All candidates for office will be announced in the HERALD for one dollar each. Said notice not to exceed five lines.

The Molly McGee is caulked at last, and on Monday they pushed the old girl in the cold Missouri, when her dander riz, and she snorted fire at her persecutors, and tried to escape to the Nebraska side, among white folks; but the silken band of strong attachment to the Iowa shore still held her bound, and at this writing we Nebraskians have not had the chance of rubbing noses with the Molly McGee this spring.

LATER.—On Tuesday she came over to see the HERALD, and blow off steam.

DEMOCRATIC-LIBERAL CONVENTION.

A Democratic Liberal Convention to nominate a City, Ticket, will be held in the Court House on Saturday March 22 1873, at 7½ o'clock in the evening. A full attendance is expected.

By order of Committee

At the solicitation of many voters, I have to inform the voters of the city of Plattsmouth, that I am an independent candidate for the office of City Marshal.

GEO. FICKLER.

PLATTSMOUTH, March 10, 1873.

James Ruby's team ran away, down Main street, on Thursday last, and all the newly nominated Marshals got out in the street, and threatened to fine 'em if they did'nt stop. The team of Rubie's never minded a peg, but went round Second street, and the last the HERALD saw of them they were on the road to Rock Bluffs.

LATER.—Nobody hurt, team all right. The Mayor now proposes to fine the City Marshals, and from the proceeds buy each horse a new curry comb and brush.

Well, that won't do, in this case, for our esteemed friend Newman, pere goes across the herring pond, and way up east to "Yarmany," old Germany, to see the friends of "lang syne," and may a happy voyage, a kind welcome and a safe return be vouchsafed to Newman pere, is the sincere wish of the HERALD.

The Vice-President stuck on a bar, Saturday. The President went up to help her, worked all day Sunday, got her guards stove in and finally brought her off, and they both came back to the levee as proudly as though nothing had happened.

On Monday the water "riz," and the grand old boat made her regular trips.

If we were inclined to be politically facetious, we might compare the fate of our real V. P. to the mishap of the B. & M. boats. He, too, stuck on a bar, the President went to his help in a billet-doux, and now he floats safe at home in South Bend.

EDITOR HERALD—Sir:—In your last issue I notice that a few names, and among them J. H. Stinchcomb, are proposed for Marshal of the city. Supposing, as a matter of course, that you mean J. W. Stinchcomb—that's me—allow me to say, that having so recently arrived in the State, I am not familiar with the duties of the office, and not being a very apt scholar, and further remembering the old rumor, that you can't learn an old dog new tricks, may I return to my friends many thanks for their kinds intentions, and leave the Marshalship to the field, and say hurrah, all! Here's my dollar.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

In the Evening.

Our Hibernicustarian friends met at Fitzgerald's Hall on the evening of the 17th, and had a rousing old Fourth of July in honor of St. Patrick. McDonagh told some stories, Linch sang "The Wearing of the Green" in fine style, and all the other ladies and gentlemen danced and supped and St. Patricked to their hearts' content. Our city election approaches and yet no steps have been taken to call a caucus or any nominating body together.—Would it not be well to meet with that view, in the several wards, on Saturday evening next, and elect delegates, say ten from each ward, to a City Convention, to be held on the succeeding Monday, or some time next week. It seems to be generally conceded that no political candidates will be brought forward.

Party hate and party politics may well be laid aside in municipal elections. The best men for the best places ought to be the rule, and above all we must have an economical administration of city affairs, or we shall wake up and find ourselves minus our inhabitants some fine morning.

CITY CLERK.

To the Electors of the City of Plattsmouth, Gentlemen.

As the City Election will soon take place I beg leave to ask your suffrage and support, trusting you will deem me worthy of it, I shall place myself in the field, a Candidate for the office of City Clerk. Respectfuly Yours.

CITIZENS'S CALL.

A convention of the voters of Plattsmouth, will be held in each ward, on Saturday, March 22, at 7 o'clock in the evening for the purpose of nominating candidates for Councilmen, and to select ten delegates from each ward to attend a convention to nominate city officers; said convention to be held in the Court House, on Monday evening, March 24th.

The ward conventions will be as follows:

First ward, at Fitzgerald's.
Second ward, Brick Store.
Third ward, Mickelwaite's office.
Fourth ward, Turner Hall.

R. Vivian, J. A. Connery,
E. G. Dovey, J. A. MacMurphy,
S. M. Chapman, J. W. Marshall,
Wm. Stadelman, R. C. Cushing,
G. H. Black, and many citizens.

Hon. J. L. Brown
Has come to town,
With a plug hat upon his crown,
And marches the streets, up and down.

Now, madam rumor says that Brown took such a liking to Legislative business during the past term, that he has concluded to establish a little Legislature of his own, where he can act as Charman of the Committee of the Whole, and is now down here to secure a Porter for that purpose. For further particulars, see small Bill.

CENTAUR LINIMENT.

There is no pain which the Centaur Liniment will not relieve, no swelling it will not subdue, and no lameness which it will not cure. This is strong language, but it is true. Where the parts are not gone, its effects are marvelous. It has produced more cures of rheumatism, neuralgia, lock-jaw, palsy, sprains, swellings, earache, caked-breasts, scalds, burns, salt-rheum, &c., upon the human frame, and of strains, spavin, galls, &c., upon animals in one year than have all other pretended remedies since the world began. It is a counter-irritant, an all-healing pain-reliever. Cripples throw away their crutches, the lame walk, poisonous bites are rendered harmless and the wounded are healed without a scar. It is no humbug. The recipe is published around each bottle. It is selling as no article ever before sold, and it sells because it does just what it pretends to do.—Those who now suffer from rheumatism, pain or swelling deserve to suffer if they will not use Centaur Liniment. More than 1000 certificates of remarkable cures, including frozen limbs, chronic-rheumatism, gout, running tumours, &c. have been received. We will send a circular containing certificates, the recipe, &c., gratis, to any one requesting it. One bottle of the yellow wrapper Centaur Liniment is worth one hundred dollars for spavined or sweenied horses and mules, or for screw-worm in sheep.—Stock-owners—this liniment is worth your attention. No family should be without Centaur Liniment. J. B. Ross & Co., New York.

Castoria is more than a substitute for Castor Oil. It is the only safe article in existence which is certain to assimilate the food, regulate the bowels, cure wind colic and produce natural sleep. It contains neither minerals, morphine or alcohol, and is pleasant to take. Children need not cry and mothers may rest.

Call and see the new gaiters at the shoe store, they are so beautiful, so good and cheap. 48tf

SPECIAL.

We call attention to the fact that the HERALD is now printing and offers to print and furnish cards, envelopes, bill heads, letter heads, statements &c., at rates so low that business men will find they can have printed cards and papers for the same that the white paper would cost them.

Go to Vivian's for groceries and provisions. 30tf

50w4

Our list of candidates for City Marshal, has created some small excitement, a tempest in a tea-pot, as one may say. The HERALD informed you that it had not type enough of the right kind to "set up" all the names presented to our notice as candidates. This has caused a misunderstanding; then, minor causes of jealousy have sprung up, some don't like the crowd they are in, and others don't like the crowd they ain't in—One man refuses to run at all, and another says he didn't want Marshal, but it was Mayor he was after.

So it goes. Let a poor editor do his best and he fails to please everybody, and then the pay, look at it. These fellows, instead of coming up and paying us our dollar promptly, are taking our dollar and trying to buy each other off with it. About half our last week's list have been bought off thus, we understand. More want to come in, but as they have not any dollar, we can't announce them.

Of those whose credit is good, and who were left off last week, we announce the following list: Fred. Lehnhoff Bro. Hemple, Hank Streight, Frank Carruth, Lon. Cunningham, Hon. T. M. Marquett, George Brown, John Sherman, Tom. Murphy, Charley Black, Judge O'Neill and many others.

This list will be continued next week, and until all are included who desire to vote or be voted on for Marshal.

Besides these, BOB DOOM came down on a special engine, Monday, in order to run. He claims Plattsmouth as his home, and says he never has moved his washing from here, and intends to vote and run for Marshal. (He gave McDonagh the dollar, though.)

Many old residents, who have been gone a year or so, but claim they have always got their washing and things in Plattsmouth, are coming back on April Fool's day, and mean to run. It is now reported that Sam Chapman is the most prominent candidate, although Judge Maxwell says if he hadn't been fooled into accepting such an unimportant office as Judge of the Third District Court, he would go in, try Sam a tilt, and we believe the Judge could be elected over anybody. Several of the Bank men are talking of running, and Clark has hired an extra clerk to help figure up the exact net proceeds of the profits from the Bank to each partner. If they fall below a Marshal's salary, one of them comes in for a chance at City Marshal, sure—the lucky man to be decided by drawing cuts.

Old man Newman came very near not going to Germany, knowing very well that if Herman would withdraw he could be elected. He offered Herman the best bottle of Schnapps in his trunk, but the son finding he had been announced for Marshal instead of Mayor, refused to give up his chance, and the old man has gone off in high dudgeon.

Our boys down at the office are pretty quiet, but Hathaway and Stiles have a bout, every now and then, and each has offered the other his dollar to withdraw, several times. The two devils have taken up the quarrel, and one shouts Stiles, forever, while the other sings Hathaway, till you can't rest.

McDonagh and myself have ordered pistols for one and coffee for two, and propose to settle our hash that way.

Simpson, as Receiver.

LEGAL NOTICE.

By virtue of an order of sale issued to me in the above entitled case, out of the said court, I will, at one o'clock P. M., on the 14th day of April, A. D. 1873, offer at Public Sale to the highest and best bidder, at the front door of the Court House, in Plattsmouth, Nebraska, the following described tracts of land to-wit:

The northeast quarter (¼) of section No. twenty-eight (28), in township ten north of range thirteen east of the sixth principal Meridian in Cass county, Nebraska; also a part of the west half (½) of the northwest quarter (¼) of section twenty-seven (27) adjoining the tract first described, the latter tract being described as commencing at the south-west corner of the north-west quarter of section twenty-seven, (27) in township ten north of range thirteen aforesaid, running thence north fifty one [51] rods and sixteen (16) links; thence east eighty (80) rods; thence south fifty-one (51) rods and sixteen (16) links; thence west eighty (80) rods to the place of berinning. The above tracts of land will be sold on said day, separately, to satisfy the decree of the court in favor of the plaintiffs against the defendants, and as the property and real estate of the defendants; and at the same time and place I will separately offer at public sale, by virtue of the order of sale in this case, the remaining portion of the west half (½) of the northwest quarter (¼) of section twenty-seven (27), in township ten north of range thirteen [13] east in Cass County, Nebraska, excepting the Hull house and lot, the Hartman house and lot, and the McGregor house and lot, as the property and real estate of the defendants, to satisfy the amount found due in the above case to the defendants James Sweet, Julian Metcalf and A. Bowen, as trustees for the stockholders of the Farmers' and Mechanics store of Nebraska City. All of the land described is to be sold to satisfy mortgages upon the same.

Given under my hand this 12th day of March, A. D. 1873.
