THE TANMANY FRAUDS.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CITIZENS.

New York Dispatches of the 27th say: "The Committee of Citizens appointed by the Board of Supervisors, who have been engaged for many weeks in examining the frauds of the city accounts, today submitted a report as to their labors. The summary of facts and figures in this report is the first authentic information on the subject which has been furnished. The amount charged to the next court houses, their repairs and furniture, is in all $3,416,932.29. The whole cost of the completed buildings could not fairly exceed $3,000,000. An immense sum is charged and made up, $81,370,819, directly to the court house building; its furniture, $283,220, 910, and for court and offices, nearly all of which are in the same building. "The following are the items: $614, 900.49 paid for $18,876.00 worth of carpets, $2,960,187.01 paid for $368,561.50 worth of furniture, $914,230.65 paid for $74,752 worth of plumbing, $1,937,545. 24 paid for $70,050 worth of plastering. The sum of $7,168,212.23 is charged for advertising, printing, blank books and stationery, since the 1st of January, 1890. The whole account shows that twenty-four millions and a quarter have been paid as expenditures for what really to the city $12,740,000, giving a loss to the city of $19,000,000. This is the amount stolen and divided among the ring thieves since January, 1869. This report concluded the business of the Committee."

TREATMENT BLOODSUCKER.

The Omaha Herald, the principal defender of Mormon Polygamy, throws out the following threat, in speaking of the probable conviction and punishment of Brigham for Polygamy or for murder: "Whenever this man shall be imprisoned as an ordinary prisoner in such way as shall deprive him of the means of earning, or on his conviction by those packed juries of the higher grade of murder for which he has been indicted, the country may look out for blood and rain from the end of the line of the Omaha Herald. Nautler, Col. Morrow, nor any other Colonel, neither General Grant, nor any other General, backed by all the troops that sit on the benches of the Legislature to control it, can prevent this catastrophe if ever the flames are lighted."

OUR BANKERS ABROAD.

Late files from European papers comment most favorably on the appointment of the London firm of Henry Claws & Co., as bankers abroad for the American branch of the U. S. Government and the Treasury Department, in place of Baring Bros.

THE EGYPTIAN MUMMY.

The Egyptian mummy, in the library of the Capitol at Nashville, furnished material for a practical joke the other day. A great many visitors from the country were visiting the Capitol, and the office of the Librarian, Miss Bowers, of Plattsmouth, and Miss Eaton of Lincoln, were among the exhibitors.

THE LANCER COUNTY FAIR.

The Lancer County Fair, held on the 17th, 18th and 19th of October, was for the most part a success. The exhibition was very satisfactory. But while the exhibition has been creditable, it has not been a very successful one. A warning to sleepy auditors or long-winded preachers—no matter how good the cause.

THE MASONIC FRATERNITY AT WASHINGTON.

The Masonic fraternity at Washington, aided by other branches of the order, have been engaged in the construction of the Washington Monument. It is now only 174 feet high, while the proposed height is 517 feet. The estimated cost of the obelisk, with the pylon, is $1,200,000, leaving about 1,000,000 to be raised, in order to make an end of what has been agitated for nearly thirty years. The Monument Committee is urging on Congress a grant of $200,000, promised long ago and almost given in 1855. It has some $12,000 in the treasury for an unfilled promise by California.

THE POLISH JEWS HAVE THE REPUTATION.

The Polish Jews have the reputation of being among the longest-lived people in Europe. One of their number, Leser Chammanow, died recently in Prussian Poland, near Tanoschan, in his 117th year. He is said to have two brothers still living, aged respectively 103 and 109 years.

THE MYSTERY OF CHINESE MASONRY.

Perhaps it is not generally known that the Chinese have secret orders established among themselves, whose design and object are much the same as those of more civilized nations. On the evening of the Fourth, a branch order was established with appropriate mystical ceremonies in Chinatown at the Jones House. Large numbers of the Celestians in the evening and proceeded on toward the building. A few out of the barbarians attempted to gain admission. A Chinaman was accosted and a key to the meaning of the gathering. "Yes, yes," he said, "select order like same Mediamon, you sabbath." As the building was hardly finished, a handy knot-hole gave an opportunity for observing the ceremonies. The room was fantastically decorated with Chinese writing, tiger heads and Celestial symbols. An aide was furnished by sword-stuck in the floor, on each side of which the brethren sat. The room was dark, and the light came from a single lamp hanging over the platform. Swords were clanked over his head, and a lot of unintelligible gibberish in the many are sitting on a bench and seeing eighteen men play ball.

THE WOOD SAWING CLUB.

The Lockport Journal contains the following practical suggestion: "Now that the croquet and base ball season will ere long be over, we would suggest that the members of the croquet club should not stop, or that the amount developed by the summer's exercise, may not be dormant during the winter months, that they should turn their attention to sawing up the woodpiles of widows and sick folks during the winter. The exercise is fully as healthful, is not so violent, and it is a good deal more profitable. Physicians recommend young ladies to form walking clubs. This is a matter in which steps should be taken."

SALT LAKE.

Salt Lake, October 27. There are rumors of trouble to morrow, on the occasion of the sentence of Hawkins for adultery. The women seem to be the most excited. Threatening letters were received to-day by the United States Marshal.

Brigham, on the city day before yesterday, and was reported, last night, at Battle Creek.

George Q. Cannon is also absent, and said to be at San Francisco. Something is evidently in the hand among the Mormons, but the Gentiles generally do not believe any resistance to the law or Government is meditated.

SALT LAKE, October 28. Chief Justice McKean this morning passed sentence upon Thomas Hawkins, the polygamist, as follows: "Thomas Hawkins, I am sorry for you, very sorry, but you have done wrong. I shall make you think so by the mercy which I shall show you. You came from England to this country with the wife of your youth; for some reason, you have a second wife, and a third wife, and a fourth wife, and a fifth wife, and a sixth wife, and a seventh wife,
