LAND SALE. We call attention to the great sale of land in this city, advertised to take place on Tuesday, August 20th.

A man in this city desires to wager $1,000 that Greeley carries Nebraska by 2,000 votes. - Watchman, July 20th.

You can buy men's shoes (good) for $2.00 at the Plattsmouth Shoe Store.

A gentleman of the medical fraternity has left town. His P. O. address is expected hourly. Ask the Captain for it.

Every body came home last night, and as all the strangers dropped in at the same time, the town was full.

The Daily Globe, Vol. 1, No. 2, GRANT and WILSON, published at St. Louis, Mo., makes its appearance on our table to-day.

Teacher's Certificate. Opportunity will be given on the 8th, 9th and 10th days of August, at my office in Plattsmouth, to procure Teachers' Certificates in accordance with the provisions of the Public School Laws of Nebraska.

Wanted, that man with the $1,000 to bet on Nebraska; also the names or the number of names on those club rolls.

A new weekly paper in the Danish language will appear next Tuesday. Its name will be the 'Scandinavian', and it will make a strong fight for Grant and Wilson and other straight republican candidates.

The Grant & Wilson Club met last evening, and transacted important business. A room for 'Headquarters' at a hand flag and other nice things are on the way.

Goods not sold at less than cost. No goods given away, but good goods at the lowest prices for cash.

A correspondent of the Methodist Protestant, trifles with sacred things after this fashion: 'I take my pen in hand to write you a few lines, or, about a very unpleasant habit, or, which some of our good Meth. odist brethren have, or, when they pray in public, or. It is adding a syllable to the last word in every sentence, or, which sounds very much like Er. Sometimes it is Ah or Ugh, and I have heard it sound like Nugh-hu. It is so strange they do not know it, er!'

There is no club we go much on but the ace of clubs, and it isn't worth anything if your opponent has the 'shack.' Just now, though, we should like to see that Greeley and Brown Club-roll. We demand ocular demonstration of those 150 names, good bona fide residents of this place, who will vote for Greeley and Brown. Send 'em in. We will print both rolls, that's the way to tell the story.

By recent advices from Washington, it has been found that the grand army of land jumpers had all their trouble for nothing. The claims entered by the original parties still hold good, and so that ends the matter. Those who have jumped on to some other man's land are now invited to jump off. - Statesman.

Question - How long does it take a man to learn German from the lips of a pretty girl, on the 4th of July, on the road to Weeping Water?

Answer - If the young man has 'moral courage' enough to enforce the prevail ing custom of that day, (collecting toll at the Bridges), we think it will take about 'one more buggy ride.'

We find among our exchanges a copy of The Nebraska Teacher, a monthly magazine published at Beatrice, by C. B. Palmer, with the official department under the care of J. M. McKenzie, our State Superintendent. It is very neatly gotten up, and contains some excellent articles. Price, $1 a year.

GREAT FIRE IN NEBRASKA CITY. Post-Office Block Burned, Several Stores Destroyed.

The Post-Office Block in Nebraska City, was struck by lightning during the storm last night, and almost totally destroyed. A number of stores to the northward also caught fire. The exact loss and damage is not ascertained at the time of going to press. Full particulars to-morrow.

The County Commissioners met to-day, and after a long and tedious debate and many representations pro and con from numbers of our citizens, they finally agreed to submit a Precinct proposition, as it is called, that is for the City of Plattsmouth and River Precincts to vote 10 per cent of their taxable property for a Trunk Railroad to touch certain points on the river. The amount that can be voted this way is $127,000 and the proposition in full will be published at an early day.

The Tanner and shoemaker can complete the job. - Sioux City Journal.

Now what shall I say? Not that the B. & M. R. officers are bad men. That would not do, for newspapers are afraid of them; but I will tell you what we will do; we will defeat the bonds for the Trunk Road. It is not likely to go in the right place, and because those who are to receive the most benefit pay the least, and because we believe it to be a branch of the U. P. or B. & M., or both combined; and because we have given half our lands to one company, and do not propose to give the other half to another; and because we know it is built to Nebraska City, or Oloo county's north line, we will get the road in the same place with when they fail to pay for the right of way through our lands. We want railroads, and we have to pay for our rides, when we take them, and we don't want to pay twice. Citizens of Cass county, do you get any better prices for your products now than you did before the B. & M. was built - and if so, how much better? Is it enough to pay for your land and leave you to rent? I for one am down on railroads and railroad monopolies running everything. Now I have said bad feelings enough - expressed my opinion, feel easier, and will rest better for it to-night.

Crops are splendid. We had a fine rain Friday night, and one Saturday night, which will insure a good corn crop - enough for food and fuel. Wheat, oats, barley and rye are mostly harvested, here. Now I must not forget to mention that the Congregational church here is fast approaching completion.

We learn that Dr. Chapman has sent out three bills in the past week, in the way of joking.

A letter from an old fashioned gentleman, and the programme of the Mt. Pleasant Sunday School Institute, are on file, but we could not get them in this week - the railroad matter crowding us for space. The Sabbath School Institute is on the 23rd and 24th of August, and we have time enough yet.

TEMPERANCE PLATFORM. Recognizing intemperance as the most aggravated evil of the time, causing great destruction of life and prosperity than all other evils combined, we, the temperance people of the State of Nebraska, assembled in Lincoln, this 17th day of July, adopt the following platform:

WHEREAS, The traffic in intoxicating drinks, and the more especially the sale and liberty of our citizens, renders private property insecure, and imposes an oppressive burden and unjust tax upon the people; and

WHEREAS, There can be no greater peril to the Nation and the State than the traffic in intoxicating drinks, and the more especially the sale and liberty of our citizens, renders private property insecure, and imposes an oppressive burden and unjust tax upon the people; and

Resolved, That as a prerequisite to our success in the political arena of the State, we demand an unequivocal recognition of our temperance principles as embodied in what is known as the Oldenburg platform, and that we nominate at our coming convention candidates out of either or both parties, or if necessary none for a regular State Temperance ticket; and

Resolved, That whatever may have been the excuse of temperance men hitherto for adhering to their political parties irrespective of temperance sentiments, such excuses are now highly culpable; as the time has fully come for united, persistent and determined action on the part of all temperance men for the purpose of utterly obliterating the traffic in intoxicating drinks and thus destroying the greatest enemy of mankind.

Resolved, That while adopting political measures for the protection of our rights or traffic, we will still continue the use of all moral measures in our power to persuade men to abandon the injurious practice of using intoxicating drinks.

Our Greenwood Letter.

GREENWOOD, July 23, 1872. ED. HERALD: - Since I proposed to keep you posted in regard to our doings in this locality, I must do so; but what under the sun I am to write about, is more than I know at this moment. News is very scarce here.

We are not surprised at Greeley's being nominated at Baltimore, and we are not surprised that all the bitterest rebels in the land support him. The cry and cry is 'anything to beat Grant.' But the joke is 'anything' won't defeat Grant, and Greeley's being a man, not not anything, as any one who could get up, he can't defeat Grant. If I was as sure of heaven as Grant is of being re-elected, I would never say another prayer. And Dr. Gen. Livingston, Esq., M. D., of Plattsmouth, will need two New York Herald Stales, with two field glasses and a microscope to find himself up the Nile defeat next November, and the Liberator, Mongell Standard-bearer will be further out in the cold than Dr. Hall, and his crew of north pole explorers. Some of the timid say it will be a close race. Not so. We will tick them out of their boots, next November! We are on the right track, and are bound to go ahead.

Now what shall I say? Not that the B. & M. R. officers are bad men. That would not do, for newspapers are afraid of them; but I will tell you what we will do; we will defeat the bonds for the Trunk Road. TELEGRAPHIC.

Grand Island, July 23. The body of a man named Cady was found in the Loupe Fork, opposite this place, shot and stabbed.

New York, July 23. The Herald's Washington telegram says dispatches were sent from St. Louis last night to the President and members of the Cabinet requesting an authoritative denial of Senator Schurz's assertion that he was approached with offers of patronage to support the San Domingo scheme and that a full and authorized contradiction of the Senator's story is promised by the President's friends as soon as their present knowledge is reconfirmed by his arrival from Long Branch.

Senator Conkling this evening addressed a large and enthusiastic Republican meeting at Cooper Institute on 'Grant and his supporters.' The hall was handsomely decorated. Jackson S. Schultz presided.

S. T. Streeter resigns from the Liberal Republican and will support Grant. Gov. Murphy was from Long Branch that he believes President Grant himself paid for his seaside cottage; that he (Murphy) did not contribute anything towards it, at any rate.

The Tribune denies the stories published in some Republican papers that Greeley ever conferred with Seymour relative to selecting any one for office; that he ever desired any one to get up meetings for him, or that he ever asked any body to try to get him nominated to the Presidency.

Williamsport, Pa., July 23. The riot is suppressed. Eight hundred militia, under General Merrill, arrived this morning and arrested four of the leaders of the movement.

Chicago, July 19. The republicans opened the campaign this evening by an immense enthusiastic open air meeting in Market street, preceded by a national salute. Ex-Mayor Rice presided.

General Oglesby reviewed the history of the Republican party. D. W. Munn, of Cairo, said the Cincinnati party was so liberal that it would give all that it achieved by the grand old Republican organization. He protested against seeing again in Congress men who desolated the South in the name of hope to found a Southern Confederacy.

In response to calls, General Beveridge discussed the political situation until nearly midnight, being attentively listened to.

New York, July 20. The Democrat and Abend Zeitung, both liberal republican, came out for Grant to-day.

A Herald dispatch says the accident on the N. Y. Central railroad, yesterday presented a scene which beggared description. The occupants of the smoking car to which the engine was confined, were fastened, and were pleading for help in a way that was sickening.

Indianapolis, July 20. Senator Henry Wilson will spend a week in Indiana, commencing at Richmond, August 22d.

Salt Lake, July 22. Gen. John A. Logan this evening addressed a large and enthusiastic audience on the political situation. Liberal indignation was crowded to its utmost capacity.

We learn that Dr. Chapman has sent out three bills in the past week, in the way of joking.

A letter from an old fashioned gentleman, and the programme of the Mt. Pleasant Sunday School Institute, are on file, but we could not get them in this week - the railroad matter crowding us for space. The Sabbath School Institute is on the 23rd and 24th of August, and we have time enough yet.

LOGAN.

Col. Crosey, of Lincoln, was to speak here Friday night, but by letter we learn that John A. Logan will speak in Lincoln on that evening, and therefore Col. Crosey's time for speaking here has been postponed.

It is probable that Gen. Logan will speak in Plattsmouth, after his Lincoln speech, on Friday next.

Greeley has been to Long Branch - and there is now no hope of his election. The Democrats will not vote for a man given to 'sea-side lounging,' and to sporting with the surf. Not much. - Council Bluffs Nonpareil.

Does Adams of Tekama say he sold 'them ar' two votes, whose were they, can he get Hilton to say Adams sold him?

Mr. John Christensen, Master Mechanic of the B. & M. in Nebraska, came home to-day.

The State Journal is hungering after Adams, of Tekama. Lets see him.
