If these new departure, passive policy, good lord and good devil demagogues, who are advising republicans what to do, have no success in running the Republican party that they have had in running the Democratic party they will not do much harm to the country, for the reason that they will be in the main quiet, as heretofore.

We regret to learn that Mr. J. A. Ware, banker of Nebraska City, has failed and has made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors. It is said that too much unsalable real estate is the cause of his failure.

The first of a contemplated series of social gatherings was held at the residence of Gen. Livingston last evening. Some twelve or fifteen friends were invited to spend the evening in social amusement, which they did in a remarkably pleasant manner.

Oysters and coffee were served for refreshments during the evening, and the company separated feeling that they had gained a victory over the habitual hermitism which seems to ensue so many of our people. Gen. Livingston and his estimable lady and Miss Carrie Stow are entitled to the thanks of all lovers of social amusement in Plattsmouth for the lead they have taken in establishing this much needed reform.

Henry Beck, Esq., is preparing to erect a fine business house on Main street, between Third and Fourth, early next spring. He is having a fine lot of rock for the basement quarried and hauled during the winter.

A fine, large-deer made its appearance on the bar opposite today this morning, and in a short time a full crop of "beaver hunters" were in hot pursuit.

There was much interest manifested by a large number of spectators from the city. The last we saw of his deership he was "gently, but rapidly" sliding out" for parts not so thickly inhabited.

Fitzgerald's teams were hauling freight up the river today.

MALICIOUS MISCHIEF. The Soudrel who took a nut from Mr. Henry Beck's wagon some two weeks since, and who has served several other wagons in like manner since, deserves to be "drawn and quartered," if any wretch deserves such punishment. The taking of the nut from Mr. Beck's wagon came near causing a disastrous accident as it was not discovered until the family was about starting in the wagon for a trip to the country. We have heard of no less than five different wagons in town that have had a nut taken from a single wheel during the past two weeks. Steps have been taken to detect the Soudrel, and we pity him when he is found. The law is severe on such characters, but the peoples interests are more severe.

ORDERS SOLICITED. The Chicago fire interfered very much with the "Chicago insides" and "outsides" of various papers in this State, and it has occurred to us that the Herald office might supply papers of that persuasion in Nebraska at as low figures as they can get in Chicago, and then they would be furnished with interesting Nebraska news, instead of stale items. The type are set each week for the Herald, and with a simple change of heading and date, (as they do it in Chicago) we might furnish at least a dozen papers with "selects" or "insides" as they might select, at a very trifling cost more than white paper. Send along your orders, gentlemen, and secure a paper filled with "fire" matter, which tells something of home affairs.

NOTE.—Only Nebraska papers furnished.

THE TWENTY SEVENTH. Among the distinguished masons who will be present at the Annual Festival of Plattsmouth Lodge No. 6 on next St. John's Day, we are pleased to note that Most Worshipful Past Grand Master Robt. W. Furnas 33rd A. D. A. S. R. has agreed to deliver the oration, which follows the installation of officers by the Grand Master of Masons in Nebraska, Most Worshipful Wm. E. Hill.—Our brethren on the various committees are working energetically and we anticipate their arrangements will eclipse any thing of the kind heretofore had in Plattsmouth.

COAL AT UNION. Hon. J. T. Cannon, of Union, is confident he has a paying vein of coal on his farm. Items and sensational articles on Coal discoveries in Nebraska, have been so common in the past, all of which have proved unfounded, that it seems almost like presuming on the credulity of the public to say anything more about coal having been found west of the Missouri; but with the character of the evidence before us, we cannot but believe that Mr. Cannon really has discovered a valuable mine. His attention was first attracted by seeing a slab of black substance in the side of the creek bank where the water had uncovered it, which, upon examination he found to be a very good article of coal. Last fall Mr. Cannon commenced to open this mine, as stated through the Herald at the time, but did not succeed in fully developing the vein in consequence of serious illness of his family. He sank a shaft from the bank above the creek down to the coal, and took out a quantity, which he has been using as fuel at his house all winter, and which he pronounces superior to any he has seen from the Iowa mines. This vein has fourteen inches of solid coal, bedded the usual covering etc. Since that time Mr. Cannon has drilled down, and at a depth of nine feet from the fourteen inch vein he passed through the first one. Whatever this last discovery will result in, Mr. Cannon is certain that the fourteen inch vein will prove very valuable. He will commence further investigation in the course of a few weeks, when our readers will be fully advised of the result.

NEBRASKA STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY. BROWNVILLE, Dec. 13, 1871. The Third Annual Meeting of the Nebraska State Horticultural Society will be held at the city of Lincoln, commencing on Thursday, January 4th, 1872, at 2 o'clock p. m.

The principal business of this meeting will be to perfect the Nebraska Fruit List, and to arrange for future and more systematic, extensive and useful operations of the organization.

An earnest invitation is extended to all in and out of our State, who feel an interest in Horticulture, to be present and assist; bringing products of interest, for comparison or exchange.

Distinguished Horticulturists from abroad are expected to be with us. It is hoped as much Nebraska grown fruit as possible, will be on exhibition.—Let the friends give attention to this feature.

No detailed programme was arranged at the last meeting of the Society. The usual exercises of such meetings, however, will be the order.

The President will deliver his Annual Address, and the Delegates to the American Pomological Society will report. After which the association will proceed to perfect the Fruit List for the State, and transact other business for the welfare of the cause.

Essays will be delivered and discussions participated in. By order of the President. ROBT. W. FURNAS, Secretary.

CHICKEN THIEF CAUGHT. MESSRS. EDS. OF HERALD.—It has been known to the citizens of the north-western part of our quiet city for the past two months, that there was a chicken and turkey thief in our vicinity. After having taken his nightly visits to Mr. McKivitt's hen roost for a while, he so reduced his rations as to render it necessary for him to change his base for supplies. He has visited Mr. Mullis, Mr. Barnes, Mr. Reese, each and all shooting at the thief at various times as the fowls gave warning. "The thief is amongst us." Mr. L. D. Bennett shot him some three weeks since, and felled him to the ground, but he immediately sprang to his feet and left. But to cut this story short, he made a raid about daylight this morning, just as the chickens were leaving their roost. He immediately gave chase to a chicken. When he pursued his game with undaunted courage, the rest of the birds were giving notice of his presence amongst them. Their alarm awoke me from my morning slumbers. I arose, lifted the window curtains, and saw the thief in hot pursuit. I at once sprung from my bed, descended to the lower floor, seized my shot-gun (which I had loaded the evening before with "single O" shot for rabbit), stepped to the south door just as the thief was hastily leaving the doorway. The opening of the door at such an untimely hour so astonished him that it caused him to pause a breath; at that moment I levelled my trusty fowling-piece on him, touched the trigger, and he immediately lost all propensity for fowls, to the great satisfaction of all the neighborhood. While we rejoice, we would mourn a brother dead. It was the largest "Coyote" I ever saw.

It seems that Hon. G. W. Frost is editing the Omaha Herald during the absence of Dr. Miller, and Mr. Thomas of the Republican makes it the occasion for lampoing him for his Republicanism. The Great Chicago Fire. Elsewhere in our columns will be seen an advertisement of a new publication published by the Union Publishing Co., being a complete picture of Chicago before and after the Great Conflagration. The Authors embrace the best talent the City affords; Mr. Upton being the Literary Editor of the Chicago Tribune, and Mr. Sheahan, the Editor, each with his part to perform, is sufficient evidence that the work will be done well, and not too hastily. In this respect, this Book will be far ahead of anything that has, or will appear, and all who want a correct History, will find in this something that they can hand down to future generations.

The work will be fully illustrated by the best artists, to which will be added a correct Map of the City, and mechanically, as well as historically, the book will be second to none.

Our readers will find something in this, without doubt, that will interest them, and also be beneficial. We bespeak for this Book a large, both home and abroad, fully as large as an American Book can possibly obtain.

"AFTER THE FIRE." TO THE PUBLIC.—In another column we present to our policy holders a leading public in general, a special statement showing the condition of this company on the 15th day of November 1871.

As considerable doubt still exists as to the solvency of policy holders in leading companies, we refer to the subjoined statement with pride, and ask a careful perusal of the same. The fact of our having a handsome surplus over and above all liabilities, and the fact that it being generally known that our losses were small, business commenced pouring in from a majority of our agencies, immediately after the Chicago fire, and the month of October has closed giving us over fifteen thousand dollars in premiums, or over three times as much as the same month last year.

This large increase in premiums for October, over the same month in the last year, speaks volumes for the credit of the company, and shows the value placed upon our policies, both at home and abroad, in such times of doubt as the present.

It is now definitely stated that fifty-seven (heretofore sound and reliable) insurance companies have suspended, and the insurance journals speak in a manner which warn us that the end is not yet—Many of the leading companies at the east are by this great calamity reduced to an even footing with a number of the medium companies at the west, and we now present our claims as being in every respect as worthy of your confidence, as those companies at the east.

With the present adequate rates, and the careful management, and handsome surplus over and above all liabilities, we enter the contest with the full assurance that the "St. Joseph" stands second to no company in the west.
