ABOUT TOWN. One day last week the HERALD took a walk, and lo! that night, in sleep, began to talk.

"Dick Streight, a Livery Stable Keeps, Where 'horses' lives and cats & sleeps. He combs them down and waxes 'em up

Next above and next to holy land, His office corners on the street, The Doctor's corner—on a seat

Next on the road towards the east We hit a store, none of the least

Two doctors next in order found: One doctor's teeth, the other round: Their office sure's a famous sight

Up stairs Mrs. Whitcomb makes it shine, And cuts out garments most divine.

One door on we faintly knock, It's opened by a furniture man—T. W. Shryock.

A cradle, coffins, bed-room set, Which e'er you ask for, sure he'll get.

The big HOTEL we next must pass, Not much, we're going in for hash.

Buying Your Greenhouse and Bedding Plants AT THE Picnic Gardens.

Next place Bill Hirsch keeps a store, The last man on this block is Billy Yarow.

Two brothers next, of the same name, They both are Herolds, great their fame.

Who lives above we do not know, Except one dog-type man, in this long row.

HOW MAY PINK BECAME THE RICHEST GIRL IN CHESTER. BY RICHARD R. KIMBALL, Author of "St. Roger."

Yes! many a one have I seen die— Many a man, many a woman, and no end of children, boys and girls. It is not often you find a person who isn't afraid.
