

Before another issue of the HERALD, the old year will have passed away and the new will have ushered in.

Mr. Balcombe says that we were a self-appointed member of the Omaha Bridge Committee.

Buell of the Rulo Register, was indicted by a grand jury of his countrymen for the promiscuous use of language like the above;

STATE TEMPERANCE CONVENTION. In accordance with a strongly expressed desire on the part of many of the most earnest friends of Temperance in Nebraska,

The object of the organization was a First—To effect the organization of a State Temperance Society,

All persons friendly to such Convention, and to the object thus stated, are earnestly invited to attend.

INVESTIGATE! Investigations are good things, and we would mildly suggest to the people of Omaha that they might not be anxious for them to do a little of that kind of work.

"THANK GOD, IT'S RAINING."—The following incident, at the park in the northern part of Chicago, on the night of the terrible fire, is related by an eyewitness:

It was toward morning, when hope had been dimmed and despair had entered the weary hearts of the watchers, when a gentleman felt a drop on his hand.

The recent cruel order of Valmezada, intended as a complete squelcher of the revolutionary movement in Cuba we apprehend, will force our Government to take a more positive stand on her wretched question at once.

Lost—Strayed from the undersigned, two pigs about six months old.

This is what Dr. Miller charges Mr. Balcombe with—deliberate purpose to defeat the Union Pacific adjustment.

E. & H. LAND SALES. The sales of Burlington and Missouri River Railroad Lands in Nebraska during the month of December 1871,

TRANSFER AND TERMINI. In speaking of the reputed action of the Executive Committee of the Union Pacific Railroad Company,

SILENCE REIGNS. The Omaha Herald maintains a "masterly silence" on the U. P. transfer business since Mr. Balcombe's plain statement of the facts.

Did Not Read the Papers. One of the painful results of not reading the newspapers is reported in Saratoga county.

Music of the Rocking Chair. A good rocking chair is almost an instrument of music. It has a special charm for the old folks.

We learn from the American Chemist that arsenic was reported to have been discovered in Nevada.

The Germans, in locating the new boundary line between the Fatherland and the United States, are not content with the old-fashioned workman who made the old-fashioned rocking chairs with strong joints,

There was an Irishman. He was married. He possessed an infinite hatred to dogs. One night he was rendered sleepless for three long, weary consecutive hours by the mournful howl of a neighborly dog baying at the moon.

Correspondence from Fairbury, in Jefferson county, to the St. Joseph Gazette, under date of December 10th, reports the Indians, who were on a hunt, reports the Indians, who were on a hunt, reports the Indians, who were on a hunt, Italy. Rome, December 28. A royal decree has been issued carrying into effect the commercial treaty recently concluded between Italy and the United States.

England. London, December 28. A bulletin from Sandringham states that the Prince had a good night, and that his strength is slowly returning.

Missouri. St. Louis, December 28. Further accounts from Sedalia confirm the previous accounts of the killing of negroes in Saline county.

Chicago. Chicago, December 29. The reported sale of the Chicago Republic to J. Young Scammon and others is confirmed.

SALT LAKE. Salt Lake, January 2. There have been tremendous storms in the mining districts of Big and Little Cottonwood.

More lives are lost, and there has been considerable business suspended. The snow is from ten to fifty feet deep.

Operations in most of the mines have been suspended. The snow continues to be a succession of snow, hail and rain storms.

James P. May, formerly Secretary of State of Oregon, was arrested here on Sunday, on a requisition from the Governor of that State, on a charge of defalcation, and taken back to Oregon for trial.

Brigham Young was arrested this morning at his residence in this city by the United States marshal, on charge of bail not being heard at 2 p. m. by Judge McKean.

The door was then opened and before the old board got out, the new board rushed in and with them a small boy who actively served the old board, to their great disgust, with copies of the writs issued by Judge Brady.

The mayor on arriving at the city hall commenced writing a document re-organizing the old board, when being informed by Col. Jordan that they had impeached him he left the document unfinished and issued another declaring the officers of aldermen and assistant aldermen vacated and those then in office re-elected president for the ensuing year.

The difference between the Baltimore and the Philadelphia aid societies is that the latter is always wanting something to eat and the former something to love.

A cross old bachelor boarding at one of our hotels, says that some of the new countesses appearing at the houses of our young ladies are of a kind of a cross between a peck measure and an inverted teapot, with a hole in the bottom to make room for the coal and a corn-cob sticking out through the crown.

An inmate of the State Insane Asylum who is said to have been confined in the blanket that covered him in bed, which caused his death. It would have been bad enough, had not his connection with the blanket been so conspicuous.

A Philadelphia reporter states that the Afghan presented to the Grand Duke at a church fair in that city "was the work of an old lady whom he met six years ago in New York."

"Bridget, what have you done with the cream? Those children cannot drink skim-milk for breakfast." "Sister, marry, and it isn't myself that would be after givin' the cream toys, I tuk that off, and give it to the cats."

Cincinnati are rejoiced to learn that by a newly suggested process of distillation the distillate obtained by such a quantity of soap, but that they don't care about so much.

Maine professes to be delighted with her Swedish colony. Although less than two years in the state, the industrious and thrifty Scandinavians have cleared a large section of unbroken wilderness of a heavy growth of timber, prepared the recent forest land, and secured thereon, and produced crops of cereals at the rate of forty-two bushels to the acre.

A story is told of a man in Connecticut who fell from the roof of a five-story building to the sidewalk, and was killed on the thick sole of his rubber shoes he bounced back within a quarter of an inch of the roof, and so continued to bounce, the distance decreasing by such a quarter of an inch at each journey.

The Wharton Case. Annapolis, December 28. Witness testified to having seen Gen. Ketchum take medicine of his own while at Mrs. Wharton's. Had asked him if he would not have a spoon.

Seventy-two cases of duml-pox are reported in Brooklyn during the week. Jas. H. Hackett, a veteran actor, died last night aged 72.

Tweed has surrendered to the Sheriff and Richard Melis, that the sureties will be entirely settled by to-morrow.

To-day the old alderman assembled at the city hall to wind up the affairs of the old year and reorganize. The newly elected or reform board of aldermen came together to take possession of the city chamber.

Miss Nettie Mayer, of Baltimore, was called to the aid of General Ketchum by the Wharton family; she saw General Ketchum there frequently; he told witness that he was in the habit of taking medicine from a bottle without measurement.

Flour dull and nothing doing, prices nominally unchanged. Wheat in active demand, firm and higher.

Hogs—receipts 12,000; market dull and weak. Choice hogs, fair to good grades; 5@10c lower on best; ranging at 4.00@4.50; more sales at 4.15@4.25.

The first Prince of Wales—Jeremiah. A little boy was recently presented with a toy trumpet, to which he became greatly attached.
