—may be the Herald is correct.

Mr. Lyman has a pile driver on the ground and is preparing to commence hostilities on the Main street bridge.—Let constitutional grumblers wait and see what kind of a bridge he constructs, before they "shoot off" their bazoos.

If you want a No. 1 Beaver Suit, latest style, for $22, go to Wm. Stadelmann's. Oct. 3—d2w3

The recent Superintendent ordered five hundred letter-heads yesterday, and Dr. John Black, the recent appointee "called" him and raked in the pile.—The Dr. held a "flush," and W. A. P's hand was nowhere.

FUN AHEAD.

The indications are that there is fun ahead in the land of the Saints. The arrest of Brother Brigham is creating something of a sensation, and at a special conference of the church, held yesterday (5th), much excitement was manifested, and many threats were made.—Brigham Jr. got very wrothy and called upon the faithful to "Trust in God, keep your powder dry, and don't fail to have a good supply of fixed ammunition."

THE FAIR.

The Fifth Annual Fair of the Cass County Agricultural and Mechanical Association, which commences on Wednesday the 11th inst., bids fair to be a grand success. The Superintendent of the grounds is now at work with a large force of hands putting up buildings and stables—the track is said to be in prime order, and all looks lovely for a fine time. From all parts of the county we hear that the people are coming, and that the display of stock, products and manufactures will be excellent.

COMING.

There is little doubt that the fall immigration to Nebraska will be immense.—Col. Van Arman, State agent, arrived from the east yesterday, and reports large numbers preparing to start as soon as the fall elections are over. Accompanying him were nine gentlemen appointed as a locating committee to select lands on the line of the B. & M. in Nebraska, for those that are to follow; also Dr. Stickle, President of a colony of 300 from Carlisle, Pennsylvania, also going on the line of the B. & M. in Nebraska to select a location.

If you want a late fashionable hat, go to Wm. Stadelmann's. Oct. 3—d2w3

Liberty precinct gave a majority of seven against the R. R. bonds, yesterday. There was but a very light vote cast.

Parties desiring to display heavy machinery at the coming County fair will remember that it should be on the ground before the Fair is opened.

THE FAIR.

It is hoped that our livery men will see that an abundance of conveyances, at low prices, are provided during the fair next week. We speak of this simply as a reminder. Entries are being made rapidly, and the indications are that the fair will be a success.

An untutored man in Boston, when reproached for extravagant charges he had made for certain services, exclaimed: "Well isn't it better to be a hog and get good pay for what you do, than to be a good fellow and get kicked from pillar to post!" With that man, evidently, business is business.

Ancient Music.

The Egyptian flute was only a cow's horn; with three or four holes in it, and their harp or lyre had only three strings; the Grecian lyre had only seven strings, and was very small, being held by one hand; the Jewish trumpets that made the walls of Jericho fall down, were only rams horns; their flute was the same as the Egyptian; they had no other instrumental music but by percussion, of which the greatest boast made was the psaltery, a small triangular harp or lyre with wire strings, and struck with an iron needle or stick; their sacbut was something like a bagpipe; the timbrel was a tambourine; and the dulcimer was a horizontal harp, with wire strings, and struck with a stick like the psaltery. They had no written music, had scarcely a vowel in their language; and yet, according to Josephus, had two hundred thousand musicians playing at the dedication of the temple of Solomon. Mozart would have died in such a concert in the greatest agonies!— Dr. Burney's Hist. of Music, vol. 1, p. 249

The ex-Empress Eugenie is said to be in the habit of assuring her acquaintances, very confidentially, that she always loved Louis Napoleon—even before she married him—but that, since their fall from power, his resignation to misfortune, and his patience in the midst of adversity, have raised her affection to the point where worship is supposed to begin.

In the Bourse of Cologne, a box is fixed to receive contributions toward the completion of the cathedral. After a lapse of three years, it has just been opened, and found to contain ten gros (1 fr. 25 cts.)

A Londoner has thrown sugar-coated pills, quite in the shade with quinine biscuit. They contain one-fourth of a grain of quinine each, and have a pleasant and delicately bitter flavor.

The Editor of an Arkansas journal says: "Where our office was two weeks ago, now runs the Mississippi river. Out of respect for the Father of Rivers we left."

Greeley's recipe for preserving peaches: Cut in strips not less than fifteen inches long; spread them on the grass to bleach for three days, and finally sprinkle with cinnamon, and pack in air-tight jars filled with saw-dust. N. Y. Com. Adv.

A Boston woman who has been reading in the papers, that sunday marriages are illegal, writes to the papers to know how it is with a baby born on a Sunday? If so, which should be punished, the father, the mother, or the baby?

The costliest articles in the Paris shops are set apart, not for the inhabitants, but as the shoppers say, for fools, princes, and Americans."

The bone work of a whale, recently stranded on the beach at San Francisco, is being wired together for exhibition. The owners secured the services of the Academy of Sciences, to get the bones into their proper places, but at the end of the first day the members were paid off and discharged. It has since transpired, that they got the creature's head on the wrong end, and had rejected several sections of the back bone, claiming that the animal had more vertebræ than the books allowed him.

A good story is told of a young couple who wanted to hear Dickens read. They could hardly afford it, but screwed up their extravagance to the necessary pitch. As they had concluded to invest, they bethought of a poorer family near by, who were suffering from lack of work. So they gave up Dickens, and paid the price of two tickets to their impoverished neighbors. The poor couple took the money, bought tickets with it, and attended the readings.

A grand family re-union took place at the residence of the Rev. Peter Cartwright, near Pleasant Plains, Sangamon county, Illinois, on Friday last, September, in honor of the eighty seventh birth day of that aged and veteran "soldier of the cross." One hundred and twenty children, grandchildren and great grand children were present on the occasion. Rev. and Hon. Newton Cloud, who, with other friends, was there by invitation, was called upon for a speech and made feeling and appropriate remarks, which were responded to by the old man. Peter Cartwright has been a minister of the gospel some sixty-six years, and was a presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal church for over fifty years.

A white-haired old negro preacher in New Orleans thus addressed one of the meetings of the dissatisfied colored folks recently: "What are you grumbling about? Yer all better off dan ye eber spected to be. Did yer tink when Massa Linkum guv ye yer freedom he gwine to buy tickets to the Louisiana State Lottery for yer beside?"

Among the despicable tricks attempted by the unscrupulous Democrats of San Francisco, at the election was erasing names on the Republican and tax payer's ticket with the solution of nitrate of silver, and writing in the names of their own candidates with the same. The tickets were kept from the light, and when they were peddled out to the voters no writing could be seen, as the solution is colorless and only turns black when exposed to the light.

Ruskin says: "That an educated man ought to know three things:—First, where he is—that is to say, what kind of a world he has got into; how large it is; what kiad of creatures live in it, and how; what it is made of, and what may be made of it. Secondly, where is he going—that is to say, what chances or reports there are of any other world beside this: and what seems to be the nature of the other world. Thirdly,—what he had best do under the circumstances; what are the present state and wants of mankind? what are the readiest means in his power of attaining happiness and diffusing it? The man who knows these things, and has his will so subdued that he is ready to do what he knows he ought, is an educated man; and the man who knows them not, is uneducated, although he could talk all the tongues of Babel.

The human voice has nine perfect tones, but these can be combined into 17,592,044,414 different sounds. A remarkable scientific fact which probably accounts for the amount of discord there is in the world.

Do your own thinking. Yes, that is the idea. Think for yourself. It is well to listen to the expressed thoughts of others, and it is an agreeable pastime to give expression to your thoughts.—But, when alone, weigh what you have heard and traverse what you have said. It is well to do this, for it will assist in curing you of false notions, and of eradicating unprofitable and vicious ideas, and in time make you better men and women. What you thus gain from your surroundings, you will unwittingly transmit to the rising generation, and the result will be that you will do your share in the glorious work of elevating the human family. Do your own thinking.
