ADUSING CITIZENS.

FROM THE LINCOLN JOURNAL. If there is anything upon which the Statesman can pride itself as being consistent in its whole career, it is its persistent attempt to befoul the city of Lincoln by its low-lived abuse of its prominent citizens.

It so happens that Mr. J. J. Gosper is the only Lincoln man nominated for a State office proper on the Republican ticket. On this account, the Statesman with its usual pusillanimity, repeats its old and stale "did or did not Mr. Gosper," etc.

We have just one word to say with reference to its cowardly attempt to blacken the character of an industrious, intelligent, and public spirited citizen like Mr. Gosper, without having the manhood to make charges against him.

We will bind ourselves to prove the man, whoever he is, that dare say categorically against Mr. Gosper what the Statesman sneakingly insinuates, a liar within 48 hours after such charges are made, and we will prove him so by the records.

We will prove that he lies in general, and that he lies particularly in every specification that is insinuated.

We will take particular pleasure in accomplishing this easy task as soon as any man or any newspaper has the "sard" to give us occasion to do it.

Nothing to offer, and shall not even waste our contempt upon a mode of attack that the most abandoned "yaller dog" in the land would be ashamed of, as soon as he had emerged from his first month of puppy-hood.

This meets our views. If any man, or any candidate is proven to be corrupt and unworthy, we propose to take him to task that the most abandoned "yaller dog" in the land would be ashamed of, as soon as he had emerged from his first month of puppy-hood.

Referring to Greeley's denunciation of Grant for enforcing the law which Greeley himself originated, Judge Hedy tells the following pertinent story: "Jehediah Burchard, once preaching a revival sermon, was interrupted by the entrance of Aaron Barr. 'Here comes one,' said the revivalist, 'against whom I will testify in the day of judgment.' 'Yes, sir,' said Barr, 'in fifty years of original practice I have always found the greatest rascals turn State's evidence.'"

There was quite a heavy frost in some parts of Maine last week. In a number of places the corn was killed, and the farmers are cutting it for fodder.

All the world is wondering at the ability of France to pay the three hundred million francs that was needed to pay the part of the war claim of Prussia, recently due. The Paris Univers says: "Three milliard francs would weigh, in gold, eleven hundred tons. To coin this sum at the rate of twenty francs a second would take five years. It would require ten long freight trains to transport it to Prussia, and a man walking round the world—twenty-five thousand miles—might drop two louis or (forty francs) at each step, and he would have many left on his return." And yet in three days after this loan was advertised, twelve times the amount wanted was subscribed. The amount asked by President Thiers was 3,400,000,000 francs or about $680,000,000 of our money. The amount tendered, or actually agreed to by the government, was 41,641,000,000 francs. The largest sum ever raised at the rate of twenty francs a second was during the Crimean war. Of this amount only 362,000,000 francs were subscribed. It looks as if capitalists had faith in the French Republic. The Emperor could not raise half what it wanted, but the Republic offered twelve times the amount it asks for.—Patrie Farmer.

The Republicans of Illinois are in excellent spirits, and are confident of carrying the State by a large majority as they gave in 1868—more than fifty thousand. Koerner has almost given up the fight. He finds himself so unpopular, personally and politically, that it is impossible for him to draw a crowd. Even the Democrats have gone back on him—because he more than once went back on them.

LONDON, September 18. Charles Sumner arrived at Liverpool Saturday. At a meeting of the American club, he received the first information of his nomination by the Democratic Liberal Republicans of Massachusetts for Governor, and announced that he would positively decline the nomination.

London journals rejoice over the conclusion of the Alabama claims controversy, and express hopes that a foundation for action has been laid for the permanent good understanding between the two nations.

New York, September 18. Gen. Sherman has arrived from Europe. On Wednesday Greeley will start on a western tour, embracing Pittsburg, Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Louisville, Nashville, Chicago, Detroit, Toledo, Cleveland, Erie and the coal mine region of Pennsylvania.

A Washington dispatch says the award of the Geneva tribunal does not excite the slightest enthusiasm in official circles. Attorney General Williams, who is only a member of the Joint High Commission, now in Washington, says the award covers fully all the American claims expected would be awarded, while the sum is actually short of what the English members conceded might be due, under the dictation of Earl Russell, as set forth in the correspondence between Minister Adams and the British Premier as for the establishment of a new principle of the international law.

STOCKHOLM, September 18. King Charles, of Sweden, is lying seriously ill at Maleno.

CLEVELAND, September 18. The eastern train to-day has forty-two Chinese children going to New Haven to school, and thirty-three barefooted Capuchin monks from Guatemala, bound for a convent at Milwaukee. They reach Chicago via Burlington.

DENVER, Colorado, Sept. 10. The diamond fever is increasing here and faith in the reality of the existence of diamond fields within ten days' drive of Denver is growing.

NEW YORK, September 18. The examination of Forester commenced at the Tombs to-day. Mrs. Ann Keenan testified that she saw a man, whom she identifies as the prisoner, going into the basement of Nathan's house on the night of the murder. He had something in his coat's pocket.

NEW YORK, September 18. President Grant will visit the New Jersey State Fair at Waverly, to-morrow afternoon, and the New York exposition in the evening.

LONDON, September 19. A dispatch from Stockholm announces that King Charles, of Sweden, died at Nealmo, last evening.

ERIZ, September 19. Congressman Schofield disposes of the Credit Mobiler case, so far as it concerns him in to-morrow's Dispatch. He says he never received a cent of stock in the company.

NEW YORK, September 19. At Long Beach President Grant expressed himself to a reporter as pleased with the result of the Alabama claims arbitration. The settlement of the contest, in his opinion, is not for dollars and cents, but the preservation of dignity between the two countries, with a full maintenance of our national dignity. These points having been achieved, the nation should now be satisfied.

PITTSBURGH, September 19. Horace Greeley and escort will arrive in this city at seven o'clock this evening.

LONDON, September 20. Mrs. Scott Siddons is a passenger on the steamship City of Brussels, which sailed yesterday from Liverpool for New York.

NEW YORK, September 20. The executive committee of straight Democrats to-day issued an address to the people of the State, appealing to them to support the Louisville nomination, and calling a State convention to meet at Albany, October 34, to nominate an electoral ticket.

A. T. Stewart declines to allow the use of his name in connection with the candidacy for mayor.

NEWARK, September 22. President Grant remained at the residence of ex-Governor Wood last night. This morning he is quietly visiting the exposition, viewing objects which the crowd of last night prevented his seeing.

Five Dollars reward for a second class sensation even. Our horse thief man traveled a good ways. We saw him committing suicide in the St Louis Globe, shooting himself in sheer desperation in the Democrat. Getting shot on the run in a New York paper and finally as having killed Sheriff Johnson's deer in a door nail in some Georgia paper. Give us another lift, Sheriff, do.

Republican victories have become so numerous lately that we began to mention that in Colorado the Hon. J. B. Chaffee, the Republican candidate, was elected to Congress by fifteen hundred majority. The Democratic ground-swell bade't-treaded Pike's Peak at last defeat.

Advices from the cotton fields, both above and below Charleston, confirm in full the general prevalence of the caterpillars.
