In a recent interview, Peter Cooper said of Horace Greeley : "Greeley, oh, no! [With a laugh.] I cannot go Greeley. Poor, old Horace! Good a man as ever lived, but not fit to administer government. Bless you, no; believes in everybody and every new idea. It's a mistake putting him forward."

New Firm-Enlarged business-Its elements of Success are, Honesty, Energy, Experience and Popularity. References-The People of the United GREELLY'S TRADE.

A letter in the Tribune to-day gives the particulars of the trade between Mr. Greeley and the Democrats, which took place as early as last October. The letters and proofs are on hand, and if any time Republican can vote for him, after such a shameless transaction, we pity his ideas of right and wrong, and his sense of what constitutes honesty in this world. Honest Horace Greeley, forsooth! Mil ler was right when he said there was not an honest hair in his head.

The Electoral Vote. The new apportionment increased the number of members of the House to number of electoral votes. They are divided among the States as follows:

Maine.... New Hampshire... Kansas... West Virginia...

HORACE GREELEY ON NERRASKA. It is well known that Honest Horace has always avoided giving the Territory or State of Nebraska one jota of praise or notice in his popular (?) Tribune.

His attention was called to the discrimination made against us, by promisent men here, and with great reluctance a short article or two on our State was allowed to appear in this immaculate organ as it then called itself.

knowledge where he endeavored to injure us, not by silence alone, but by active work and speeches to our detriment.

The B. & M. R. R. Company last winter, at Philadelphia, "worked up" a large colony for settlement on their lands in this State. Hearing it, Horace Greeley came from his farm at Chappauqua wise: to see them, and made the colonists a speech to induce them not to come to Kansas or Texas.

TRUNK BAILBOAD. Bonds for the Trunk railroad were carried in Richardson county, on Saturday last, by a heavy majority. A proposal has been submitted to the voters of Otoe county, by which their bonds may be made available to the Trunk road. Their bonds at present allow no road to use them for building purposes, any further north than Nebraska City. This agreement is now undoubtedly carry.

Cass county comes next, and it is time we bestir ourselves. Our County Commissioners had the matter under advisement at their last meeting, we understand. It is of vital importance to the people of this county.

We would suggest the propriety of submitting a proposition at once, giving bonds to the road that first builds and borders, we should undoubtedly gain completes, one of two routes, viz:-Along the Missouri river to the north by the location of such an institution, line of the county; or up the Weeping here. With the election of Jeff. Davis and all his crew in the South, with the Tammany ring and Tweed's frauds in the North, it cannot be a convincing argument from their side of the house that the election of one corrupt man to office new subscribers and clubs, during the should disrupt a party. If so, the Presidential Campaign, beginning June | Democratic party should have disbanded 20th and closing November 15th-the years ago. They still claim life and vitality, however. How long a Democratic party will exist after the Baltimore Convention meets remains to be seen. The day is at hand.

A great and at first sight plausible objection to Grant, in the German mind, is that he somehow knew or connived at the sale of arms to the French, by which Germans in the Faderland were killed.
