B. S. RAMSEY,

Ch'u Editorial Committee. WOMEN FOR COUNTY SUPERIN-TENDENT.

Four counties in Iowa have elected women for County School Superintendents.- Exchange. The election of women to this responsible office is in reality a "new departure," and we see no good reason why this "new departure" should not become an established custom in the American States. Women have been employed as teachers in our schools, especially in our public schools, since our earliest recollection, and that they have proved efficient teachers in a management of the schools of the schools of the management of the schools of the school jority of cases no one can dispute. If for a year.

We have no traveling agents. woman has proved herself an efficient teacher, in what respect can she be disqualified from filling the office of County Superintendent? Even in the capacity of teacher woman has not enjoyed equal advantages with the "lords of creation." Her compensation has been, and is now, less than that rebeived by males, even though her qualifications be the same. While in most cases women have proved successful teachers, yet a false public sentiment has succeeded in keeping them out of, even the office of Superintendent. We are not one to invite harmful innovations upon long established customs, yet the injustice of a false public sentiment, disqualifying women for the discharge of the duties of the office of Superintendent, we most sincerely re-

We are glad to observe Iowa throwing off this inexcusable prejudice, and thus elevating woman to a larger sphere of usefulness. Surely there is justice in this move, and we trust that other localities may not be long behind those four counties of Iowa in placing woman on an equality with man, relative to the office of Superintendent of schools. That they will make good "Unquestionably the best sustained Superintendents, to a great extent remains to be seen; but we have every reason to believe that as women make the best of teachers they can not reasonably fail in performing the duties pertaining to the office of Superintendent. At least let us give them the op-

THE SUN.

WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND DAILY.

THE WEEELY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommendation: but the reasons which have already given it fif y thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousands more, are briefly as give it many thousands more, are briefly as follows:

It is a first-rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always presented in a clear, intelligible, and interesting manner.

It is a first-rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste.

It is a first-rate story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages.

It is a first-rate agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on agricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belonging to no party and wearing no collar. It fights for principle and the election of the best men to office. It especially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country, and threaten to undermine republican institutions altogether It has no fear of knaves, and asks no favors from their supporters.

Harper's Bazar.

Notices of the Press. The Bazar is edited with a contribution of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveler. The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by its droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion plates in endless variety, to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's ciothes, to paterfamilias by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and laxurious dressing gowns. But the reading matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great expellence. The paner has uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the fireside enjoyment it affords.—N. ## Harper's Magazine.

The ever increasing circulation of this excel-ent monthly proves its continued adaptation to opular desires and needs. Indeed, when we hink into how many homes it penetrates every north, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prefudices or depraved tastes.—

Harper's Weekly. SPLENDIDLY ILLUSTRATED.

Notices of the Press. The Weekly is the ablest and most powerfully illustoated periodical published in this country. Its editorials are scholarly and convincing, and carry much weight. Its illustrations of current events are full and fresh, and are prepared by our best designers. With a circulation of 150,000, the Weekly is read by at least half a million persons, and its influence as an organ of opinion is simply tremendous. The Weekly maintains a positive position, and expresses decided views on political and social problems.—Louisville Courier-Journal.
