Harper's Magazine. Notices of the Press.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excel-lent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates ev-ery month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stu-id prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe. The character this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic weath, and iterary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
