

THE HERALD. PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA. THURSDAY, DEC. 18, 1873. J. A. MACMURPHY, EDITOR.

CORRESPONDENCE From all parts of the State and country respectively solicited for the HERALD. Agricultural notes and short articles detailing farmer's experience particularly requested.

Now, as heretofore, we desire to place good sound reading matter in the hands of all as cheaply as possible, and also to increase our subscription list, feeling that we are in king of the HERALD one of the best county papers in the State.

For this purpose and to encourage subscriptions for 1874, we offer the following inducement: Harper's Magazine and Herald one year $4 75 Weekly " " " " 4 75

CROFT'S MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT.—Great success—best troupe west of the Missouri River. The Liberal Republicans have endorsed Williams as Chief Justice—Now he'll go through.

A GREAT BLOW TO SCIENCE. We learn by telegraph that Prof. Agassiz, the Naturalist, died at his residence, Cambridge, Mass., on the evening of the 14th.

Judge Clinton Briggs' argument in the case of the U. P. Railroad vs the County Treasurers, is being quoted largely by our State exchanges. Guess the Judge must be about right.

The newspapers seem to think Senator Tipton, our "Tip," is not satisfied with his position in the Land Mining Committee, &c. He has not written to the HERALD about it yet, and we do not know how he feels.

Hon. Jno. H. Croxton, but a short time ago Democratic candidate for Governor, has come out a square Republican. He was always thought to be good for a Democrat. We'll have all the really good men, by and by.

THAT LOUISVILLE HOAX. Notes that Louisville chaff, after down here Monday, and totally denominated the HERALD, and all about those old breaches, bones, five cent pieces, &c., that he found up there, or that a fellow wrote us that Noyes found it. It's too bad to sell a newspaper man in that way, and hurts his feelings, besides it destroys confidence in the community. The man that will lie to a newspaper man will do anything; and Noyes says so.

Some chap writes us from Louisville in an exuberant mood, and asks us if we don't think such scurrilous stories will hurt us, &c. No, we don't feel hurt—Noyes does, and the man that wrote it ought to feel hurt, and he will feel hurt, if Noyes and the HERALD ever catch him together. As to his real name; he didn't sign his real name—we don't know his real name and don't believe he had a real name; his name is like the supposed dead man—all gaunton.

Seriously, Mr. Noyes desires us to say that he and a friend walking out on Sunday found some old clothes, an old pocket book with a few papers, a nickel, and some other traps and that night the neighbors about there were talking the thing over and wondering whose they were and out of this simple matter grew the whole story. As for the HERALD, all we can say it was sent to us as a fact, in a very nicely written, well spelled and grammatical letter with an apparently genuine name signed to it and we published it as an item of news, of course, and can not see as we were to blame, or that any one is hurt by it except Noyes. It's cost him about two kegs of beer already.

COURT PROCEEDINGS. In the case of Shurz against Carmichael and others, the complaint was that Carmichael, as Justice of the Peace, having fined Shurz under an ordinance of the town of Weeping Water, he issued a mittimus and sent the defendant to jail until the fine and costs were paid. The ordinance only provided for fine, and hence the Court instructed the jury that there was no law and no judgment authorizing the mittimus; and that therefore all who participated were liable as trespassers. The jury returned a verdict for $150. The Court further held that the ordinance was void because it prohibited the sale of the liquor in place of regulating its sale; that, in other words, the town took the place of the County Commissioners and should have provided for a license, and then for violations prosecutions should be under the law of the State. Wheeler & Stinecomb and Aylesworth for the plaintiff, and Marquet & Smith and Chapman, for the defendant.

In the case of French against Allison the verdict was $400. In this case Esq. Jenks, one of the defendants, issued an attachment for $250 when his jurisdiction is only $100. Two horses and a wagon were taken on the writ, and the Court instructed the jury that the writ was illegal and void, and though the plaintiff had previously got back his horses, yet in this case the jury had the right to return such damages, if they were satisfied that the property was taken unlawfully, as they might think was right. Marquet & Smith and Wheeler & Stinecomb for the Plaintiff, and Chapman & Maxwell for the defendants.

Here is what the Inter-Ocean says of Senator Tipton—That colossal mind, once determined on its course, is impossible of restraint, and the thunderous tones of the parson are once more to be heard in the Senate Chamber, denouncing the Republican party and, calling on the page boys for snuff. We had hoped for better things. We had fondly dreamed that the pillars of the Republic were to be strengthened and supported by the great Nebraska, but he says he won't play Samson any more. His blood is up, and the caged lion is loose. When Tipton speaks let the universal earth keep silence!

THE NEW SHERIFF. M. B. Cutler commences his labors this week. Mr. Cutler is well qualified for the office, and we make no doubt but that he will fill the bill as well as any new man in Cass county.

J. W. JOHNSON. The retiring officer, who filled this position for three successive terms, and a better Sheriff never trod in sole leather. So well satisfied were the people of Cass, with his management of the office that he could have been re-elected the fourth time, but for his own positive assertion that he could not serve again.

TRUNK RAILROAD. Bonds for a trunk railroad were voted in Otoe county last week. Nebraska City gave 390 majority for the bonds. This road which they call the Trunk, is from Nebraska City southward, being in fact a continuation of the Midland Pacific road.

PERSONAL. W. W. Wilson, an old friend and an old Nebraskan, has gone to Chicago to reside. Real estate business, 126, Dearborn street. D. T. Sherman, once a "comp" on this paper, and now editor of the Aurora Republican, was in town last week, looking first and frisky, only cold. Mr. Edward Post, of Eagle, and Mr. T. N. Robbitt, of the same place, called on the HERALD Tuesday, and we had a very pleasant and useful chat. H. S. Calkins made the HERALD glad two dollars worth last week. Col. E. V. McMaken, of Toledo, Ohio, his brother Andy McMaken, and Geo. W. Fairfield, all called on the Editor "two o'clock," Saturday, and like to overwhelm a little man.

Samuel Rector, of Weeping Water, one of the HERALD's very best friends, was in to see us during Court week, and we forgot to notice the fact until now. James Waters, brother to W. H. H. Waters, the Chronicle man, dropped in on the HERALD not long since. Brother Litch, of Mt. Pleasant, P. M., &c., came in for a quarter of an hour's chat the other day. Pleasant quarter of an hour, too. Thomas Jefferson Todd, one of the pioneers of Nebraska, one of the pioneers of Republicanism, and one of the staunchest old gentlemen in this part of the country, anyway, has been to see the HERALD once more, and left us some dollars better off. Azo Smith has come again and left us a big sack of sweet potatoes, and he has a lot more at home to sell to every one that wants them. P. G. Dobson, of Ulysses, an old resident of Cass county, and father-in-law of J. Dan Lauer, called on the HERALD lately.

STATUTE ITEMS. Garters with monogram clasps are worn by pretty girls. They are rather a novelty yet, but we hope to see more of them.—Plattsmouth Herald. Yes we know pretty girls are a novelty, in Plattsmouth; and if you want to see more of them come down to Nebraska City.—Omaha. Went there once—made us sick—had to lay up at a hotel for a week—did not see a pretty girl all the time we were there.

Our Grange poetry is coming into vogue. "Wax-um" is getting into the papers. Seth E. Wilson, of Ashland, one of the oldest settlers in Saunders county, died very suddenly on the 24, inst. D. H. Wheeler, has been buying a $3,000 lot in Lincoln. Now, Dan, none of that! We're watching you.

NOTICE TO GRANGES. EDITOR HERALD:—The County Central Association of Granges will convene at Eight Mile Grove, on Tuesday the 6th day of January, 1874, at 2 P. M. All members of the Association are expected to be represented. New Granges can become members by sending their Master and two delegates to the Association, and the payment of one dollar to the Secretary of the Association. C. H. KING, Pres't. D. S. DEAPER, Sec'y of County Central Association. 3743 Eight Mile Grove, Dec. 2, 1873.

The Prairie Farmer. We are in receipt of the Prospect for 1874 of that leading and vigorous Farm and Fireside Weekly, The Prairie Farmer, which is without exception, the staunchest and ablest advocate of the present Farmers' Movement, and should be in the hands of every member of a Grange or Club in the whole country, for it is fighting a noble battle in their behalf.

The Nebraska Herald and The Farmer. For the convenience of such of our patrons as may desire to subscribe for The Prairie Farmer in connection with our Journal, we will supply the two papers the regular price of the former being $2.00, and of the latter $2.00, ordered together, for only $3.00.

Centaur Liniment. There is no pain which the Centaur Liniment will not relieve, no swelling it will not subside, no sores which it will not cure. This is strong language, but it is true. Where the parts are not gone its effects are marvellous in curing rheumatism, neuralgia, lock-jaw, palsy, sprains, swellings, ear-ache, caked breasts, scalds, burns, salt-rheum, &c., upon the human frame, and of strains, sprain, galls, &c., upon animals in one year than have at other pretended remedies since the world began. It is a counter-irritant, an all-healing pain-reliever. Cripples throw away their crutches, the lame walk, poisonous bites are rendered harmless, and wounds need not be healed without a scar. It is no laughing matter. The recipe is selling as an article ever before sold, and it sells because it does just what it pretends to do. Those who do not believe that will enable you to swell, deserve to suffer if they will not use Centaur Liniment. More than 100 certificates of remarkable cures, including frozen limbs, chronic rheumatism, gout, running tumors, &c., have been received. We will send a circular containing certificates, the recipe, &c., gratis to any one requesting it. One bottle of the yellow wrapper Centaur Liniment is worth one hundred dollars for foundered or swelled horses and mules, or for scurf-worm in sheep.—Stock-owners—this liniment is worth your attention. No family should be without Centaur Liniment. J. B. ROSE & CO., NEW YORK. 46-47

CASTOR OIL is more than a substitute for Castor Oil. It is the only safe article in existence which is certain to assimilate the food, regulate the bowels, cure wind colic and produce natural sleep. It contains neither minerals, morphia or alcohol, and is pleasant to take. Children need not cry and mothers may rest.
