One copy, one year.....

One copy, three months.....

One copy, six months ...

HENRY BŒCK.

Furniture, SAFES, CHAIRS,

Lounges, Tables, Bedsteads. ETC., ETC., ETC., Of All Descriptions.

METALLIC BURIAL CASES.

Wooden Coffins

Of all sizes, ready-made, and sold cheap for cash. Prescott, Ind., 19,053. Treasurer - Glover, With many thanks for past patronage, I invite Ind., 19,025. Attorney-General-Denny, Rep., all to call and examine my

LARGE STOCK OF Furniture and Coffins.

DRUGS

MEDICINES

J. H. BUTTERY'S,

On Main Street, bet. Fifth and Sixth. City, has been indicted for polygamy under Drugs and Medicines, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Patent Medicines, Toilet Articles, etc., etc.

PRESCRIPTIONS carefully compounded at burning paper. The usual result followed,

J. W. SHANNON'S

Feed, Sale and Livery the U. S. Cavalry, who, on the 22d, at Shreve-

STABLE.

I am prepared to accommodate the public with

HORSES,

Carriages, Buggies, Wagons, the city is 395,226.

A No. 1 Hearse,

On Short Notice and Reasonable Terms,

A HACK

the City, when Desired.

Of Plattsmouth, Nebraska,

........Vice-President. E. G. DOVEY ..

and Local Securities BOUGHT AND SOLD. Deposits Received and Interest Allowed on Time Certificates.

DRAFTS DRAWN.

INMAN LINE and ALLAN LINE OF STEAMERS.

Persons wishing to bring out their friends from

PURCHASE TICKETS PROM US

Through to Plattsmouth. at Greencastle, Ind., on the night of

J. C. BOONE,

HAIR-CUTTING, Shaving and Shampooing. imprisonment for fourteen years in the house between ten and twelve miles per hour seemed as happy as though nothing un ESPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO

Call and See Boone, Gents,

And get a boon in a n41-1y

GO TO THE

Post Office Book Store,

H. J. STREIGHT, Proprietor,

TOYS, CONFECTIONERY,

Violin Strings,

Newspapers, Novels, Song Books, etc., etc.

PROVISIONS .- Pork-New Mess, $10.00@20.25. Lard-14@14%c. Cheese-12%@15%c. Wook.-Common to extra, 45@68c. CHICAGO.

Provisions .- Butter-Choice, 31@38c. Eggs-Minister, has made reply that the indefinite Fresh, 19720c. Cheese-New York factory, continuance of the war in Spain showed a 15@16c; Western, 14@15c. Pork-New Mess, $19.50@19.60. Lard-124@124c. lack of patriotism and energy, and if the BREADSTUFFS .- Flour-White winter extra Spanish navy was vigilant thelanding of $5.00@7.00; spring extra, $4.50@5.25. Wheat arms for the Carlists would be impossible -Spring, No. 2, 82@82%c. Corn-No. 2, 71 .. The following are the official returns of @71%c. Oats-No. 2, 48@49c. Barley-No. 2, the vote for State officers at the recent elec-$1.17@1.17%. Rye-No. 2, 89@83c. tion in Indiana: Secretary of State-Curry, Republican, 164,955; Neff, Democrat, 182,- 053; Bowles, Independent, 15,755; Stout, LUMBER.-First Clear, $50.00@53.00; Second Independent, 2,981. Auditor-Wildman, Clear, $47.00@49.50; Common Boards, $11.00@ Rep., 165,263; Henderson, Dem., 181,322; 12.00; Fencing, $11.00@12.00; "A" Shingles, $3.00@3.25; Lath, $2.00@2.25. CINCINNATI. BREADSTUFFS .- Flour-$4.85@5.00. Wheat-Red,

Barley-$1.15@1.85. PROVISIONS. - Fork - $20.00@20.50. Lard--Bloss, Rep., 164,952; Smart, Dem., 180,986; 12@13c. ST. LOUIS. LIVE STOCK.-Beeves-Fair to choice, $4.50@ 5.50. Hogs-Live, $5.00@5.75.

BREADSTUFFS .- Flour-XX Fall, $4.25@4.75. Wheat-No. 2 Red Fall, $1.05@1.0614. Corn-No. MILWAUKEE.

ome, but that he is bound to pro-BREADSTUFFS .- Flour-Spring XX, $5.25@5.50. tect the State against the violent at-tacks and conspiracies of the clergy.... 87c. Corn-No. 2, 74@75c. Oats-No. 2, 45@ tect the State against the violent at-The United States Supreme Court at Wash. 461/2c. Rye-No. 1, 87@90c. Barley-No. 2, $1.10 ington has devied the motion to ad- @1.12. vance the Granger cases. The decision will

Corn-79@80c. Oats-48@49c. April next.....George Reynolds, of Salt Lake TOLEDO. BREADSTUFFS-Wheat-Amber Mich., $1.04 the Congressional law of 1862, and held to bai @1.05; No. 2 Red, $1.03@1.04. Corn-Mixed, 73@74c. Oats-48@490 CLEVELAND.

No. 2 Red, $1.03@1.04. Corn-77@78c. Oats-Grange decided to loan money to outside parties to establish an implement manufactory at LIVE STOCK.—Beeves - $4.25@6.25. Hogs-Live, $5.50@6.12%. Sheep-$4.00@4.50. Booneville, without interest, pledging support to the same in the purchase of implements....At St. Louis, a few days ago, Lizzie Goff, nine years of age, attempted to kindle a fire by pouring coal oil from a can upon burning paper. The paper ranger The paper ranger The paper Th

The Explosion of the Steamer Brooklyn.

THE propeller Brooklyn, Capt. Harvey against the action of Maj. Louis Merrill, of port, made an affidavit for the arrest of a large number of citizens of the State for re- day afternoon, about two o'clock, just he had not got the vault keys, and when fusing to employ voters who would support after passing Fighting Island, complete he refused to tell where they were the the Republican candidates. The committee ly shattering the vessel and causing the claim that the offense charged by Merrill is death of thirteen persons on board, be- he was made insensible. At the bank one strictly cognizable by the civil courts and sides maining and wounding eleven Mr. Sawyer was again asked where the appertains in no manner to the military ser. others. She sunk in about two or three keys were. One of the men said: "Curse minutes in twenty-five or thirty feet of you, you have lied to us twice. We ain't WEDNESDAY, Oct. 28.-Madrid disher pilot-house remaining out of water, own up." The twister made him insensipatches announce the sailing of reinforceto which nine persons clung for safety, ments for Cuba According to the recent and were soon released by the propeller his safety depended upon answering their school census of Chicago, the population of Cuba, while eight others who were questions, and so he told them they thrown into the water were picked up by sould find them in his Postoffice box. fishing yawls from the shore. All but He was placed in a chair and guarded THURSDAY, Oct. 29.—The preliminary six were injured, and were brought to while two of the men went to the Postexamination of Count von Arnim was concluded on the 27th by his release on 100,000 and St. Mary's Hospitals.

gland, were burned on the 28th, together that he was not racing. the manner in which the votes of citi- say to Capt. Brown, of the Brocklyn, posited in separate apartments or boxes. As | we reach Detroit." Judge Atocha, Maj. Burke stopped him, and while engaged in conversation drew a whip the 28th destroyed thirty buildings in the business portion of the town, inflicting a loss of $358,500, on which there was an insurance Michael Huck and James Phillips, fireof $122,900. The fire started in a furniture factory, and is believed to have been the work Anderson, porter, Renssalaer Falls, N.

s suspension of from port to port. She was valued at usual had happened his civil rights A Dublin dispatch says $45,000 and was insured for half that CUTTING CHILDREN'S HAIR | Cardinal Cullen and the entire Catholic Epis- amount. She had on board a full cargo copate have issued pastoral letters denouncing the late address of Prof. Tyndall, before the British Association, as a revival of paganism | Milwaukee and Chicago.-Detroit Tribune, Oct. 23.

THE MILFORD BANK ROBBERY.

Milford, a few nights ago:

in the piazza door with a pair of plyers. They then ascended to the second story, the following reply: probably by the front stairway, and proprobably by the front stairway, and proceeded at once to Mr. Sawyer's bedroom.

Mr. Sawyer was awakened by having a hand placed upon his throat, and a voice colly said, "We want you, sir." The hand of another villain was placed upon his throat, and a voice colly said, "We want you, sir." The hand of another villain was placed upon his throat, and a voice colly said, "We want you, sir." The hand of another villain was placed upon his throat, and a voice colly said, "We want you, sir." The hand of another villain was placed upon his throat, and a voice colly said, "We want you, sir." The hand of another villain was placed upon his throat, and a voice come entirely irrepressible, when she in the middle of a sen-builtin my language yesterday. Your figures would imply that you understood me as being looking said 10 it? Said 10 in the workmen supposed he was acting "I don't know Joe was so sick," said 10 in the middle of a sen-builtin my language yesterday. Your figures would imply that you understood me as being looking saidly and reflectively at the attractive bijou, then seated himself on the only to hire one car one trip. When I desire to only to hire one car one trip. When I desire to only to hire one car one trip. When I desire to only to hire one car one trip. When I desire to only to hire one car one trip. When I desire to only to hire one car one trip. When I desire to inquire what on earth it was, she. "I don't reckon the city."

Among other good things it is possible only to hire one car one trip. The he said 10 in the middle of a sent would imply that you understood me as being looking said, "I don't reckon the city."

The workmen supposed he was acting "I don't know Joe was so sick," said the middle of a sent would imply that you understood me as being to him in the middle of a sent would imply that you understood me as being to him in the middle of a sent would represent the city.

The workmen supposed he was acting the city.

The workmen supposed he was acting to him in the middle of a sent would repre

so that they made several threats of vio lence if it was not "instantly hushed pocket of which one of the thieves abstracted $20.00) and slippers, and a coat was placed upon his shoulders. He was handled rapidly, but it did not seem to be the intention of the men to injure him.

All the gang were masked, and Mr. Sawyer thinks all were barefooted; they had dark-lanterns, a full kit of tools, and, struggle with Mr. and Mrs. Sawcreaming of the servant-girl, Mary A. head and an attempt was made to smother her, but she struggled and and his brother, aged six, would not be quiet, and one of the men took one under each arm and hustled them into a closet and the girl in after them. The closes several holes bored through it to admit the air. The work of disposing of the other inmates of the house was rapidly accomplished by other members of the gang. Mrs. Sawyer was handcuffed, and with her infant child and oldest daughter, Bertha, placed in the closet of door was fastened with screws, as in the first instance, and six holes bored to admit the air. One of the ruffians expressed concern lest there was not enough air for them, so two additional holes were bored.

were elected the majority in the city being the rigging and hauled out the cabin boy, As near as can be ascertained without the statement of all the sufferers the FRIDAY, Oct. 30.—John Laird, the well-known builder of the Confederate steamer Ala-known builder of the Confede ama, died in London on the 29th, after a pro- the pilot-house, to which place all on it was to take him home, which they did racted illness.... The German Reichstag was | deck hastened, as the boat was completely | as lively as circumstances would permit) under water in less than five minutes. coolly locked the outside door of the There were nine persons on the pilot- bank building and separated. On the Tom laughed: "Well, Joe, I was ... A private letter has been received at Wash. There were nine persons on the pilot- bank building and separated. On the thinking I wouldn't go security for anyington from Dockray, the American who was house and they remained there about fif- tramp home Mr. Sawyer noticed a watchteen minutes, until released by the pro-peller Cuba, when he came with them to fearing some difficulty gave the twister a this city. He subsequently started back turn that rendered him again insensible. at four o'clock with the tug Oswego to He was hurried forward, however, and at look after the remains of the wrecked his house conducted to one of the bedvessel, and also to see if he could find rooms, placed in a chair, his legs bound any of the bodies of the lost or pick up to the rounds, the chair fastened to the any who were supposed to be left on bedstead-post and the bed fastened to 26, has been appointed by the President as a day of National Thanksgiving....Gov. Les- body of a woman, which was tied to the sheets and tied through the eye of stage- more folks'll pass 'long an' buy goobers lie, of Kentucky, has offered an aggregate island, and, a Coroner having been sent screws, which were screwed into the reward of $9,000 for the capture of a band for to hold an inquest, he determined to floor for that purpose. This was to preof masked ruffians who recently shot a leave the body there. The Captain said vent Mr. Sawyer from reaching the winyoung colored girl and committed other the Brooklyn was going at a rate of dow to give an alarm. The adventurers outrages on negroes in Sheiby County ... A speed of about ten miles an hour, which then thanked him for the services he had report that Oliver Dalrymple, the great wheat is not an unusual speed for the boat, and rendered them and hastily departed. Mr. Sawyer thinks the whole programme

tle nervous. She displayed great cool little story: thrown in every direction. The boiler was blown into a thousand pieces, some of them bery of the Souhegan National Bank, at lady.

"I don't see any gent in the corner of the window," said the proprietor of the went down and was soon joined by the lady. drop him a line giving him rates. In due store. The desperadoes effected an entrance time the notification arrived, the figures to Mr. Sawyer's house by turning the key being somewhere up in the thousands. quiring, "What mout be de price o' de parlors, and again and again her eyes Ed. read the note carefully and then sent | pin?" was told that it might be anything | rested curiously on the pin, but she made

DON'T RUN IN DEBT!

Or your ruff, or the tie of your shoe, The style of your boots or shade of cravat, If they know you're in debt for the new?

Don't run in debt—dear girls, take a hint;
If the fashions have changed since last season
Old Nature is out in the very same tint, And old Nature, methinks, has some reason.
But just say to your friends, I cannot afford
To spend time to keep up with the fashion;
My purse is too light and honor too bright
To be tarnished with such silly passion.

Gents, don't run in debt-let your friends, if they can.

Have fine houses, and clothing and flowers.
But, smiess they are paid for, be more of a man
Than to envy their sunshiny hours.
If you've money to spare, I've nothing to say,
Spend your dollars and dimes as you please;
But, mind you, the man who his note has to pay,
Is the man who is never at ease. Is the man who is never at ease.

'Twill fill your wife's cup full of sorrow
To know that a neighbor may call at your door
With a bill you must settle to morrow. Oh, take my advice—it is good, it is true!

(But lest you may, some of you, doubt it)
I'll whisper a secret, now, seeing 'tis you;
I've tried it, and know all about it.

"LITTLE JOE."

BY JENNIE WOODVILLE. Tom Wise, a great big, handsome fellow, with a heart of the same order, was standing at the corner talking to a friend. He held a cigar to his mouth with his left hand and with his right had just struck a match against the lamp-post, when at-or rather under-his elbow a voice exclaimed cheerily, "Busted agin, Mas' Tom!" Tom threw a glance over his shoulder and there stood "Little Joe," a small, misshapen negro about fifteen years old, with crutches under his arms and feet all twisted out of shape, his toes barely while the hat was small and set back much nearer the nape of his neck than pleasantly with Mrs. Sawyer, advising her like a natural excrescence or a horrible the crown of his head, yet held its place bore. Joe had met with very few people mean enough to laugh at him; for Brown, of the Northern Transportation Company's line, bound from Ogdensburg to Chicago, exploded her boiler yester- know where the keys were. He told them mean enough to laugh at him; for though he possessed all the brightness and cheerfulness and pluck of deformed and cheerfulness and cheerfuln people generally, there was a wistfu height and his position on crutches intensified (indeed, perhaps, created) by keep ing them upturned while talking with any one taller than himself; and this was generally the case, for there were no grown people so small as Little Joe. His shirt was torn and his pantaloons ragged, but to gild these faded glories he wore a swallow-tailed coat with brass buttons, > charity let the gods decide. "Busted agin, Mas' Tom!" "What 'busted' you this time, Joe?" asked Mr. Wise. 'Lumber, Mas' Tom. I was in lumber bizness las' week, buyin' ole shingles and sellin' 'em for kindlin'; but my pardner, he maked a run on de bank -leas'ways on my breeches pocket-an' den runned away hisse'f. Ain't you which some one had given him, whether from a sense of humor or a sentiment of gwine to sot me up agin, Mas' Tom?' 'What business are you going into "Feckshunnery," replied Joe, taking the quarter Mr. Wise handed him. "Dis'll do to buy de goods but 'twon't rent de sto', Mas' Tom."

What store?" asked Mr. Wise.

"Dat big sto' Hunt an' Manson is jes moved outen. Mr. Manson say I may hab it for sebben hundred dollars et body this week. Don't you think you can do business on a smaller scale?" Joe's countenance fell, and he suffered visibly, but a cheering thought presently fully, "Anyhow, I ain't a-keering 'bout Hunt an' Manson's ole sto'-der ole sebben-hundred-dollar sto'! I can git a more folks'll pass 'long an' buy goobers dan would come in dat ole sto' all de As Joe limped off to invest his money swallow-tails flapping, Tom's friend asked who he was. Belonged to us before the war," said "Poor little devil! the good Lord and the birds of the air seem to take care of him. I set him up in business with twenty-five cents every week, and look after him a little in other ways. Sometimes he buys matches and newspapers, act of self-denial-perhaps the saving of and sells them again, sometimes he buys a few cold potatoes that had been given

Saturday night-Joe! O-oh, Joe!" taining Mr. Wise, answered that he ing at the door of a neighboring dry "Miss Mollie is going to be married week after next, Joe, and you may come carpit. But, Lord-a-mussy! dem new niggers you all got ain't gwine to lemme

'Come to the front door and ask for me. Cut out now, and don't get busted this week, because I shall need all my tempted the assassination of Bismarck, has been tried and convicted, and sentenced to imprisonment for fourteen years in the house Joe's glance followed Mr. Wise and his of pride so pitiful that it would have Wise was out of town, and did not redodge worth knowing. friend till they were out of sight; then he turned and paused no more till he reached and paused no more till he reached are not of the way grocery store in the local and paused no more till he reached are not of the way grocery store in the local art of the lo green glass, and further ornamented by a his fine nature.

Joe took the mild pleasantry, and in- They promenaded up and down the

I wouldn't run no resk o' dese; but I ought to be grateful, but really she ain't gwine to tell her, cos I know she couldn't help tellin' Mas' Tom, an' I want to s'prise him. Mas" Tom is made me feel good a many time; I want to make him feel good wunst. He don't make him feel good wunst. He don't want to please a little deformed negro.

"Perhaps you do not understand," what de good Lord could ha' had agin him. He oughtn't to thought hard o' nuvvur come dis way, an' ain't seed dat said Tom, gently, "that I have given Joe him. He oughtn't to thought hard o' pin or he would ha' had it 'fore now." Then Little Joe bestirred himself and, btaining the assistance of a friend, fronted by a lemon that had seen life, and was more sere than yellow. But the crowning glory was the center-piece—an unhappy-looking pie of visage pale and thin physique, yet how beautiful to Joe!

He stepped back on his crutches, turning his head from side to side as he surveye hardly as high as the iron-railing. He had none of Joe's brightness, but looked passed through the hall, he saw Joe ragged and dirty and hungry, and evidently had no Mas' Tom to help the good and point out the pin, he felt repaid,

Lord and the birds of the air to take care though Miss Annan was holding her of him. His skin was of a dull ashen | head very high indeed. hue, and the short wool which clung loons enough to cover what he had left.

'How cum dey cut off?" " Feet was fros' bit. Like ter kill me. "What yo' name?" asked Joe.

"What were yo' ole mas' name?" "Didn't have no ole mas'." "Was you a natchul free nigger

"Dunno what you mean," said Kiah.
"Fore we was all set free," explained Little Joe. "Wos you born wid a ole mas' an' a ole mis', or wos you born free? -jes natchully free. "Free," said Kiah, thus placing him-the ban of Joe's contempt. "Umph! my Lor'! Dat pie sholy do smell good!"

"You look hungry," said Joe gravely. "I is," said Kiah, "hungry as a dog!" Kiah's face. He leered at him; he

'Juba," repeated with incredible rapidity and indescribable emphasis: Ruby-eved 'simmon-seed
See Billy hoppin' jes' in time;
Juba dis an' Juba dat,
Juba killed de yaller cat.
Roun' de kittle o' 'possum fat,
Whoop a-hoy! whoop a-hoy!
Doubie step o' Juba!
Forty pounds o' candle grease
Settin' on de mantel-piece.
Don't you see ole Granny Grace!
She look so homely in de face.
Up de wall an' down de 'tition,
Gimme ax sharp as sickle.
Cut de nigger's woozen pipe Cut de nigger's woozen pipe What eat up all de snassenge Git up dar, you little nigger!

his heels to the following edition of

Can't you pat Juba? He stopped suddenly and grinned erociously at Kiah. Kiah gazed stolidly back at Joe. Then Joe stepped to the able, took up a rusty old pocket-knife, and cutting out a piece of the pie handed it to Kiah. Kiah bit off a point of the triangle with his eyes fixed on Joe as if proceed, but finding that the liberty was not resented he eagerly devoured the remainder, drew his coat-sleeve across his their friendship commenced.

attachment which was formed between these two unfortunate creatures. Neither sports incident to his age, and they eemed drawn together by the attraction of a common misery. Every day some little service, pitiful in its insignificance except to themselves, some little humble office from one to the other, some little bracelets" and endeavored to release her-bracelets and endeavored to release her-invariable 'busted,' as he calls it, by roll that Joe got at Mr. Wise's—every day

The next time Joe came to be set he gave Mr. Wise a knowing wink and said mysteriously: "Don't you go buyin' no bres'pin to w'ar to de weddin', Mas' an out-of-the-way grocery store, in the window of which were displayed samples as greatly delighted; and when he had would never again rise from the straw lending to strangers. The fact that fruit cars are hauled from San Francisco to Chicago for $1,500 per car reminds the editor of a little story.

Window of which were displayed samples of fish, and soap, and calico, and kerosene lamps, and dreadful brass jewelry, among which was a frightful breastpin in the shirt-bosom, and thanked little Joe for the gift with all the gracious courtesy of little story.

Shortly after the completion of the chain of the most atrocious description Union Pacific an old friend of ours and conceivable. Before this thing of beauty, of his sister's, who was a guest in the The Cashler Taken to the Bank—A Cool and Audaclous Affair.

From an interview with Mr. F. T. Sawyer, of Milford, and the members of his household, the Nashua (N. H.) Telegraph gives the following account of the rob-

ADVERTISING RATES.

SPACE. 1 W. 2 W. 3 W. 1 m. 3 m. 6 m. 1 yr.

THE HERALD.

All Advertising bills due quarterly. Transient advertisements must be paid for Extra copies of the Henald for sale by H. J. Streight, at the Postoffice, and O. F. Johnson, cor-ner of Main and Fifth streets.

said Nancy-"but you better be a trying to open de gate o' Paradise.' He spoke more feebly and his eyes were getting dull, but the old instinct of servitude remained and he added: "Ain't you got nothin' to spread on the flo', Nancy, so Mas' Tom won't git his knees dirty?"

"Thanky, Mas' Tom," said Little Joe, feebly. "What was dat-ole mis'-used to-sing? 'Oh, Lam o'-God-I come--." The words ceased and the eyes remained half closed, the pupils fixed. Little Joe was dead .- Lippincott's Mag-

A KEY that fits everybody's trunk-Tur-BETTER slip with the foot than the

It has become quite the correct thing or ladies to wear silk stockings. WE think old maids the most charming, because they are matchless. ALL who advertise do not get rich, but social circles in the Middle States. horn-snoggle means to bamfoozle. A good opportunity never waits. If Is you desire to do a paying business

He that makes every man his enemy is a fool; he that has no enemies is a sim-peared, sobbing bitterly, tears streaming down his face: "Oh, Lordy, Mas' Tom! How short-sighted a man becomes when looking at a well-filled umbrella A PERSON is almost sure to forget the

> THE merchants of Prescott, Arizona, have agreed to sell no more goods on Ir you want to "get the drift of things"

WE are judged by the meanness of our actions, not by the nobleness of our

But our Western rivers are covered with tow boats. A FEW feet below the earth's surface the world. A PHILOSOPHER has discovered that men don't object to be overrated, except A CATHOLIC priest in San Francisco has just got 1,500 names on the pledge of an object as good wages." MEN who travel barefooted around a selves on the wrong tack.

Joe, "ef me an' Kiah had jes' had feet like some folks, Kiah wouldn't ha' been velvet, relieved by one bright color in ribbon, flower or feather. "Take this up to the house," said Mr. Wise, handing him a note, "and Miss out West. An ink west determined the fact .- Washington Chroniele.

THE Millerites of Geneva, N. Y., are getting their ascension robes in readiness for an aerial excursion next month. THE receipts by the stage lines and the hotels at the White Mountains, the past year, have been about $1,500,000. You often hear of a man being in advance of his age, but you never hear of a woman being in the same predicament. By a recent invention, called the quad-

Grindstones are considered safe property to invest in, because if you cannot sell them for cash you can always turn him, "In wid ye, or get up here by me, an' ye're a mind to. I'll take ye back."

> of late discovered in New England they have numerous specimens of diphtheria there now. A good judge says you can most always trust a blue-eyed woman without on his way home. That was beside the goods box that he and Kiah had for Brooklyn Argus. a stall. Now it was drenched with rain and the sides bespattered with mud, and the newspaper that had served for a cloth had blown over one corner and was a sharp nose. soaked and torn, but clung to its old

WHAT is the difference between the companion, though the wind tried to tear it away and the rain to beat it down. outer wall of a bridge and two nice young Little Joe stood a minute beside it and ladies? The one is a parapet, and the others a pair of pets. THE Dodge gold mine at Lisbon, N. H. For several days Little Joe drooped length he sent for Mr. Wise, but Mr. valued at $400. This seems to be a

Our best soils would in time become a desert nearly as barren as Sahara if kept

In Virginia the fine for robbing a mocking-bird's nest is twenty dollars. The offender may be arrested without warrant, and the fine goes into the school fund. LITTLE boys begin to look forward to that period of thanksgiving when it is Mas' Tom, and you can't nuvvur sot me permitted, as Ike Partington says, to up no mo'." "Oh, stuff! Dr. North can if I can't. Why didn't you send for him when you found I was away?" has seen for a long time is a man who went to the Public Library building and "I dunno, sir; I nuvvur thought bout borrowed tools from some workmen, re-

NEBRASKA HERALD.

and Ind., 198,080.

and she died in six hours.... The Democratic and Conservative State Central Committee of Louisiana have addressed a communication to Gen. Emory protesting thalers bail. A Berlin dispatch of the 25th says he would not be permitted to leave the country.... The cotton mills at Over, Entenced to a penal colony in Africa for a term of ten years, but that he hopes to be released before long through the intervention of the by Mr. Dalrymple himself to be entirely without foundation....In New Orleans on the and attempted to strike the Governor, when the latter fired a pistol at Burke, who retaliated in kind, firing three or four shots.

Neither party was wounded....A fire

SATURDAY, Oct. 31 .- Kuhlmann, who nad confessed the crime of having at-

... The Milford (N. H.) Five Cent Savings

Bank has suspended, with liabilities of $500,-

A recent boiler explosion in Isaac Roder's saw-mill at Lancaster, Ind., killed two of the proprietor's sons, Timothy and William, and severely and probably fatally injured another son. A man by the name of George Beddle was also badly injured. The building was torn to atoms, and fragments being found half a mile away Extensive forest fires are prevailing in many sections of Southern Indiana and Ohio, and some towns

THE MARKETS.

NEW YORK.

Corron.-Middling upland, 141/6/14%c.

Остовев 30, 1874.

are in great danger of being destroyed.

000, covered, it is believed, by its assets ...

EPITOME OF THE WEEK. | Corn-Mixed Western affoat, 86@861/4c. Oats-Condensed from Telegrams of Accompanying Dates.

MONDAY, Oct. 26 .- To a recent com-LIVE STOCK .- Beeves -Choice, $5.25@5.75 good, $4.00@4.75; medium, $3.25@3.75; butchplaint of the Spanish Ambassador that supplies of arms and other materials of war, ers' stock, $2.00@3.25; stock cattle, $2.25@ manufactured in England, were frequently to choice, $3.75@4.50. 3.25. Hogs-Live, $5.75@6.30. Sheep-Good shipped to the Carlists, Lord Derby, Foreign Woor..-Tub-washed, 45@57c.; fleece, washed, 40@50c.; fleece, unwashed, 27@35c.

Rep., 164,971; Shaw, Dem., 181,380; Bennett, $1.05. Corn-75@78c. Rye-94c. Oats-50255c. 166,153; Buskirk, Dem., 178,859; Beele, Ind., 18,584. Superintendent of Public Instruction

Graham, Ind., 18,844. Judge of the Supreme Court-Osborne, Rep., 165,716; Broole, Dem. Tuesday, Oct. 27 .- In a letter in reply to the protest of the Pope against the persecution of German Bishops, the Emperor William says Germany has done all in her William says Germany has done all in her power to live in peace with the church at

BREADSTUFFS. -Wheat-Extra, $1.17@1.17%. put over the first case as far as March or within a distance of a few feet from him. obtained the keys and returned to the At the first shock of the explosion he says bank. Mr. Sawyer opened the vault, with ten operatives The Episcopal it felt as though the boat had struck a when they proceeded to examine its con-General Convention, at its recent session in rock. He was thrown to the deck and tents. One of them asked, previously New York, adopted a canon against ritualistic partially stunned. He jumped up as soon if there was $60,000 in it, and seemed practices by a vote of 72 to 5.... At the elec- as he could, and began to realize the fact | quite disappointed to learn that the on in Baltimore on the 28th for members of of the explosion. He saw the boat sinking amount they would probably make out of the City Council the Democratic candidates rapidly at the center, and jumped into the job was so small Albert Gibbons, from a cabin window. He also assisted the first mate, Daniel total loss is about $100,000.

BREADSTUFFS-Wheat-No. 1 Red. $1.0821.09:

Our reporter had a conversation with was carried out in forty minutes, and that Fred. W. Stevens, Riley Franklin and it was after three o'clock when the job afternoon of the 29th a collision occurred They say that the steamer Cuba was between Gov. Kellogg and Maj. E. A. Sheer Say that the steamer Cuba was Burke, of the Naturalization Committee of several hundred yards ahead of the boat, several hundred yards ahead of the boat, several hundred yards and both were going at apparently the and both were going at apparently the correspondence between them relating to Capt. Boardman, who was on the deck,

Governor having instructed that they be de- the name of our boat on our stern before Missing and supposed lost: Mrs. Peter Rabbin and child, four years old, of Ogdensburg, passengers; one lady passenger, name unknown, from Cleveland; two Frenchmen, passengers, names un-Louis; John Morley, first cook, Ogdensburg; second cook, name unknown, shipped at Oswego; James Romaine,

Y. Total, thirteen

The struggle with Mr. Sawyer was progressing all the while, two of the ruffians having him upon the side of the bed, forcing handsuff the side of the bed, hat forcing handcuffs upon him, a gag made of a piece of broom-handle, with a hole to breathe through bored in the center, was thrust into his mouth, and a "twist-apparently, a thorough knowledge of the premises, and the number of members My (seven) of the household. During the yer their attention was called to the Broderick, in another apartment, when two of the gang made a bold push to "quiet her." She was seized by the fought like an enraged tiger, and was not conquered until they had dragged her from her bed by the hair of her head, choked her to silence, and handcuffed her hands behind her. In the mean-time the two boys, Fred, aged twelve, door was then fastened with screws, and her sleeping-room, the desperadoes first placing chairs for them to sit in. The

The two men that stayed behind made themselves perfectly at home. They sauntered about the house, and talked to keep quiet. They hurried Mr. Sawyer to the bank as soon as possible, crossing the "twister" was given an extra turn, and water, only about six or eight inches of going to lose our summer's work. Now ble, but upon reviving he concluded that the city and taken to the Marine, Harper office, broke a light of glass, thrust hand through, turned the catch, hoisted The Captain states that he was on deck at the window and jumped in. After this at the time, and that several men were they unbolted and opened the front door, his poor little legs swinging and his

During all this time the prisoners had done more or less screaming. Mrs. Sawyer had exerted herself beyond her natural strength to regain her liberty, had marked and thumped the door with "her zens who had been naturalized by the Second District Court should be cast, the Capt. Brown replied: "She will read very cool. The boys and the servantgirl were demonstrative, using their voices in loud cries for liberty. Master Fred finally succeeded in dislodging the casing of his coop and getting out, whereupon he cut the cords that bound his father, and with great effort took out the screws that secured the door to the closet in which his mother was captive. goods store. "What you want, Mas Tom?" he asked on his return. An alarm was quickly given. The condition of the family at seven o'clock this morning when the blacksmiths had succeeded in liberating them from their ceeded in liberating them from their ceeded in liberating them from their handcuffs was not so excitable as might I boun' to see Miss Mollie step off de have been expected. Mrs. Sawyer, who has a bad mark upon her throat where one of the ruffians choked her, was a lit-The propeller Brooklyn was built at ness, however, and entertained all com-Cleveland in 1866, and was therefore ers. Mr. Sawyer was suffering from exeight years old. She was considered a citement and nervous prostration. The

Buying a Railroad.

seventy-five cents.

Corron.—Middling upland, 14%@14%c.
Live Stock.—Beef Cattle—$10.736\[\text{Discost}\) $2.75\[\text{Discost}\) $2.75\[\text{Discost}\) $3.75\[\text{Discost}\) $4.23\[\text{Discost}\) $3.75\[\text{Discost}\) $3.75\[\text{Discost}\) $4.23\[\text{Discost}\) $3.75\[\text{Discost}\) $4.23\[\text{Discost}\) $3.75\[\text{Discost}\) $4.23\[\text{Discost}\) $4.23\[\text{Disc took his dry goods box up to Capitol Square. There he turned it upside down, whether I wear this pin that he has for me somewhar, but I dunno what to spread a newspaper over the top and proceeded to display his wares.

A pyramid of three apples stood in one corner; a small stack of peppermint corner; a small stack of peppermint condy was its rive size a tiny class of the same that the has been described in the same that he has been described in the same that he has been say to Him. You ax Him, Mas' Tom."

He spoke more feebly and his eye were getting dull, but the old instinct or servitude remained and he added candy was its vis-a-vis; a tiny glass of me to mortify and disappoint him?" peanuts graced the third, and was con- "It will make us both ridiculous," "It will make us both ridiculous," said

"I have no right to include you in my the effect, took up a locust branch he sacrifice, if sacrifice there be," said he, had brought with him to brush away the with grave courtesy, and referred no sacrifice, if sacrifice there be," said he, lies, and, leaning against the iron railmore to the matter; but as soon as he ing, with calm dignity awaiting coming could leave her he sought his sister, and requested that the honor of standing His glance presently fell on the figure | with Miss Annan might be conferred on of a negro boy, who stood gazing with Mr. Marshall, and himself allowed to longing eyes on the delicacies of his take Mr. Marshall's partner, she being a table, and it was with a strange feeling little girl on whose pluck and good-naof kinship that Little Joe continued to ture he could alike rely. His sister had regard the new comer, for he too had no time to enter into particulars, but been branded by misfortune. He appeared about Joe's age and should have said to Miss Annan: "I could not sacribeen taller, but his legs had been ampu- fice Joe, Miss Emily, I could not sacrifice tated nearly up to the knee, and as he you, so I have sacrificed myself, and am stood on the pitiful stumps, supported by a volunteer in the noble army of marashort cane in one hand, his head was tyrs." When, however, as the bridal cortege

The next morning Little Joe came by close to his scalp was sunburnt till it was the office: "What did de folks say bout red and crisp, and formed a curious contrast to his black face. One arm was "Say? Why, they did "Say? Why, they did not know what bare, only the ragged remains of a sleeve hanging over the shoulder, and it seemed no great misfortune that his legs had been shortened, for he had hardly pantame," said Mr. Wise, and Joe laughed

> Late on the evening of the same day Mr. Wise was about leaving his office when Little Joe's crutches sounded in the doorway and Little Joe himself ap-oh, Lordy!" "What is the matter, Joe?" "Oh, Lordy, Mas' Tom! Kiah's done dead! "Kiah! Is it possible? What was the matter?" asked Mr. Wise. "Oh, Lordy! oh, Lordy!" sobbed Lit-tle Joe. "Me an' him went down to de elf, as every Southerner knows, under creek, an' was playin' baptizin', an' l

done baptized Kiah, an'-oh, Lordy

Lordy!-an' Kiah was jes gwine to bapcerned, he is better off than he was be-heavier before Kiah was buried out of sight; the rain was falling in torrents that drenched the poor little cripple, sobbing beside the grave, and the driver of the hearse, a good-hearted Irishman, said to

But Joe shook his head, and prepared

The wind blew open his buttonless shirt, and the rain beat heavily on his loyal little breast, but he struggled against the storm, and paused only once fresh air-so strong and fresh and vigorous that it made one feel better only to

The little cripple paused to gather up

Why, Joe! how is this?"

do it?" said Tom angrily.

ride out o' Kiah's funeral."

cried harder than ever.

be near him.

Negroes are generous creatures, and tize me, an' he stepped out too fur, an' oe's mind was fully made up to give his legs was so short he lost his holt on Kiah a piece of pie; but before he signi- me an' drownded; an' I couldn't ketch fied this benevolent intention he rested him cos I couldn't stan' up widout nothhis crutches under his shoulders and in to hold on to. Oh, Lordy! I wish I swung his misshapen feet almost in nuvvur had ha' heerd o' baptizin'! I couldn't git him out, an' I jes' kep' on arinned at him; he stuck his chin in his hollerin', but nobody didn't come till ace, and made a dash at him with the Kiah was done drownded." rown of his head; finally snapping his "I am sorry for you, Joe; I wish I had yes and slapping his sides and swinging been there. But, as far as Kiah is con-> fore," said Mr. Wise. "No, he ain't, Mas' Tom," said Joe, stoutly; "leastways, Kiah didn't think so hisse'f, cos ef he had a-wanted to die he could ha' done it long an' merry ago. I don't b'leeve in no such fool-talk as dead folks bein' better off dan dey was Tom was silent, and Little Joe went on with renewed tears: "I come up to ax you to gimme a clean shirt an' a par o' draw's to put on Kiah. You needn't Oh, Lordy! oh, Lordy!" sobbed Little drownded!" Mollie will give you whatever you want."

"Thanky, sir," said Joe. "I know you ain't got no cotlin handy, but you can in doubt whether he would be allowed to gimme de money an' I can git one. don't reckon it will take much, cos Kiah warn't big."
Then Mr. Wise wrote a note for the undertaker, and directed Joe what to do mouth and said "Thanky." And thus with it. The next day was cold and dark and It was very touching and beautiful, the misty, and the pauper's hearse that conveyed Kiah to the graveyard was driven so fast that poor little Joe, the only could perform the labor or join in the mourner, could hardly keep up as he hopped along behind it on his crutches. The blast grew keener and the mist some little thing served to cement this Joe looked back, and, with perfect friendship which gave to each a companing ifference to the fact that he was deion who did not mortify him; and they became inseparable, Joe taking Kiah to would "be dar torectly," continuing his the little shed where he spent his nights negotiations for an empty goods box ly- and making him an equal partner in business during the day.

> "Why not, Joe?" "Cos ain't no use in two bres'pins, an' dar ain't no tellin' what mout happen fore dat weddin' come off." Mr. Wise laughed, but he had no preonition that Joe had entered into a sucecrable crescent, and the shock was therefore unbroken when on the evening of his marriage Joe entered his dressingroom and presented it to him with an air

-from nothing up-but it could go for no allusion to it till her feelings had become entirely irrepressible, when she in-wait anoder week to git married, an' den formed, and all that, and of course he permission to witness the ceremony (I nothin' Kiah done cos he warn't nuvver believe I told you that he was the per- nothin' but a free nigger an' didn't have sonal property of my mother, and a favor-ite with her), and he will certainly know let us bofe in. I know Kiah's waitin'

she, haughtily.

Tom quietly unfastened the pin and placed it in his vest-pocket, and with it disappeared Miss Annan's prospect of becoming Mrs. Wise, enviable as she becoming Mrs. Wise, enviable as she prayer.

"Thanky, Mas' Tom," said Little Joe, "Thanky, Mas' Tom," s

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS. VESSELS of wrath-Family jars. Beginning to leave-The leaves. An intellectual dog-A type-setter. San Francisco claims fifty-three mill-

No man can truly feel for the poor without feeling in his pocket.

precious few get rich without it. PIE parties are the latest novelty in A GEORGIA editor explains that to lieve anything they would like to have golden rule when receiving too much change.

go into the room where your wife is THE last novelty in sewing machines is one that will follow the thread of an

THE Japanese make boats of paper. the temperature is nearly equal all over

A MAN in Cincinnati, advertising for a situation, says: "Work is not so much gimme no socks, cos he ain't got no feet. newly-carpeted bedroom often find them-THE handsomest bonnets are of black A nov has just died from a dose of ink ruple telegraph, four messages may be simultaneously sent over a single wire. "Men scorn to kiss themselves, And scarce would kiss a brother; But women want to kiss so bad, They kiss and kiss each other."

SMALL men are generally plucky men, and a Bantam rooster with one eye to hop back as he had hopped out. will whip ten times his weight in Cochin "Thankee, sir," said he, "but I'd rather fowl. walk. I feels like I would be gittin' a In addition to the various palæotheria > regard to the length of her finger-nails. -A NEW HAMPSHIRE woman when dying made her husband swear on the Bible that he would never marry a woman with and shivered and refused to eat, and at | produced the other day a nugget of gold in fallow without a green thing to shield them from the heat of the sun.

ABOUT the coolest robbery that Boston Turning to the woman with whom Joe moved the copper lightning-rods, labor-lived, "And why the deuce didn't you ing at the job several hours, and having o it?" said Tom angrily.

"I didn't know Joe was so sick," said he. "Tain't no use sen'in' for no doctor under orders from the city.

"I don't reckon the Lord is mad wid The son of an editor in Pennsylvania, ac-in $2,500. This is the first indictment in that city under the act of Congress, the prior in-Wholesale and Retail Dealer in dictments being under the Territorial law At its recent session the Missouri State

Main Street, Plattsmouth, Neb.

Will Run to the Steamboat Landing, Depot, and all parts of opened on the 20th by the Emperor in person. SUCCESSOR TO arrested by the Spanish authorities in Cuba. Tootle, Hanna & Clark. He gives an account of his sufferings on

United States Government.... Thursday, Nov. This Bank is now open for business at their new room, corner Main and Sixth streets, and are pre-pared to transact a general BANKING BUSINESS. Stocks, Bonds, Gold, Government farmer of Minnesota, had failed is pronounced

Available in any part of the United States and in the Conservatives, which grew out of a same speed. Two of the men heard ACENTS FOR THE Gov. Kellogg was riding in his carriage with Excelsior Barber Shop. factory, and is believed to have been the work Main Street, opposite Brooks House.

CLEAN SHAVE.

FOR YOUR Books, Stationery, Pictures, Music.

POST OFFICE BUILDING,

PLATTSMOUTH, NEB.