ADDRESS OF THE

To the Friends of Independence and Reform .

The unudrsigned cordially endorsing the platform and candidates of the National Liberal Republican Convention. held in Cincinnati, May 1st, 1872, appeal to all friends of political independence and governmental reform throughout the State, to unite with them in promoting the success of those principles and the election of those candidates.

attention of every patriotic citizen. The corruption consequent upon the war has | Road. erept into and obtained control of our government. The very life of our free institutions is threatend. The partisans of the Administration have throttled the voice of the people by pa king conventions made up of and by the office holders of such Administration. Influential and Incrative offices have

President's favor by means of valuable

Presents, and to those notoriously corrupt and unworthy. When illustrious Senators have dared to raise a voice of criticism and to ask of the Administration have ridiculed ministration might not be uncovered. The dignity of the Executive Chair and wholesale favoritism and neporism.

The President has held his official with interest at only six per cent. patronage as a merchantable commodity -for sale to the highest bidder, Postoffices, land offices and revenue offices, sthroughout the nation, but in our own State mo t comp ciously, have been the guilty purchase price of the election of United State, Senators, known to be the especial partisans of the President. Other policies than these are demanded in the conduct of national affairs. The war was ended seven years ago Now, broadest measures of amnesty to the end that the acrimonies of the war may be obliterated and peace and good will established in all the States and be tween all the States, are demanded. A thorough and radical reform in the Civil Service that the unblushing abuses of fraud and nepotism which have ob-
