

and captured 1,424 horses and mules. The PRESCRIPTIONS carefu The reunion of the Army of the Tennessee was odies of four Indians were brought in. One 35-1y all hours, day and night. white soldier was slightly wounded A dis-J. W. SHANNON'S oatch from Darlington, Indian Territory, Oct. ing year. says twenty-four lodges of the Kiowas, inder Satanta, had surrendered to Gen. Neill. satanta and Big Tree would be held in close Feed, Sale and Livery onfinement as hostages until further orders .. President Grant, accompanied by ex-Secretary Borie, Gov. Harney and others, was STABLE. recently on a visit to the Indian Territory, where they met with a warm and hearty Main Street, Plattsmouth, Neb. welcome at the hands of the Cherokee and other Indian tribes.... New Orleans dispatches of the 12th report that a fight had I am prepared to accommodate the public with HORSES, Carriages, Buggies, Wagons, A No. 1 Hearse. Butler and Mahony Republican factions. On Short Notice and Reasonable Terms, ntimidation existed at Breux Bridge, St. A HACK Will Run to the Steamboat Landocality ing, Depot, and all parts of WEDNESDAY, Oct. 14 .- A special from the City, when Desired. render of the entire Carlist army in the near future. Two battalions had already surren-Of Plattsmouth, Nebraska, may do so.... The Turkish town of Akhiolyi, SECCESSOR TO containing 500 inhabitants, has been Tootle, Hanna & Clark. entirely destroyed by fire Henry Pierce in the Fourth and George F. Hoar in the Ninth Massachusetts Districts John Fitzgerald. E. G. Dovey.....President. have been renominated for Congress ... JOHN R. CLARK. T. W. EVANS.... .Cashier The convention of Southern Republicans met Assistant Cashier at Chattanooga on the 13th. About 200 dele-This Bank is now open for business at their new room, corner Main and Sixth streets, and are pre-pared to transact a general gates were present. A letter was read from the Republican Congressional Committee. Lewis E. Parsons, of Alabama, was chosen permanent President. A committee, con-BANKING BUSINESS. isting of one from each State, was ap-Stocks, Bonds, Gold, Government and Local Securities BOUGHT AND SOLD. outhern States. Gov. Brooks, of Arkansas, Deposits Received and Interest Aladdressed the convention in the evening. THURSDAY, Oct. 15 .- Atty.-Gen. Willlowed on Time Certificates. ams has replied to Gov. Brown, of Tennessee, DRAFTS DRAWN, on the subject matter of his protest against Available in any part of the United States and i further arrests by United States Marshals unal! the "rincipal Towns and Cities of Europe, der the Enforcement act and his request that ic persons already arrested be turned over ACENTS FOR THE o the State courts for trial. He claims that the President is as much bound to CELEBRATED nforce the act in question as any INMAN LINE and ALLAN LINE other law of the United States, and delines to accede to Gov. Brown's request In the Chattanooga Convention, on the 14th, New Western, 61@62%c. OF STEAMERS. the Committee on Outrages was enlarged and Persons wishing to bring out their friends from report to Congress every three months. The resolutions adopted declare that the Repub-PURCHASE TICKETS FROM US. lican citizens of the reconstructed Southern Through to Plattsmouth. States recognize the equality of all men before the law; demand equal rights for all citi-Excelsior Barber Shop. zens, secured by appropriate State and Fedral legislation; indorse the Executive in sustaining law and order in all parts of J. C. BOONE,

ian1-tf

First

Europe can

Main Street, opposite Brooks House.

HAIR-CUTTING,

appointed to examine whether the deficiencies in the construction of the Union Pacific occurred the day before at the old Vacherie Railway have been supplied, and the road oad store, in St. James' Parish, between the completed as required by law, report that they Managing Director, and very soon that gentle-Boyce and Hogan (Republican) factions. One have found the road so completed, and have, party had assembled to ratify a compromise therefore, decided that the road, as built, is with the Conservatives, when the latter inter-fered, and the result was a free fight, in which several persons were wounded but none killed. A fight was also said to have of the department furnished to them. This occurred at Point-a-la-Hache, between the report will require the approval of the President and the formal acceptance of the One man was severely wounded. Gov. Kel-logg had received dispatches asserting that intimidation existed at Brenx Bridge StA late Indianapolis (Ind.) dispatch Martin's Parish, and that Republicans dare says the best estimates place the political had been obtained from the Union Banking not come forward to register. Another dis- complexion of the State Legislature as fol- Company the $10,000 with which the com patch is published, signed Martin Voorhies, lows: Senate-Republicans, 24; Democrats, denying that any intimidation existed in that 23; Independents, 3. House-Republicans, 37; Democrats, 54; Independents, 9. These figures may be slightly altered by the official Santander in the London Pall Mall Gazette of returns. The Democrats claim fifty-eight the 13th says there are indications of the sur- members of the lower house, but this includes some Independents who they dered at Algorta, and the Carlist provincial patch received at the Attorney-Generauthorities at Durango have given public no- al's office in Washington on the 15th from the tice that those wishing to lay down their arms United States Marshal at Montgomery, Ala., states that forty-two more arrests of persons guilty of outrages upon Republicans and of rested and held in $20,000 bail. stopping the United States mails had been made A party of seven men, en route for the party was killed, one fatally and two slightly Indians are understood to express a determina tion to prevent white men entering the hills ointed to prepare an address upon the at all hazards.... President Grant, Mrs. Grant, ondition of affairs in the Southern States, and ex-Secretary Borie and daughter, and other a like committee to gather and collect facts distinguished persons from Washington arand statistics in regard to the condition of the rived in Chicago on the evening of the 16th. THE MARKETS. NEW YORK. OCTOBER 16, 1874. Corron .- Middling upland, 15%@15%c. LIVE STOCK.-Beef Cattle-$10.75@13.00. Hogs Dressed, $8.25@8.50; Live, $5.75@6.50. Sheep-Live, $4.50@6.25. BREADSTUFFS .- Flour-Good to choice, $5.30@ 5.90; white wheat extra, $5.90@6.33. Wheat-No. 2 Chicago, $1.06@1.08%; Iowa spring, $1.07@1.10; fine-edged tools. No. 2 Milwankee spring, $1.0921.11. Rye-West ern and State, 96c@$1.02. Barley-$1.20@1.30. Corn-Mixed Western afloat, 92%@931ac. Oats PROVISIONS .- Pork-New Mess, $21.25@21.5 continued indefinitely, with instructions to Lard-13%@14%c. Cheese-12%@15%c. Wool.-Common to extra, 45@66c. CHICAGO. LIVE STOCK .- Beeves -Choice, $5.50@6.10 good, $4.25@5.25; medium, $3.75@4.25; butch ers' stock, $2.50@3.50; stock cattle, $2.25@ 3.50. Hogs-Live, $6.15@6.75. Sheep-Good to choice, $3.75@4.25. PROVISIONS .- Butter-Choice, 31@38c. Eggs-

Fresh, 20@22c. Cheese-New York factory 14%@15%c; Western, 13@14%c. Pork-New the Union and putting down outrages, Mess, $19.50@19.75. Lard-14@14%c. and especially indorse his action in Louis-BREADSTUFFS .- Flour-White winter ana: indorse the Administration for its pros-$5.40@7.25; spring extra, $4.75@5.50. Wheat ecution of the perpetrators of such outrages -Spring, No. 2, 87@87%c. Corn-No. 2, 74 n the Federal courts; deprecate drawing race @75c. Oats-No. 2, 47@4714c. Barley-No. 2, and color lines; recommend the appointment $1.04@1.06. Rye-No. 2, 82@83c.

Shaving and Shampooing. of none but honest and capable men to Fed. Woor .- Tub-washed, 45@57c.; fleece, washed, eral offices and the removal of all others. 40050c . fleece unwashed. 27035c ion of the Central Insurance Compan held at Springfield on the 14th. Gen. W. T. had been originally issued for one share each. It became evident at once that something Sherman was elected President for the ensuwas wrong, and upon subjecting the docu-ients to the microscope lt was discovered SATURDAY, Oct. 17 .- A Santander tele- that the original writing in the certificates ribly exacting things, and I shall have to had been erased by the use of chemicals and gram says dispatches have been received from that 200 and 300 had been substituted for the original amount. It immediately became manifest that all the certificates had been Madrid in relation to negotiations for the sur render of several Carlist battalions. Spain thus altered. The officer also found that the has paid to England $40,000 on account of the Virginius butchery, Great Britain having made stock of the Delaware & Lackawanna Railroad, which appeared in the name of W. D. this payment a condition precedent to the Halfman, had been issued not to him but to recognition of Spain The commissioners another party, and representing but on share each, though examination showed their value to be increased five hundred fold. Subsequent investigation showed that the forgery vas undoubtedly perpetrated by Elbert, the man turned up missing. Detective agents were placed upon his track, and by watching the movements of his relatives he was finally made known where he had been hiding since the exposure, and confessed that the insurance company and all its pretended stock was a fraud; that the company had been pany was floated, the clerks paid and the of fices furnished. Elbert also stated that the President and Directors of the company were fully cognizant of and were accomplices in the transaction that the man who had done the erasing and forging was a party whom he had met in Jersey City and been introduced to by Mr. Louis French, of the notorious fraudulent believe will act with them A dis- Palisade Insurance Company, of Jersey City that he only knew this man by the name of Charles Ripley, and was in the habit of ad-dressing him to the care of a saloon in Bridge street, near Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn. The officers of the company were thereupon ar

After shadowing the Bridge street saloon for several days, the detectives found Ripley quietly reading his newspaper and drinking Black Hills, were attacked by Indians on the his wine, and placed him under arrest. He 11th at the mouth of the Little Platte, and a desperate fight ensued, in which one of the none other than "Jack Canter," a notorious forger and counterfeiter, who has only been out of Sing Sing prison two years, and his wounded. Ten Indians were killed or wounded. The whites immediately started which he served. He was the party who, in back and reached Yankton on the 15th. The Warden Nelson's time, kept the books of the prison, and, by the use of chemicals, altered the sentences of notorious criminals who were sentenced for long terms, and letting out five or seven years many who had a term of fifteen or twenty years to serve. The detectives had discovered his residence to be in Washington street, but one block from the station. On searching his room there the officers discovered a lot of counter dence, R. L., and date of July 20. On the other side of the envelope was there. Even the experienced officers, who are not easily astonished at ingenuity of was a pretty monogram of three letters, F. H. W., or W. H. F., or H. W. F., or some combination, Tom couldn't decide which. So he opened the letter and read

Do write. No date and no signature. "Just like a man in love!" said Tom. "The only thing settled is that the first letter of know the record of both parties. The that monogram is an F, a blue F. That one has been full of honor, the other as doesn't amount to anything. I don't full of dishonor. The Republican party know the second letter-I mean which it has been true to its friends, magnani- is." Somehow he was led to put the let mous to its enemies, and just to the na- ter one side instead of throwing it in the tion. It has kept its pledges and re- waste receptacle. He thought he'd like deemed its promises, and stands to day a to look at that monogram once more, it

Five, six, seven, eight, nine more let forfeited the generous confidence which ters read, and nothing in the shape of brought it into power. We can safely business yet. Number ten! Number challenge the world's history for a party ten was in a small, delicate hand, di-thought he (the clerk) would, and he'd There! I've got so far without using a never heard of Frank Wendell or any name, and I hoped I'd get clear through other Wendell, except an old fellow who the story without committing myself: sometimes came round to buy bottles at but it's no use. These pronouns are terthe hotel. That wasn't the one the gentleman meant, was it? get a name for the "he" before the last ing. So he went to bed. Tom's a name, and there are lots of Toms Next morning he had another look at the letters. The delicately written one gave him no clue for the present. Ceranother start with Tom and the Observer. tainly the other didn't. Tom put them both on the mantel-piece and turned to brush his hair at the mirror (a two-byexplanation of the "it") was because Tom one-and-a-half bit of looking-glass). While Tom's auburn locks were being A sad thing to have a tender heart when fixed" a nice little gust of wind "unfixed" them; but at last his hair was dressed. Tom turned to take the letters with letters. He would choke fifty times andeach day while reading some earnest, tumbled into the pitcher of water!' There was such a receptacle on the table under the mantel-piece. "Now I must in the lines, had miscarried, nor would dry them, I suppose. Just my cursed luck!" He took them on to dry land, the shipwrecked letters, and patted them tears and strong in love-which would gently with a towel. The monogram letter had been cut open at one end, but the water had loosened the flap and it easily turned back.

Tom thought not. Tom was manifestly brought up stand-

"Mean 'stickum' they put on these en-velopes," said Tom; and then he paused pain, were by the thousand a year; but to read the maker's name. On the edge hnes. of the envelope, in raised letters, was the following: "W. A. Johnson, 51 Blank street." " By the blood of all the How. ards!" cried Tom, "I've got it. If my one more chance of reaching their destifriend, my dear friend, new-found, Johnnation. If Tom's successes had been son doesn't know for whom he made that each a block of granite the Washington monogram, he'd better sell out and go Monument would have been completed into the fish trade. Peradventure I call at 51 Blank street to day.'

Tom did call. Mr. Johnson was in?

He wasn't often idle; but this morning "Yes," said a nice girl who waited on Tom, and he'd be down in a moment. Johnson came, and Tom asked him a juestion or two. Johnson said, in subgo in vacation? There was no mother, stance: or brother, or sister waiting for him to

"I made that monogram for Mr. Wendell some time since, and he was then that "when she saw the shawls of those living with an uncle-I think he told me Smiths and then thought of the things at" (consulting an old order-book) " No. her own girls had to wear, if it wasn't 17 So-and-So street. At any rate there's for the consolation of religion she did suspension of the rules and the passage where the paper was sent.

Tom immediately ordered a monogram for himself out of pure gratitude. He then called at No. 17. Mr. Wendell had | Ter., for the purpose of giving an exhibeen staying there, but had left three days before for Boston. Servant didn't gers who came west in the car with him know whereabouts in Boston. Would inquire of missus. Coming back, servant his cars around to listen to a conversasaid missus thought at the Tremont tion behind him is wonderful. It is sup-House, if he hadn't gone to New York. "On the way to Fitchburg," sententiously said Tom, and took the next train for Boston over the burned district and came back. Mr. Wendell had returned and was in his would go mad in a little while in a violet this important question? It refused to room. Tom went to No. 85 and knocked. papered or painted room. Black rooms, suspend the rules, a two-thirds vote being Come in!" and in he went, to find a or rooms heavily draped in mourning, necessary for that purpose. Of the sev young fellow with full beard, tall and produce gloom and foreboding. Never enty-five votes in favor of the measure uite stout.

Mr. Wendell was stopping there, said the clerk of the Tremont House. "Here! show the gentleman to No. 85." No one in.

'So much for my fancy," said Tom to nature ever intended." himself. "She'll be fat and a brunette." 'This is Mr. Wendell?" queried Tom.

"Yes, sir," was the reply. "Excuse my continuing my toilet," said Wendell, uttoning his shirt collar.

"Yes, sir; Frank Wendell."

Then Tom went to the very bottom of "I come from a friend of yours-Miss are as necessary to success in agriculture as in any other vocation in life. An exchange says that at the inundaion at Hong Kong the "sea slew 1,000 persons." Who shall say, after this, that a man can't get slewed on salt water?-Troy Press.

been obliged to fly by land. The ex-To success in managing mules we Marshal was also indiscreet enough to must thoroughly understand the nature hand to the reporter some letters written of the one particular mule in hand. There to him after his escape and congratulat are as many different dispositions among ing him; also one to Mme. Bazaine from mules as among men.

Gen. de Castagny, who said, among other In Troy they throw red-hot pennies to touching things: "He attempted the organ-grinders. This action kills two impossible, and with the aid of God, who birds with one cent. It records a charknew he was innocent, he succeeded." itable action in the eyes of the world, and | M. Louis Veuillot also appears to have disables the hand-organ man. written to Bazaine. It is rather amusing THE difference between noted men to find how Mme. Bazaine twice outwitted and noted women is said to be that the M. Marchi, the civil Governor. She de-"Confound it, if they haven't men always like to see themselves in sired to know the depth of water at the print and that the women prefer to see foot of the terrace, and so she dropped a ring into the sea; the gallant M. Marchi themselves in silks and velvets. and her nephew descended to look for it, Ir must indeed be dry in Kansas, if it be true that "the suffering catfish lies and the latter was able to see that a boat stranded on the blistering bottom of his late happyhome, waving his tail in the length of rope would be necessary for crisp breezes as a signal of distress." FLOWERS, like rare gems, should have water her garden, and M. Marchi aided heir settings of an inconspicuous order, the girl to let down her watering-pot into and therefore there is nothing which can the sea by means of some string. In this equal the green grass or which can make such a perfect contrast to their brilliant way Mme. Bazaine ascertained the height of the terrace,—Pall Mall Gazette.

THE city of New York has the only school in the United States for the practical teaching of veterinary science, though it is true there are chairs in some knowledge. claims $1,000 damages.

unprofitable visit to a church, declared lief. In January, 1873, Hon. John R not know what she should do."

A MAN who can move his ears like a mule has arrived at Laramie, Wyoming bition. His name is Follett, and passensay the manner in which he will twist posed that his ears are provided with an extra pair of muscles, by means of which he is enabled to turn them in any direction.- Virginia City Enterprise.

THE Herald of Health is of the opinion that the simple color of one's surroundings has a marked influence on his charges, since its reduction of rates, health. It says: "Yellow on the walls $4.60. This shows the propriety of some Tom waited around an hour, walked of our rooms has a very depressing effect national legislation on the subject. on the mind. Violet is worse. A man wear mourning long, unless you wish to sixty-nine were Republicans, and only become sad and sorrowful beyond what six were Democrats, Liberals and Re formers. Of ninety-eight who opposed the measure, eighty-two were Democrats, Liberals and Reformers. Almost a solid vote of the Democrats opposed this

Another case in point is the effort of romantic episodes of the place has been turned to very pretty account by Long. Mr. McCrary, a Republican from Iowa, fellow in the last series of 'The Tales of | to procure the passage of a bill in Janua Wayside Inn'-the marriage of Gov. ary, 1874, to "regulate commerce by rail Benning Wentworth with Martha Hil- roads among the several States." Dennett (how Wendell blushed and then | ton, a sort of second edition of King | bill was carefully drawn, and embodied turned pale!); she's also a particular Cophetua and the Beggar Maid. Martha principles similar to those of the Potter friend of mine (though she don't know Hilton was a poor girl, whose bare feet Railway law in this State. This bill it," said Tom, sotto roce), " and she would and ankles and scant drapery when she passed the House by a vote of 121 to 115. This letter bore date of July 21, and like very much, if you can spare the was a child, and even after she was in Siz Democrats, Liberals and Reformers, feiting tools and implements, the most com-plete that could be imagined. Everything ossible for his ingenious and dangerous trade nickel-plated press, complete, with lever and stand, rollers, dies, inks, plates, lithograph stones, and an entire set of the most delicate

Shall we desert a true friend for a false one? is the political question to be answered at the November election. We true friend of the people, trusted because | was such a pretty one. tried, and honored because it has never that has equaled it in genuine devotion to rected as follows: liberty, humanity and civilization. It has its faults, but they are few and far between, while its influence for good is more powerful than ever. To sustain this sort, were thoroughly amazed at the finished completeness of the set of implements displayed before them. There was a fine

The Question.

CLARA-My heart is nigh breaking. May I not come back? I was wholly wrong; but my love for you made me unreasonably exacting and unwilling to yield. Forgive me, for Heaven's sake, and say I may come to you. I will wait one week more in Providence to hear from you. Do write dash or I shall be unable to proceed any in Washington and several Toms in the Dead-letter Office. Now, then, we'll take 1 say that the Observer would have remarked that it (go back a few lines for the had a very tender heart in his possession.

you're dealing with persons, they say. Tom thought it was sadder when dealing heart-felt epistle which, despite the love and fidelity a mother's hand had buried ever reach a dear son's eyes. Or perhaps it was a father's strong call-strong in never bring back to the home-fold a straying daughter. The letters Tom read with a heartache, which spread like neuralgia, and somehow filled his whole body with an untold his interest in the sad cases was never flagging, and he always made a good push to have the letters which came from loving hands for loved ones take

Tom was to have two weeks' vacation

-two weeks, commencing in two days.

he held one of a batch of letters-epistolary corpses-and sat thinking of any thing but his work. Where should he come home. There were no kisses of welcome waiting for him among green hills or by pleasant, shining waters.

Where should he go? Heigho! He couldn't make up his mind. With a shake, like a cat awaking, he came back to his work and gazed on the one letter from many in a pile before him he had semi-unconsciously taken up. The di-rection of the letter was as follows:

Miss Clara F. Dennett,

The postmark bore the name of Provi-

St. Albans

Vermon

over eleven months ago.

further. Well, Tom will do, won't it

FRANK.

Mr. Frank H. Wendell.

'Mr. Frank Wendell?" asked Tom, make certain.

the matter, and said:

A Romance of Portsmouth.

T. B. ALDRICH, writing of the Stavers measure, while the Republicans were House, Portsmouth, says: "One of the | nearly solid in its favor.

What was the action in the House on or more States; therefore, State laws cannot give full protection. Take, for example, the Chicago & Northwestern Company, between Madison and Chicago.

It runs through two States. The dis tance is, say, 135 miles. The terms of the Potter law would allow $4.05 for passage. As that law cannot affect but a portion of the distance, the company of Commissioners to collect information in relation to railroads forming lines between different States. Here was an effort in a direction that would do an ef fective service. Most of our large corporations run lines of railway through two lican member of the House, offered, m Congress, a resolution asking for the of a bill providing for the appointmen

A PROVIDENCE lady, returning from an measures that will afford substantial re-Hawley, of Connecticut, a leading Repub-

If the Democratic-Reform papers were that party for all the sympathy and all of our agricultural colleges for theory reliable evidence, the people would sup-

Protecting the Farmer.

the descent, Mme. Bazaine got one of her children to cry for water in order to the Philistines, and then, as far as th

Colonel is concerned, one regrets to find that he had not the boldness to speak the truth. The two young English ladics called "Robe bleue" and "Robe rose" had nothing to do with the escape, but might have been of service had the ex-Marshal retical instruction in this branch of pose that the farmers were indebted to A RESIDENT of Erie, Pa, refused to the efforts to regulate commerce for the . marry his affianced, who had come over protection of the farmers. But these from Germany for the purpose, because claims are not well founded-are not she had not brought a feather bed with truthful. In all matters looking to an her. She has now brought suit for improvement in respect to transportabreach of promise against him and tion the Republican party has taken the lead, and to it the people must look for

ESPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO	urge appropriations of public lands to pur-	LUMBERFirst Clear, $50.00@53.00; Second	such a party should be the pride of	postmark Fitchburg, Mass.	time, to have you call on her. She's liv-	the bloom of her teens, used to scandal- only	, voted for it, and secenty-one voted
OTHER CLARKE DESIGNATION	urge appropriations of public minds to pur-	Clear, $47.00@49.50; Common Boards, $10.50@	American citizens, to allow its defeat	Tom had quite forgotten for the mo-	ing in Fitchhurg and_"	ize good Dame Stavers, the innkeeper's again	inst it. Of the one hundred and twee-
CUTTING CHILDREN'S H			through inactivity or icaloust would be	the second s	"For God's sake when does the next	wife. Standing one afternoon in the tw-o	one roles in favor of the bill, one hun-
A	and a state in the state inc.	AD DOUGH DE . Lath CO DOUGH DE	a crime against the loval sentiment of	a sudich ne cricu out to minisch. If die	train start " and Wondall was rushing	doorway of the Earl of Halifay Dame dred	d and fifteen were given by Republican
Call and See Boone, Gents	ciated Press agents in the South for the al-	CONSIGNATION A MOT		lo! St. Albans is full of business to-day!"	down stairs and grabbing a "Dial" rail.	Stavers took occasion to remonstrate men	ubers. It is presumed this bill will
Gair and 500 moone, dents	leged partisan manner in which they perform	BREADSTUFFSFlour-$5.15@5.30. Wheat-Red,	the age. Examine the record of Democ-		road cheet in loss than four seconds	with the sleek-limbed and lightly-draped pass	s the Senate next winter.
And get a boon in a	their duties. An address to the people of the	$1.05. Corn-70@71c. Rye-95c. Oats-51255c.	racy, its present associations, its disre-	Mr. Days Mr. A. L. Laws and Laws and	Time anough there was and a little hag	Martha, who chanced to be passing the A	nother test during the last session
the set over the set of the second of the		Basian 01 100 1 20		hast to St Albana for Deaven slove knows how	Time enough there was and a intic bag	tavern, carrying a pail of water, in of C	ongress is found on the introduction
CLEAN SHAV	The latest returns from the recent State	PROVISIONS Pork - $22.00@22.10. Lard-	undisguised hatred of everything that	else this may reach you. I take my only chance,	was soon packed. Tom thought he d go	which, as the poet neatly says, 'the by	I O Smith a Republican from Ohio.
n41-1y	elections indicate the following results: In	13001de	pertains to loyalty, and then ask your-	it seems to me, left for happiness. I must write,	down to Fitchburg too to see the thing	shifting sunbeam danced.' You Pat! of	a resolution declaring the right and GO TO THE		ST. LOUIS.	self, is it safe to run even a remote risk	on my own sorrow without breaking Dear since	out; and he and wendell went down to-	you Pat!' cried Mrs. Stavers, severely; dut	a of Congress "so to regulate com-
00101111	Indiana the Democrats have elected their		of allowing this enemy of the Republic	you went away from me on that sad, sad night,	gether. They went over to wallace street	you rath cried airs. Stavers, severely, dur,	among the several States as to
	State ticket by from 10,000 to 15,000 majority.	6.00 Hogs_Live $5.00066.95	to gain control of its Government?-Re-	 not one moment of peace, no day when a song was 	and hit the house after three trials. Tom	why do you go looking so? You should mer	test that nortion of our internal com-
Post Office Real Sto	The Congressional delegation stands eight	Revinerture _ Flour_XX Fell $4 3564 75	public Magazine.	pleasant to hear, no day when I could sit silently	would wait in the hall, he thought. Tom	be ashamed to be seen in the street.' prot	rect that portion of our internal Con
Post Office Book Sto	I'C, Democrats to five Republicans, as follows:	Wheat-No. 2 Red Fall, $1.11@1.1115. Corn-No.	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	giad, has come to me. Only longing for you. I was proud, and angry that you could not trust	heard one scream, two kisses, a rush and	'Never mind how I look,' says Miss Mar- mer	ce which is among the several bulles
	Republican-Sixth District, Milton S. Robin-	2, 80@81c. Oats-No. 2, 49@50%c. Ryc-No. 2,	-We get some idea of the vastness of	me: and though I could easily have explained I	several other things "too numerous to	tha, with a merry laugh, letting slip a from	a all unjust or oppressive tons, taxa-son; Eighth, M. C. Hunter; Ninth, T. J. Car-	91@92c. Barley-$1.11@1.17%.	our country from the statistics furnished	would not. I, for that short half hour, believed	mention," and was on the point of crawl-	saucy brown shoulder out of her dress; Hon	as, obstructions or other burners,
H. J. STREIGHT, Preprietor,	son; Eleventh, James L. Evans; Thirteenth,		by Mr. Dodge, of the Department of	I could bear everything, since I bore your parsh	ing out the front-door when the heavy	'I shall ride in my chariot yet, ma'am.' who	ther imposed by railroad companies
		-13/@14c.	Agriculture, Less than one fifth of the	words (as they then seemed). Now I know I was	hand of Wendell was laid on his shoulder.	Fortunate prophecy! Martha went to or b	by combinations thereof, or by other
FOR YOUR	J. H. Baker. Democratie-First District, B.	MILWATTEPP		one word to say you forgive me, and, if you can,	"Come in and explain this thing. She	live as servant with Gov. Wentworth at com	nmon carriers when engaged as institu-
	S. Fuller; Second, J. D. Williams; Third, M.	THEADOLUTTO, FIDIL OUTING AA. SOMMERICAN.	manned into farms and only one fourth	and a second selfing 1 and 2 and 11 F restored and a second	says she never heard of you before!"	his mansion at Little Harbor, look- mer	ats of such portion of the commerce
Books, Stationery, Pictures, M	najo C. Kerr; Fourth, J. D. New; Fifth, W. S.		of this form and is tilled an and	again? Dear heart, I was never anything but	"No more has she " said Tom laugh.	ing out to sea. Seven years passed, of t	the people."
Doors, Dianonory, Libraros, m	Holman; Seventh, Franklin Landers; Tenth,	914c. Corn-No. 2, 7546677c. Oats-No. 2, 466	Heavy as our wheat crop is, it occupies	· true to you, and that I can show you if you will	ing; and seating himself on the sofa he	and the 'thin slip of a girl,' who prom-	his resolution was adopted-142 to
	Wm. S. Haymond; Twelfth, Andrew H. Ham-	47c. Rye-No. 1, 87@8714c. Barley-No. 2, $1.09	freury as our wheat crop is, it occupies	write to me? Just one letter and will bless	avalained the whole affair	lised to be no great beauty, had 64;	158 of those volting for it were ne-
TOYS, CONFECTIONERY	1.754 FP4 Th	@1.09%.	Carolina Our noticed of South	you each day I live, if God makes me live a thou- sand years.	Um not certain but I believe Clara	flowered into the loveliest of women, pub	dicans and only 14 were Democrats,
TOTS, CONFECTIONER	in Ohio by about 18,000 majority, and carry	DETROIT.	Caronna. Our national crop, maize,	sand years.	kiseed him At all events a few days	with a lin like a cherry and a check Lih	ierals and Reformers.
	thirteen of the twenty Congressional dis-	DESADETOFFS Wheat - Mainay Statight.11/2.	covers a territory not larger than Vir-		after he went hack to Washington a	like a rose-a lady by instinct one of 1	fere are three instances of attempts Violin Strings,		Corri Congreto, Onto Property	ginia, and the potato crop could grow in	Wallaco street Eitchhurg	hanny fallow having made others so	Nature's own ladies. The Governor, a mac	de by Republicans to inaugurate re-vionin Strings,	tricts. The Congressmen elected are as fol-	TOLEDO.	less than the area of Delaware. The	1 I . C. I BIII WITH HIT COMPILE DURDANCE CHED PILLING		lonely widower, and not too young, fell forn	ms having in view the "regulating Newspapers, Novels,	lows: Democratic-First District, Milton			mer, and, unless I hear from you, trust I may	That many and see the Comple	in love with his fair handmaid. With- of c	commerce to protect the farmers," and Saylor; Second, H. B. Banning; Third, J. S.	. @1.06; No. 2 Red. $1.03@1.04. Corn -		Dever return to St. Aloans.	That was a year ago nearly. Casual	out stating his purpose to any one, Goy. in	every instance the Democrats, with Song Books, etc.,	CtC	Mixed, 78@79c. Oats-50@5152c.	without number. There seems to be no	By Jove!" said 10m, "here are two	Observer told me a day or two since that	Wentworth invited a number of his wor	adorful unanimity, opposed the meas-ar lin utility high Sha	Rice; Sixth, F. H. Hurd; Seventh, L. T. Neal;	CLEVELAND.	danger of our being overcrowded for	which go together. where's that other	10m had received cards to the wedding	Wentworth invited a number of his won	. It would seem that nothing is
	Nin th , E. F. Poppleton; Eleventh, J. L.	BREADSTUPPS-Wheat-No. 1 Red, $1.09(1.09;	centuries.	letter? Yes! as I'm a poor, lonely mor-	of F. H. Wendell and Clara F. Dennett,	friends (among others the Rev. Arthur ure	re needed to prove that the farmers Vance; Twelfth, A. T. Walling: Thirteenth.	No. 2 Red, $1.03@1.04. Corn-79@82c. Onts-	The second se	tal, I've got the two in a heap and now I	to come off a week from next Monday,	Brown) to dine with him at Little Har- mor	at look to the Republican party for
POST OFFICE BUILDING,	M. I. Southard; Fourteenth, J. P. Cowan;	Salpase.	-the average of personal property	must deal them a new hand." (Tom was	and also that Tom had been correspond-	bor on his birthday. After the dinner, mus	taction against the encroachments
	Twentieth, H. B. Payne. Republican-	BUFFALO.
		LIVE STOCKBeeves - $4.88@6.55. Hogs-	certained to be $105.03, and of all prop	- his language.) So he put the two aside	nett, a sister of Clara's. Furthermore,	an end, and the guests were discussing and	(Atoritions of manniner al
S-12 PLATTSMOUTH, N	EB. Eighth, Wm. Lawrence; Tenth, Chas. Foster;	' Live, $5.35@7.00. Sheep-$4.00@5.00.	l erty $436 per capita.	and left them in a closer union as letters	s' Casual said: "If you want to hear two	their tobacco-pipes, Martha Hilton glided -M	tadeson (11 18.) Beace o our news and the second se					