SYNOPSIS OF THE SALT RILL. It provides that the lands donated by the general government not otherwise disposed of by law, and not to exceed 10,000 acres, are appropriated to J. Cahn & Co., provided they expend $50, 000 in developing the Saline interests of the State by boring at least one well to the depth of 1,500-unless salt brine can be obtained at a less depth-that yields one pound of salt to every ten pounds of brine. The Company are to furnish vouchers, together with affidavit of man or agent, showing to the satisfaction of the Governor, Auditor and the State Freasurer, that the said $50,000 have been actually expended. It reserves 960 acres, which includes the great salt basin, 320 acres in the Cahn lease, 320 acres one mile north of Lincoln, 160 acres one mile southwest of Lincoln All the 12 salt springs granted by the Government to the State, together with 40 acres adjacent to each spring, the same to be selected by the Governor, Auditor and Treasurer. The Company is to pay 5 cents Royalty for ever bushel of salt manufactured; and are required to make 50,000 busilels of salt annually and to execute a bond to the State in Life and Times, vol 2:
