New York, October 30. The wife of Horace Greeley died at four o'clock this morning at the residence of Alvin Johnson.

The weather to-day is cool and pleasant and very favorable to the prevailing epidemic, which, it is now thought has reached a crisis.

Several firms will receive oxen to-day from Poughkeepsie, for the conveyance of merchandise.

The stable superintendent thinks that working of diseased horses will run the distemper into glanders, and that the result will be fatal.

It is stated that fifty cows have already died of the same disease, as that which is effecting horses, at East Orange New Jersey.

The schooner Crown Point, which was driven into port at Shonington, Sunday night, by stress of weather, had two men prostrated with yellow fever, which had broken out during the voyage.

More horses appear on the streets to-day than for several days past, but far from enough to meet the demands. The disease is evidently subsiding.

ROME, October 31. Dispatches from Turin report no abatement of floods in the river Po. Over four thousand men are erecting barracks to arrest further progress of the war.

A female doctor reports that the treated four ladies suffering from the horse disease.

CHICAGO, October 31. Doubt no longer exists that the horse epidemic has reached here and is rapidly spreading.

There are forty horses in several stables at Evanston.

The Po continues to rise. Inundation is spreading, and families are being driven from their homes.

NEW YORK, November 1. The jury in the Hall trial disagreed and were discharged.

PHILADELPHIA, November 1. The Evening Telegraph estimates the number of sick horses at ten thousand, but not a single fatal case has been reported.

THE PRESENT CAMPAIGN. The present campaign, or the different roads to the White House, reminds me of a circumstance of a friend of mine who was traveling on horseback and came to a town on a river.

HINTS TO EMPLOYERS. There is scarcely one in this large class of our people, whether male or female, old or young, that is not ambitious to rise in position and pay.

ANOTHER SIN. We have newspapers, the Grant men own them, the Grant men run them, Grant edits them all.

THE HON. CHAIRMAN SAID THE HON. DOCTOR WAS SOME KIND OF A FOOL, BUT TOOK HIS "LETTERS" AND THE GOVERNMENT IS STILL DEFRACATED.

LET US LOOK AT THIS. Horace Greeley owns a paper, called his paper, often.
