Everybody seems to have grown fleshy lately, and Hank Straight really looks like a fine built, corpulent man, with a big overcoat on.

Two fellows in this town want to "lick" the editor of the HERALD, it seems. Well, boys, we're little, and its cold, and Doctor's bills are high, so do it softly and nice like, and we don't care.

John Barnes wears a hat with a good looking mild mannered face inside of it, and a label, underneath, to wit: HORACE GREELEY. Frank White says he'd be ashamed to wear a hat with a man's face in it that could not get more votes than the one in Barnes' hat did.

If Joe. Battery don't quit plaguing us we'll tell all we know about that business, and if the truth won't throw the joker on him, we'll stretch a point. What's a city dad doin' out o' nights, any way.

General Fremont and wife are in Europe.

Daylor, the insurance man, says he don't blame Pottenger for throwing out the vote of Rock Bluffs some years ago, since he saw the HERALD, and found they cast 14 votes for O'Connor. By the way, nobody but the HERALD has noticed this important fact.

The following notice has just been received by D. H. Wheeler & Co., from the President of the Phoenix Insurance Company of Hartford.

"PHOENIX INSURANCE CO., HARTFORD, November 11th, 1872.

"GENTLEMEN,—We have advised from our Agent in Boston, which are confirmed by reports at this office, that our policies in the burnt district will not exceed $500,000. Our assets, after deducting all liabilities previous to this fire, are upward of fourteen hundred thousand dollars.

"H. Kellogg, President." Also a notice from the Hartford Fire Insurance Company, of the same date, states that her losses in Boston were but $500,000 and her present cash assets are $2,355,000. This shows the old Hartford to be as sound as a dollar.

PORT ZEARNEY BURNED.

The storm was very severe at Lowell, so says an old correspondent from there. A prairie fire broke out and old Ft. Kearney is burned and another old land mark gone.

Dan. Rice's famous old horse, Excelsior, died recently at New York. He has traveled with the circus for 18 years, and the old showman showed his manhood by weeping bitterly, when his faithful friend died.

An Irish paper publishes the following: "A deaf man named Taff was run down by a passenger train and killed on Wednesday morning. He was injured in a similar manner about a year ago."

It couldn't have been one of "Little Mac's" papers that said this, could it?

GOOD COMMON SENSE.

If you would insure a good fire when one starts, place a lumber yard on top of your house in the shape of a Mansard roof. It will do it.—Journal.

That's so. Those "Mansard's" have cost the U. S. nearly as much money as France, their native country, is worth.

Marysville, Ohio, has a specimen of corn that the editor of the Tribune in that place says, will equal almost the famous Nebraska corn. The big corn of Nebraska is known in Europe as well as Ohio, Mr. Tribune.—Journal.

A test case on the right of women, as citizens, to vote, is about to be tested in the St. Louis courts.

Mr. Challis, who instituted the suit for libel against Mrs. Woodhull, Miss Clifton, Colonel Blood and others, said in court yesterday that he would spend $100,000, if necessary, to secure their conviction. To this Miss Clifton said to a Sun Reporter, "I have not $100,000 with which to defend myself against him but I have truth on my side, and I have confidence in the courts and the people of New York to believe that I will not be convicted. I will submit to the exposition of the truth, but others may not; and I want Mr. Challis to understand that I will fight this case out to the bitter end, and that I believe the people will stand by me."—Globe.

As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is unsurpassed over every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.
