We want a load of wood; good sound wood, and honest measure. If any man in this town can furnish such an article we would like to see his countenance at our office—especially if he takes the HERALD.

We are an abused and injured individual. An "itum" we were expecting, and had been promised, and was almost here, jumped off the train over in Iowa, and thus disappointed the HERALD and all its healthy readers. Sheriff, you're a pretty good fellow but you should telegraph the next man not to jump off till he gets on this side, where we can get a lick at him.

Curious folks these Lib.-Dems. are. One half of the party say Furnas can be elected because he opposed the removal of the Capital to Lincoln, and the other half because he did not oppose its removal from Omaha. Who has the right of it?

So far as Douglas county is concerned, the Grant State ticket is broken down already.—Omaha Herald.

As the Herald has never been known to be, nor make an error of judgment some folks may believe this.

A COLORED BROTHER ON SUMMER.

For the Herald. If you will condescend to print for a black man I will furnish a few lines. In reading the Bible there are blessings promised to the good people, and curses against the wicked. After reading Sumner's letter to the colored people, I picked out the 8th verse of the 60th Psalm and adopted it as my course on him. It reads thus: "Let his days be few and let another take his office." I mean his political days, and I wish the Bible had said he should not be Governor of Massachusetts. But as he is only the nominee of the confederates, and they have not got the inside track, I will just leave him in the hands of the loyal people of the State, and they will know how much to discount him.

SAMBO. HENRY BOECK'S NEW FURNITURE STORE.

We visited Henry Boeck's new store a few days ago, and were surprised at all the conveniences he has fitted up for himself, in his new place, the large brick building opposite the Postoffice.

A great, roomy cellar, gives ample place for the storing of lumber in the rough, ladders, common furniture, and so on. On the first floor, from the street, is the show room, filled with elegant and useful articles, from a baby's cradle to a complete parlor set.

Some very handsome bed room sets are here shown, and a curious steel wire spring mattress, lighter and easier fitted to any bedstead, yet durable, springing and comfortable as the best old-fashioned spring mattress.

From the rear of this floor wagons can be loaded and unloaded level with the sales room, thus avoiding tugging and breakages, often. Upstairs, are innumerable stocks of chairs, bedsteads, and all sorts of things in the rough, and in "knock-downs." Taken all in all, friend Boeck has as fine a building for the purpose, and as good a stock of goods, in his line, as can be found in Nebraska, and his enterprise is a credit to the town and country. Call and examine for yourselves on Main street, opposite the postoffice. 71d&w3t

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE. PLATTSMOUTH, Sept. 18, 1872. According to announcement by the County Superintendent, the Institute was organized at 1 o'clock p. m., County Superintendent Wise acting as Chairman. The following is a list of the teachers and others present, who take an interest in our school affairs: J. M. McKenzie, Miss Katie Winslow, Miss Gertie Johnson, Miss Flora Bell Wiles, Miss Mary Wiles, Miss Ursula Wiles, George W. Hammond, Lavina Patterson, A. A. Pranke, Timothy Lawler, Francis Linville, J. P. Doud, Wm. H. Pool, Isaac A. Cory.

The Institute was opened with singing, Miss Wise at the organ, prayer by Prof. McKenzie, and I. A. Cory elected Secretary.

Prof. Wise announced the subject for discussion to be "the manner of teaching geography to primary classes," and invited Prof. McKenzie to lead in the discussion. All teachers present took an active part, and a deep interest was manifested by all present. In teaching "direction" to the young pupil, it was unanimously adopted to place the pupil's face to the north, right hand to the east and left hand to the west.

Question by Prof. Wise: "If I go to South America will I teach direction in the same manner?" To be answered tomorrow.

Prof. McKenzie then lectured on the subject of the care in regard to the health of pupils by teachers, after which the institute adjourned to meet at the First Ward School House, at 7 P. M.

Institute met, as per adjournment, and was opened with singing. Prof. McKenzie lectured for a few minutes on the subject of school economy, after which a discussion was had on the following resolution:

Resolved, That corporal punishment should not be used under any circumstances in the school room.

The County Superintendent appointed as leading disputants Mr. Cory and Miss Johnson, on the affirmative, and Messrs. Lawler and Hammond on the negative. The discussion was spirited, and was participated in by Messrs. Marindale, and Salm, teachers in the city, and by Prof. McKenzie.

The Institute adjourned to meet at Clark & Plummer's Hall, at 8:45 A. M., tomorrow. I. A. CORY, Secretary.

E. T. Duke & Co. have just received a large lot of Heating Stoves of all kinds, suitable for parlor, offices, stores, hotels, or any place. Call and see them. 66d&w2t

Proposals for Bids. Sealed proposals will be received by the City Council of the City of Plattsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska, at the office of the city clerk in said city, for the erection of a Brick School Building, situated on the 4th day of September, 1872, at 10 o'clock of the 21st day of September 1872. Separate bids will be received for: Furnishing the stone delivered on the ground for the foundation.

For building the foundation including the necessary excavation and furnishing sand and lime.

For the delivery of the brick necessary for the whole building.

For building the brick work and plastering the building, the contractor furnishing all the material except the brick.

For all carpenter's work, including all the necessary material for doing the same.

For all painting, graining, and glazing, including all materials for the same.

For all dressed stone-work, water-table, door and window sills.

For terra cotta caps for windows and doors.

For all iron and tin work.

Bids will also be received for any number of the above items, and also for the erection of the entire building.

Plans and specifications to which the work and materials must all conform, can be seen on and after September 14th, 1872, at the office of the City Clerk, in Plattsmouth, and at the office of Charles F. Driscoll, architect, Omaha, Nebraska.

The contract for building the foundation of said School House, is to be completed by the 15th of October, 1872, and two stories of the brick work to be erected by the 20th of December, 1872, if not hindered by unfavorable weather. The whole building to be finished complete in all its parts by August 1st, 1872.

The person or persons receiving the award of contract will be required to execute a bond with good and sufficient security for the faithful performance thereof.

The Council reserve the right to reject any and all bids offered, if deemed to the interest of the city so to do.

Monthly payments of eighty-five per cent will be made as the work progresses and the materials are furnished.
