FORNEY ON PRESIDENT GRANT. In taking leave of the Philadelphia one bridge. Custom House officials and employees, Col. Forney concluded a brief address in the following significant language:

"I believe that Gen. Grant's nomination is inevitable. I know of no Repub lican in this city or State, whatever his views may be on other questions, who is against Grant. I believe his re-election essential to the preservation of the Union, and sometimes when I read the proion, and sometimes when I read the proceedings of these investigating commitceedings of the ceeding ceedings of the ceeding ceeding ceedings of the ceeding ceedings of the ceeding ceedings of the ceeding ceedi ceedings of these investigating commait- rivertees, I feel like opposing to their silly re sentments and prejudices the great historical facts of his military and civil record.
