This work is, in short, the great biographicohistorical work of the times. It is the great literary success of the times. Every intelligent man and woman will have it. Orders are already coming in in such a way as to show they will soon begin to pour.

Mechanically it is the handsomest book published, being profusely and ELEGANTLY ILLUSTRATED with about 40 engravings, including portraits, also a steel engraving of Mr. Greeley, which is the most pleasing and natural of any yet published—making a volume of over 600 royal octavo pages.
