CANDIDATES ANNOUNCEMENT.

MR. EDITOR: Please announce my name as a candidate for COUNTY TREASURER, at the election this fall subject to the decision of the Republican Party Convention.

L. D. BENNETT.

Owing to the hot weather and the fact that all our boys in the office were crazy to go to the fair this week, we shall have to give our readers but a half sheet this time.

GIVE US YOUR PATRONAGE.

Readers, friends, business men, are you aware that we must live, and that you are not doing justice to your newspaper in Plattsmouth.

What a picture, to show to the world that Plattsmouth, with her 3000 people, does not give as good a support to a newspaper as some little towns away out on the frontier with three or four hundred people, and yet such is the fact.

The Iowa Democrats have pretty nearly unanimously concluded that their party sleeps the sleep that knows no waking, and therefore will not put a ticket in the field this year.

The opposition are not hilarious in the East this year. The Philadelphia Press testifies as to the Keystone State.

At least two things are beyond dispute in Pennsylvania—the Liberal party has been washed out, and the Democrats are nearly played out.

The Dubuque (Iowa) Times seems to think that the sickly phœnix which arose from the Democratic ashes at Des Moines ought to be christened immediately, so that the tombstone which will be placed over its remains in a few months may not be blank.

The convention at Des Moines, on Wednesday, left one important part of its work unfinished. It left its party without a name. It had not the will to decide under what cognomen it should be known, and giving itself no designation, leaves us no alternative but to speak of it as the nameless party.

Something New! GRAIN—GRAIN—New Company—co-operative grain buying—big business—everything goes, &c.

A new company has been formed in Plattsmouth, for the purpose of buying and dealing in grain and other produce. They propose to erect a warehouse on the siding, south of Crotter & White's present building, and to transact business on a large and wholesale basis, paying fair rates for all grain, and doing business on the square, generally.

The Officers of the Company are: E. G. Dovey, President; E. T. Duke, Treasurer; D. Schmasse, F. R. Guthman, and E. T. Duke.

Their ware-house is under way, and the Company expect to be ready for business by the 10th or 15th of the present month.

FARMERS. As you sell your wheat and pocket the stacks of money, please remember the Printer. Just now is our dullest, and hardest time. There is a good deal of money on our subscription book; give us a call when you are flush, and your next harvest will be heavier and better.

Our own County Fair comes off next week and by all appearances we shall have a good display. Remember the reputation of our County is at stake now days, for all them North Platte fellows are making up and holding fairs and raising horses, and Fremont beats us on good horses, and in premium list all around.

Miss Edith Clark, daughter of Elam Clark, at Ft. Calhoun, has written a short and very readable sketch of Nebraska to be presented to the State Board of Agriculture for a prize.

D. H. Wheeler, has almost ten bushels of prize essays on Nebraska on hand. One Chairman, three Russians, four Swedes, one Pole, fifteen Dutchmen, eighteen Paddies, and thirty one and a half Americans, have all tried their hands at describing Nebraska.

Remember our County Fair next week.

Cap. L. D. Bennett, one of our oldest and most reliable citizens, announces himself as a Candidate for County Treasurer this fall. This is after the good old fashioned way, and if the Convention choose to nominate him, or any number of men desire to vote for him, no one can say he is a ring or clique candidate. There he stands before the public and you all judge him, vote for him or not as your judgment dictates.

The members of the Cass County Fair met at the Court House on Saturday the 23d to transact some unfinished business. J. C. Cummins reported that he had torn down the old stall, and should put up others more commodious. One gentleman secured the privilege of exhibiting a well auger more than three feet in diameter in actual operation, promising to sink a well 30 feet deep in 4 or 5 hours. Mr. Russell, promises to exhibit his new and celebrated pump at work in this well.

The committee on procuring a Band to play at the Fair, made their report, but no action was taken on it. We learned that Mr. Dambois was training his celebrated Hamilton horses with a view to showing their speed at the Fair. We also learned that Mr. Jones, was training a number of horses belonging to men in and around Weeping Water Falls, all of which will be brought to the Fair to prove their speed. We saw Mr. Mattison on Tuesday last, and also his black Stallion, blacker than the ravens wing, which Mr. M. promises to bring to the Fair. We saw him leap in the air more like a tiger than a horse. If he cuts such flourishes on high, in the arena at the Fair grounds, as he did on his parade ground at home, it will make those who see it have strange dreams the following night. The Secretary was requested to be at the office of the Probate Judge on the 8th and 9th of September, where all who wished to make entries could do so, and thus save to great a press of business at the Fair grounds.

J. F. DODD, Secretary.

A NEW PARTY

Does not meet with much success. Democratic and Liberal papers both growl at and curse it, as an evidence that the "what is it" name does not take, we extract a few clippings from the Press on both sides. The old Democrats are bound to hang to their name and their issues and the Liberals have neither couch nor limb to roost on.

The St. Louis (Mo.) Republican misses no opportunity to testify to the demise of its party. This is what it has to say of the terrified in Iowa:

The Iowa Democrats have pretty nearly unanimously concluded that their party sleeps the sleep that knows no waking, and therefore will not put a ticket in the field this year.

The opposition are not hilarious in the East this year. The Philadelphia Press testifies as to the Keystone State.

EIGHTY FIVE TIMES. And a good time; one of the most enjoyable of innocent sports, turned up in Plattsmouth on Monday evening last, the occasion being the arrival of the fifty-fifth birthday of Mrs. Chaplain Wright, and the thirty-eight of her married life. It was called a surprise party, and was truly a very surprising party to the kindly and genial Chaplain and his lady.

On some pretense they were sent off visiting that afternoon, and the two daughters of the house, Mrs. Wise and Mrs. French, at once prepared to celebrate their mother's birthday day in the happiest manner possible. A number of pleasant guests were invited in the evening, and the house and grounds were brilliantly illuminated. After all was ready, the marriage feast duly prepared, and the guests assembled, Mrs. Wise went over to the neighbor's where the unsuspecting couple were visiting and told a little exaggeration—not amounting to a white lie even—about some people from a distance coming over to see the Chaplain, and they "had better come home." They came; but as they turned the corner and the bright lights from the grounds and house struck them full in the face, Mrs. Wright exclaimed: "Why father, the house is on fire, hurry home, the old gentleman, wiser in his day, but no nearer the truth, said: "These young folks are up to some mischief, and we must hurry home and see what it is." When they arrived at the house and fifty outstretched hands grasped theirs in welcome, and fifty hearts, loving neighbors' voices bid them good speed, thus far, and many happy days yet in their long career, the scene was almost too much for both. For once the Parson lost his wits and could only say: "You rogues, you rogues, I give it up, you've beat me," while Mrs. Wright declared that happy as they had been in the main, she had no desire to see 55 more years in this hard world of ours.

A beautiful supper and many a good humored jest and reminiscence finished an evening of pleasure, without a shade of alloy.

TO MRS. W. They tell me, and you are fifty-five, why sure, there must be some mistake. Why, for some twenty years or more, you live in this same style, you're right, break the hearts of all the girls about. Because, each year you younger grow, while they, each year, are more "played out."

TO THE CHAPLAIN. My grave and "hand-steady" Chaplain Wright, though your hair is gray, your face is bright. With the love of youth, and the heart of youth, And may life touch an elderly.

Your name, your face, your works we know, And years cannot make you older, you live. For your children around you, and those you love. May you pass in due time, to the world above. And may each earth soul as a slightly.

Good-bye to you both for a true hearted pair, Would we could all live to the same age as fair. Your children around you, and those you love. May you pass in due time, to the world above.

It is estimated that 50,000 people will visit our State Fair this week. They are coming from Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and all are to see our wonderful country.

Wm. Stadelmann, the great Clothing Merchant of Plattsmouth, shipped a case of splendid Apples, of his own raising, to the Boston Exhibition. If this fruit does not convince the Eastern people that Nebraska is a great fruit country, and our citizens industrious and enterprising people, we shall think they are dull of comprehension.

Centaur Liniment. There is no pain which the Centaur Liniment will not relieve, no swelling it will not subside, and no lameness which it will not cure. This is strong language, but it is true. Where the parts are not gone, its effects are marvellous. It has produced more cures of rheumatism, neuralgia, tooth-ache, neuralgia, sprains, swellings, ear-ache, oaken-breasts, scalds, burns, salt-rheum, &c., upon the human frame, and of strains, sprain, galls, &c., upon animals in one year than have been effected by any other remedy since the world began. It is a counter-irritant, an all-healing pain-reliever. Cripples throw away their crutches, the lame walk, poisonous bites are rendered harmless, and the wounded are healed without a scar. It is no humbug. The recipe is selling as no article ever before sold, and it sells because it does just what it pretends to do. Those who now suffer from rheumatism, pain or swelling deserve to suffer if they will not use Centaur Liniment, more than 1000 certificates of remarkable cures, including frozen limbs, chronic rheumatism, cont. running tumors, &c. have been received. We will send a circular containing certificates, the recipe, &c., gratis to any one requesting it. One bottle of the yellow wrapper Centaur Liniment is worth one hundred dollars for powdered or sweetened horses and mules, or for sheep-worm in sheep.—Stock owners of this liniment should have your attention. No family should be without Centaur Liniment. J. B. ROSE & Co., New York. 45-ly
