THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION. By the Gafernor, of the State of Ne braska.

In conformity with a Proclamation by the President of the United States, and in keeping with a thus-honored custom, and as a recognition of dependence upon Him who dispenses bounties and mercies Divine—"He who deals bread to the hungry, and brings the poor that are cast out, to fils house," I recommend that

Thursday, Nocember 27th, next, be observed as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer; that, as far as practicable, the people of this State abstala from their usual business pursuits, and, meeting at the customary places of worship, ch in private, they unitedly foin in grateful and humble thanks and acknowledgments to Almighty God for blessings and protection vouchsafed, and offer supplications for their continuance.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused to be affixed the Seal of State. Done at the City of Liacoln, this First day of November, in the year of our Lord 1873, of the Independence of the United States the 28th, and of the State the 7th.
