NOTICE TO ATTORNEYS.

Black depositions for sale at the Herald office.

Some fellow in New York city advertised that a Prof. Cantell A. Bigie would fly from Trinity steamer on a certain day.

Olz, the Veterinary Surgeon, has removed to the little brick, north side of Main street, west of the Court House.

Osage, Iowa, has a reformer. He wants the City Council to pass an ordinance abolishing cabs-making it a crime to wear them.

This would be funnier than letting the city printing to the highest bidder.

County and City orders bought at the Elephant Store at the highest figures.

MR. EDITOR HERALD—I take the liberty of proposing the following conundrum, which you may solve at your leisure: Three tradesmen of a town combine to advertise their respective trades, through the medium of a single card. Would it be considered good evidence of cheating the printer, and reminding people of an old adage, to wit: Three tinkers make one workman?—Vat you tink? HUNTSVILLE.

THE SENATE—Wm. Edgerton Proprietor, cosy, warm and comfortable, drop in and see us. Liquors and cigars warranted pure and good.

ATTENTION. Union Fire Co. No. 1, will hold a regular meeting at the Court House, at 7 o'clock, sharp, Wednesday, 23d inst. A full attendance is desired, as business of importance will be transacted.

By order of J. A. MacCormick, Pres't.

TO LET—A place of ten acres—in fruit and vineyard. To a good man a No. 1 chance is offered. Apply to Whately Milkswat.

Counting room, corner of the HERALD office steps, on Main street.

THE MILWAUKEE MONTHLY. The April number of this popular Magazine is a charming one. Its fine new cover gives it an attractive appearance in keeping with its excellent table of contents, and the illustrated frontispiece is lovely. Writers should make a note of the fact that the publisher is offering fifty dollars for the best short story. Send a stamp for a specimen copy to T. J. Gilmore, Milwaukee, Wis.

JEWELRY. Frank Carruth's Jewelry Store in the Post Office building is the place to buy fine Watches, Clocks, Napkin Rings, Silvered Jewelry, and Fancy Ware.

N. B. Repairing well and neatly done on short notice, cheap as elsewhere.

Probate Court Fees. A case has been determined at Omaha regarding the fees of Probate Judge in civil cases. A decision was given in the District Court, by Judge Lake holding that the Probate Judge may take fees either under his own or Justice's fee bill, indifferently, and that the law of 1870, giving the $1 trial fee, has been repealed.

The civil jurisdiction of the Probate Court is now $500, and the new law in relation thereto will be published soon.

OBITUARY. Josiah P. Moore, an old resident of Plattsmouth, and well known in the county died on Saturday morning, about nine o'clock.

He was Police Judge of the city until the late election and his death leaves one more place void in the ranks of our first and best known Nebraskians now fast becoming only too scarce.

Mr. Solomon, of Solomon & Nathan's, has returned from his trip east and brought an entire new stock of goods at lower prices than ever. A heavy stock of fine dry goods and fancy goods will be offered for sale by this enterprising firm; at such rates that some can go away disappointed. Call and examine the new goods. No charge for showing goods, and we take pleasure in having our customers examine our stock at all times.

Watches and clocks cleaned for $1.00, main springs put in for $1.00, and all other work in proportion. Warranted given. Please give me a call, and have your work done by a first-class workman. American watches and clocks sold at factory rates. Jewelry sold for less than Chicago prices. Please remember the place—corner Fourth and Main Streets, opposite the Platte Valley House.

Respectfully, JOSEPH SCHLATER, PLATTSMOUTH, March, 27, 1873. 5243

ROMANWAY. Morgan Waybright's team ran away on Monday and scotching round the corner of Main and Second streets ran into Mr. Royal's team, and they feeling indignant, burst up D. Schenase & Co's holding post, and both teams took a promenade all round the street after the most approved Spanish stampee style. Fortunately no one was hurt, and the critter's feet mortified to think they did so foolish a thing, and acted so much like white folks. Waybright learned a lesson. Schenase got a new horse post and Mr. Royal knows just how fast his team can run.

FRANK CARRUTHS Photograph Gallery on Main St. over Johnson's Drug Store. Photographs retouched cheaper than anywhere else in the State. No. 1 pictures taken every day. Call and examine specimens. 212

CLAIBORNE'S Benefit Postponed. On account of the weather Mr. Claiborne's Benefit will be postponed until Friday evening, April 18th.

READ THIS. Goods not sold at less than cost. No goods given away, but good goods at the lowest prices for cash, at 117.

TAZEN UP. By the undersigned, on the 4th or 5th of April, 1873, one brown pony mare, about six years old, with right hind foot white and white stripe on right side of nose, eyes not good. The owner can have the same by calling at my place and paying charges.

R. E. COUNTRYMAN. Mt. Pleasant, April 13, 1873.

SAD ACCIDENT. As Mr. Sam Barker, with his wife and brother-in-law (the Reverend Mr. Woods) and another gentleman were coming into town this morning, when near Four Mile Creek his buggy broke down precipitating himself and wife who were sitting in front, heading to the ground. But fortunately no bones were broken or joints dislocated, although Mrs. B. was considerably bruised, and the new buggy is a total wreck. A lumber wagon was chartered, and the party arrived in town without further accident. But to a Rev. Mr. W., who was on his way east to join his family and parish, found, to his chagrin, that he had arrived just a little too late for the train.

CENTAUR LINIMENT. There is no pain which the Centaur Liniment will not relieve, no swelling which it will not subside, and no "cutness" which it will not cure. This is strong language, and it is true. Where the parts are not gone, its effects are marvelous. It has produced more cures of rheumatism, neuralgia, lock-jaw, palmy sprains, swellings, ear-ache, neck-bruises, eczema, burns, salt-rheum, &c., upon the human frame, and of strains, sprain, galls, &c., upon animals in one year than have all other pretended remedies since the world began. It is a counter-irritant, an all-healing pain-remover. Cripple throes away their crutches, the lame walk, poisonous bites are rendered harmless and the wounded are healed without a scar. It is a liniment, pain or swelling there to suffer if they will not use Centaur Liniment. More than 1000 certificates of remarkable cures, including frozen limbs, rheumatism, neuralgia, salt-rheum, &c., have been received. We will send a circular containing certificates, the recipe, &c., gratis, to any one requesting it. One bottle of the yellow wrapper Centaur Liniment is worth one hundred dollars for any ailment or ailment of horses and mules, or for seven-walk in sheep—Stock owners—this liniment is worth your attention. No family should be without their Centaur Liniment. J. H. Ross & Co., New York.

Seventy homesteads taken in the Dakota City Land Office, in six weeks.

Obituary. We copy the following from the Fort Scott (Kansas) Monitor. Mr. Bernardin was an old resident of this town we understand:

Eugene Philip Bernardin, whose funeral took place in this city yesterday, was born on the 22d day of August, 1831, at Onans, Department de la Haute Saone, Branche Comte, France. He left France soon after reaching the age of twenty-one years, landing in the United States in 1852. He resided for a number of years at Fort Wayne, Indiana, where, in 1857, he was married to Miss Josephine, who has since come to this city in the fall of 1866, where he has with his family since resided, following the business of a contractor and builder, and has superintended the erection of an almost countless number of business buildings. The Masonic building, on Wall street, was built by him, as also were several other important structures in the city. He went to Sherman, Texas, in December last, for the purpose of engaging in business there. He was attacked with inflammatory rheumatism about four weeks since, and after a severe and painful illness, died on Monday, March 31st, in the forty-second year of his age. Mr. Bernardin was an industrious and useful citizen, genial and kindly in disposition, always having a kind word and a smile for all whom he met. He was a member of the Masonic and Odd Fellow fraternities, and those orders united in paying the last tributes of respect at his grave. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss. His funeral was held on Thursday last, and interment in the cemetery.

A Remarkable Hen. Mr. Jerome has shown us four eggs laid by a hen which he owns. Each alternate day she lays a very large egg, eight inches in circumference and the next day one about as large as a pigeon's egg. This has been going on for some time and Mr. J. says that he can't exactly understand what hen is trying to do. We shall await for their developments of this singular phenomenon, and invite the curious who take an interest in such fowl proceedings to investigate the matter.

O'Neil, you are hereby notified that an attachment was issued by me in favor of the above Plaintiff and against the above named Defendant, for the sum of sixty-three dollars ($63) and trial set for Saturday the 31st day of May, 1873, at 10 o'clock a. m., said day, at which time judgment will be rendered against you if you do not appear and give notice to the contrary.

JAMES O'NEIL, Justice of the Peace. Plattsmouth, April 12th, 1873.

A deadly blow has been struck at a numerous, if not great name. A member of the Ohio Legislature on a short cut to fame presented a resolution the other day declaring it illegal to name any more babies "John Smith," and it was so far considered that it was referred to a committee, of which John Smith is chairman.

THE NEW CABINET. With the exception of the successor of Boutwell, the old Cabinet has been re-appointed, composed as follows: The Cabinet made up: Secretary of State, Hamilton Fish, New York; Secretary of Treasury, Wm A. Richardson, Massachusetts; Secretary of War, W. W. Belknap, Iowa; Secretary of Navy, George M. Robeson, of New Jersey; Secretary of the Interior, Columbus Delano, of Ohio; Attorney General, George H. Williams, of Oregon; Postmaster General, John A. J. Creswell, of Maryland.
