EARLY DAYS IN NEBRASKA.

No. 4.
BY TIP TOP.

THE FIRST NIGHT IN A NEW COUNTRY.
—NEW HOUSES AND STRANGE INDIANS.

We had been informed in New York that there were sixteen good houses and four stores, a hotel, and all we "wanted," in our new town.

We found two log shanties with dirt roofs and "puncleon" floors, one frame building, a trading post, and a shell for a hotel without any roof on it. We wanted none of it, but we had to accept the situation, as the "Omaha" left next morning, and never another boat or supply else but ourselves did we see for six long weeks.

THE HEROES OF THE TRAIN.

Mr. Derrick Dodd writes as follows to the Herald: "I was on the branch railroad from Plattsmouth and Washington. Of course I was in the car with the mail, and the reckless velocity with which it was running between here and Baltimore is almost frightful. I was delighted to see the conductor as he came on board, and to see the engine fire up and start off so fast. I was not a little surprised when the train started off so fast. I was not a little surprised when the train started off so fast."

WIVES COLUMN.

"Smoke it in Sugar"—In my own case a rusty nail had made a bad wound in the bottom of my foot. The pain and nervous irritation was severe. This was all removed by holding it in the smoke for fifteen minutes, and I was able to resume my reading in comfort. We have often recommended it to others with like results. It is certainly a most valuable remedy for nervous irritation of the foot and ankle. It is especially useful in cases of rheumatism, gout, and other diseases of the foot and ankle. DODGERS.

Oh, how homesick I was, that night. Few of the party had ever cooked a meal of venison, or slept in anything but a clean, white bed, made by woman's care, or ate of anything common or less than good white ware. Dirty blankets, tin plates, spoiled eggs, and dry crackers were somewhat of a change; and I, being the youngest of the party, turned over and cried—a kithloole in the panicful fall of tears.

Next morning we "packed" the house upon our shoulders, and before night had a place for the man and his wife. We "backs" continued to sleep in the Chasse maison, but at over at Thompson's. Poor Mrs. Thompson! how I have pitied her, since I have grown older, and know what must have been her trials, her fears, and her utter loneliness.
