One copy, three months.....

One copy, one year ...

One copy, six months.

VOLUME X.

$1,713,610,300

382,072,317

$137,740,381

18,723,558

41,200,000 46,890,598

Six per cent. bonds. Five per cent. bonds.

egal-tender notes

oin certificates.

Total debt ...

Cash in Treasury-

Total in Treasury.

Debt less cash in Treasury. Increase during December. Decrease since June 30, 1874...

Currency Special deposits held for the redemption of certificates of deposit as provided by law....

Bonds issued to the Pacific Railway

Companies, interest payable is lawful money, principal outstand

Ing
Interest accrued and not yet paid.
Interest paid by the United States.
Interest repaid by the transportation of mails, etc

Balance of interest paid by United through the Papal Nuncio in Madrid.

Subpenas have been served on witnesses

Orleans stating that under instructions from

Gulf posts as far eastward and embracing will hereafter constitute one of the depoint which gives impunity to all who choose to indulge in either, and the civil government appears powerless to punish or even arrest."

or 1874 shows a balance in the Treasury

Dec. 31, 1873, of $632,068.69; receipts during 1874, $2,152,811.38. Total, $2,784,880.07.

ance, Dec. 31, 1874, $893,085.56. State bonded

Expenditures during 1874, $1,891,794.51. Bal-debt, $1,528,000; non-interest-bearing debt,

A DECREE has been issued at Madrid sus alculated to convey a wrong impression to the people in other sections. John McEnery

Legislature. Gen. Sheridan had sent another now existing in Louisiana, Mississippi and ment opposed to his administration reside in ison on the 5th, John Cochrane, Master, pre-present. The Master's address was well received. He reported 1,008 Granges in the State, against 304 a year since. He commended, in warm terms, the efforts and Nebraska, and the formation of a permanent fund for the purpose of engaging

Wednesday, Jan. 6.

Tuesday, Jan. 5.

stimated at $10,000,000.

juices has been drawn.

In the Pacific Mail investigation, on the ertificates of deposit

Total coin bonds.

PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JANUARY 14, 1875.

NEBRASKA HERALD.

NUMBER 42.

That is the romance of one camp-

"Oh! botheration!" remarked Sam.

heavens but your nasty pipe. An old

"Drat all women!" said Sam, reflect-

"But our widow isn't a widow at all;

never was a man who filled it half so

"Yes," said Sam.

all praise.

Awful tiresome.

him energetically in the ribs.

ly demands it." she said.

time," she said, very soberly.

meeting.

HENRY BŒCK,

Furniture, SAFES, CHAIRS, Lounges, Tables, Bedsteads, ETC., ETC., ETC.,

METALLIC BURIAL CASES.

Of All Descriptions.

Wooden Coffins Of all sizes, ready-made, and sold cheap for cash

With many thanks for past patronage, I invite all to call and examine my LARGE STOCK OF Furniture and Coffins.

DRUGS

MEDICINES

J. H. BUTTERY'S.

On Main Street, bet. Fifth and Sixth, said he supposed Irwin would have to be sent

Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Drugs and Medicines, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Patent Medicines.

Toilet Articles, etc., etc.

PRESCRIPTIONS carefully compounded a all hours, day and night.

J. W. SHANNON'S Feed, Sale and Livery

STABLE.

Main Street, Plattsmouth, Neb.

I am prepared to accommodate the public with HORSES,

Carriages, Buggies, Wagons,

A No. 1 Hearse,

On Short Notice and Reasonable Terms.

A HACK

Will Run to the Steamboat Landing, Depot, and all parts of the City, when Desired.

Of Plattsmouth, Nebraska,

Tootle, Hanna & Clark.

A. W. McLaughtin.

Assistant Cashier This Bank is now open for business at their new room, corner Main and Sixth streets, and are pre-paged to transact a general

BANKING BUSINESS.

Stocks, Bonds, Gold, Government and Local Securities

BOUGHT AND SOLD. Deposits Received and Interest Allowed on Time Certificates.

DRAFTS DRAWN, Available in any part of the United States and it all the Principal Towns and Cities of Europe.

> ACENTS FOR THE CELEBRATED

INMAN LINE and ALLAN LINE OF STEAMERS.

Persons wishing to bring out their friends from PURCHASE TICKETS FROM US Through to Plattsmouth

Excelsior Barber Shop.

J. C. BOONE, Main Street, opposite Brooks House.

HAIR-CUTTING, Shaving and Shampooing. sional Investigation Committee on the 5th

ESPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO CUTTING CHILDREN'S HAIR Call and See Boone, Gents,

And get a boon in a CLEAN SHAVE.

GO TO THE

Post Office Book Store, H. J. STREIGHT, Preprietor, Books, Stationery, Pictures, Music.

TOYS, CONFECTIONERY,

Violin Strings,

Newspapers, Novels, Song Books, etc., etc.

POST OFFICE BUILDING.

PLATTSMOUTH, NEB.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Compiled from Telegrams of Accompanying Dates. Monday, Jan. 4. THE public debt statement Jan. 1 is as fol-556,525,200

39,721,477 of New Orleans was very quiet. Idle threats ders. The Chairman of the Committee of Seventy has issued a card calling on his felsent into their midst, as their deliverance from political bondage depends on their prudence and forbearance, and a conflict with the soldiers or authorities will bring ruin to their hopes and the riveting of their chains.

SECRETARY BELKNAP has sent a dispatch to Gen. Sheridan, at New Orleans, saying that $64,623,512 "the President and all of us have full con-1,938,705 "the President and all of us have 24,325,396 fidence in and approve your course." A Washington dispatch says there is no probability that the President will issue such a

2d, Henry Clews, a Director, testified that no knowledge came to the Board of Directors, as 5th by the selection of Jeremiah McGuire for a Board, of the money spent to procure the Speaker and Hiram Calkins for Clerk-both subsidy until after it became a law, and Tammany Hall nominees. when they did learn the fact it was a matter of surprise to them. A. L. Phelps testified

Clerk of the Minnesota Senate and W. R. Kinthat Stockwell told him that money was being spent in Washington. Stockwell also yon Speaker of the House. Eight jurors have been obtained in the

A LONDON dispatch says King Alphonso

The Fundamental MacMahon on the sense under the President inform the Sense under the that the President inform the Sense under the theorem the that the President inform the Sense under the president inform will be speedily recognized by European 6th. The President refused to accept the place, and whether he has any information in repowers. He has granted amnesty to all Carl-tender until he could form a new Cabinet out powers. He has granted amnesty to all Carlists and has been tendered the support of of the majority in the Assembly. Castelar, Martos, Admiral Topete and other of the majority in the Assembly.

A NEW OBLEANS dispatch of the 7th says both houses of the State Legislature were in session proceeding with business. The Conservatives remained together in caucus.

According to the Master's report to the Construction of its road to the Ohio River...An adverse report was made on the bill to repeal the law allowing Pension Agents thirty cents for each voucher prepared and paid by them... Adjourned to the Master's report to the Master's report to the Master's report was made on the bill to repeal the law allowing Pension Agents thirty cents for each voucher prepared and paid by them... Adjourned to the Master's report was made on the bill to repeal the law allowing Pension Agents thirty cents for each voucher prepared and paid by them... well-known Republicans. The blessing of the Pope asked for by the King has been sent CAPT. E. B. WARD, a prominent and wealthy citizen of Detroit, died of apoplexy in that Wisconsin State Grange there are now 508 city on the 2d, aged sixty-four. His estate is Granges in the State, as against 304 last year A FULL jury has been secured in the Tilton-Beecher case before the Brooklyn City in the Tilton-Beecher suit, and a panel of 500 | Court, Judge Neilson presiding.

Gov. Gaston, of Massachusetts, was in GARIBALDI has declined the national grant augurated on the 7th. for his relief because of the condition of the President he assumes control of the Department of the Gulf, consisting of the States of Louisiana, Arkansas and Mississippi, and the Gulf posts as far eastward and embracing Crounse, Curtis, Danford, Dobbins, Donnan, Fort Jefferson and Key West, Fla., exclud- Garfield, Gunckel, Hale (Me.), Harmer, Harrison Hathhorn, Hawley (III.), Havs. Hazelton (Wis.), Hazelton (N. J.), Hendee, Hodges, Hooper, Has-kins, Houghton, Howe, Hunter, Hines, Kasing the posts in Mobile Bay, which will hereafter constitute one of the departments of the Military Division of the Missouri. The General has also sent a dispatch to Secretary Belknap at Washington, announcing "the existence in this State of a spirit of defiance to all lawful authority, and an uncertainty of life which is hardly realized by the General Government."

Saturday, Jan. 9. THE following are the yeas and nays on the final passage in the House of the Senate GEN. SHERIDAN has issued an order at New | Finance bill: Yeas-Albert, Averill, Barber, Barrere, Barry

Hazelton (N. J.), Hendee, Hodges, Hooper, Haselooper, Ha hardly realized by the General Government Sayler (Ind.), Scoffeld, Scudder (N. J.), or the country at large. The lives of citizens Sessions, Shanks, Sheets, Sheemaker, bave become so jeopardized that, unless something is done to give protection to the people, all security usually afforded by law will be overridden. Defiance to the laws and the murder of individuals seem to be looked upon by the community here from a standupon by the community here from a stand-

Nays—Adams, Archer, Arthur, Ashe, Atkins, Banning, Beck, Bell, Berry, Blount, Bowen, Bright, Bromberg, Brown, Buffinton, Caldwell, Clark (Mo.), Clark (N. Y.), Clymer, Comingo, Cook, Cox, Crittenden, Crossland, Crutchfield, Dawes, De Witt, Eldridge, Field, Finck, Giddings, Glover, Gooch, Cunter Hagans, Hamilton, Hancock, Harris Gunter, Hagans, Hamilton, Hancock, Harris (Mass.), Harris (Ga.), Harris (Va.), Hatcher, Havens, Hawley (Conn.), Hereford, Herndon, Hoar, E. R., Hoar, G. F., Holman, Hunter, Kelley, Knapp, Lamar, Lamison, Lawson, Leach, Magee, Marshall, McLean, Milliken, Mills, Morrison, Neal, Nesmith, Niblack, Niles, Parker (N. H.) Parker (Mo.), Perry, Pierce, Randall, Read, Rob-bins, Sayler (Ohio), Schell, Scudder (N. Y.), Sherwood, Sloss, Smith (N. C.), Southard, Stephens Stone, Storm, Swann, Townsend, Vance, Wad dell, Walls, Whitehead, Whitehouse, Whitthorn ending the jury system. The marriage of King Alphonso with the daughter of the Willard (Vt.), Willie, Wilson (Md.), Wolf, Ward, Duke de Montpensier is favored by the Re. Woodworth, Young (Ky.), Young (Ga.)—98.

Duke de Montpensier is favored by the Re-A BERLIN special says the German Bank Commission has passed a resolution that the Imperial Bank buy gold in lots at 1,392 marks the Cotton Exchange, the Merchants' Excompete successfully with the American change and other gatherings, resolutions Government and attract gold to Gerwere adopted denouncing the statements many. This action is taken in view of the of Gen. Sheridan to the Secretary of contemplated resumption of specie payments War as to the condition of affairs in by the United States. Louisiana as false in point of fact and the 8th. It is said the Administration was sent a protest to President Grant against the awaiting official information prior to the acts of the United States forces in the State. | time at which Gen. Sheridan took command House on the 5th. Some talk was had of of the department before deciding definitely a compromise of some sort in regard to the upon a report to Congress. DR. LEIGHTON COLEMAN of Toledo, Ohio, telegram to the Secretary of War, in which he has been elected Bishop of the Northern Episexpressed the opinion that "the terrorism copal Diocese of Wisconsin.

CONGRESSIONAL. Arkansas could be entirely removed and confidence and fair-dealing established Congress reassembled on the 5th. In by the arrest and trial of the the Senate, a memorial of 10,000 soldiers was ringleaders of the armed White such has been the case, that the President inform the Senate by what authority such military intervention and interference have taken place." Considerable debate ensued on an amendment offered by Mr. Conkling to insert, after the word "requested." the words "if in his judgment not incompatible with public interest," and pending the debate the Senate adjourned. THE Wisconsin State Grange met at Madsiding. There were about 150 delegates of help to the brethren in Kansas section was made and sust and the House adjourned. ection was made and sustained to further debate troops, received by the President from In the House, on the 6th, a bill was Mr. Wiltz, was read. It is said the Administration is well satisfied that Gen. Sheridan is the Soldiers' Ornbans' Home of What let me see, they are children around you, fool. I shall not return to college and She was looking down the avenue of the Penitentiary for six years for shootistration is well satisfied that Gen. Sheridan is in every way competent to carry out the is in every way competent to carry out the soldiers or open fire-places in every room is in every way competent to carry out the soldiers or open fire-places in every room is in every way competent to carry out the soldiers or open fire-places in every room is in every way competent to carry out the soldiers or open fire-places in every room is in every way competent to carry out the soldiers or open fire-places in every room is in every room in every room is in every way competent to carry out the soldiers or open fire-places in every room is in every roo ideas of the General Government respecting whatever participation it may be thought necessary to take regarding affairs in that State.

The Bank of Spain has advanced the Government treasury 40,000,000 reals. All the great powers have authorized their representatives to enter into semi-official relations with the new Government.

HIRAM R. ROBERTS is the Democratic candidate for Governor of New Hampshire.

Thursday, Jan. 7.

Gen. Sheridan sent a dispatch to Secretary Belknap on the 6th to the effect that the city of New Orleans was very quiet. Idle threats had been made to assassinate him (Sheridan) but he was not afraid and would not be stopped from enforcing the Government orders. The Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, reported to the House and passed. A bill to provide for a temporary government of the House and passed. A bill to provide for a temporary government of the House and passed. A bill to provide for a temporary government of the House and passed. A bill to provide for a temporary government of the House and passed. A bill to provide for a temporary government of the House and passed. A bill to provide for a temporary government of the Tentiony of Oklahma was introduced and referred. A resolution providing for a new election in Louisiana gave rise to a lengthy debate, and notice was given of a motion on the 1th to suspend the rules and adopt a resolution providing for a new election in Louisiana gave rise to a lengthy debate, and notice was given of a motion on the 1th to suspend the rules and adopt a resolution providing for a new election in Louisiana gave rise to a lengthy debate, and notice was given of a motion on the 1th to suspend the rules and adopt a resolution providing for a new election in Louisiana gave rise to a lengthy debate, and notice was given of a motion on the 1th to suspend the rules and adopt a resolution providing for a new election in Louisiana gave rise to a lengthy debate, and notice was given of a motion on the 1th to suspend the rules and adopt a resolution providin

In the Senate, on the 7th, a bill was passed to remove the limitation to restrict the low-citizens to avoid by all means the troops | circulation of banking associations issuing notes payable in gold ... A very spirited discussion was had on Mr. Thurman's resolution of inquiry regarding Louisians affairs, in the course of which speakers on both sides were applauded by occupants of the galleries, and the Sergeant-at-Arms was instructed to station a sufficient police force there to preserve order ... Without reaching a vote on the resolution the Senate went into exceptive sension and soon after adjourned ecutive session and soon after adjourned In the House, on the 7th, a resolution was offered and objected to thanking the "Presi dent for the prompt and efficient measures adopted by him for the prevention of violence and for bility that the President will issue such a proclamation as Gen. Sheridan suggested in House in sustaining his efforts in that behalf".... The New York Assembly organized on the 5th by the selection of Jeremiah McGuire for Speaker and Hiram Calkins for Clerk—both Tammany Hall nominees.

Chas. W. Johnson has been elected Chief Clerk of the Minnesota Senate and W. R. Kin.

House in sustaining his efforts in that behalf ".... The Senate bill to provide for the resumption of specie payment was taken up, the previous question was moved and seconded—100 to 90—and the bill was passed—yeas 136, nays 99... The resolutions of impeachment against Judge Durell, of Louisiana, were on motion laid on the table—128 to 68—the House having received official information of his resignation. The same action was having received official information of his resignation. The same action was having received official information of his resignation. The same action was having received official information of his resignation. The same action was having received official information of his resignation.

In the Senate, on the 8th, Mr. Thursaid he supposed Irwin would have to be sent out of the country if an investigation into the matter should be instituted. Phelps thought that this was in September, 1872.

NEW ORLEANS dispatches say two Republican members of the Louisiana Legislature have been kidnaped by the Conservatives to prevent their being present at the organization of that body. Gov. Kellogg has submitted a letter to the Congressional Investigating Committee proposing that they decide the question of the disputed election of 1872, and offering to submit to whatever verdict they might render.

A London Have been obtained in the Tilton-Beecher trial before Judge Neilson.

Friday, Jan. 8.

A CARD has been published at Little Rock, Ark., signed by the pastors of six of the churches in that place, protesting against Gen. Sheridan's statement that terrorism existed in that State, claiming that no such terrorism had existence there, and that there was no repression of public opinion or private action except that imposed by an ordinary code of laws.

In consequence of a defeat upon a favorite measure the French Ministry tendered their lates of the Direct Modern of Said Legislature for the branch of said Legislature for the United States, or any officer or intermeddle with the control, or seek to control, the organization of the State of Louisiana, or either of the branch of said Legislature for the United States, or any officer or soldiers of soldier or soldiers of soldier or soldiers of such army. did in any manner interfere or intermeddle with the control, or seek to control, the organization of the Branch of said Legislature for the United States, or any officer or foldier or soldiers or soldier or soldier or soldiers or soldier or man's resolution of inquiry was further debated,

> In the House, on the 8th, a bill was introduced and referred to provide for a legal and guarantee to that State a republican form of gov-ernment.... A bill was passed providing that Sec. 19 of the act of the 22d of June, 1874, repealing been lawfully exercised by any court, Judge or District-Attorney of the United States to obtain the testimony of an accomplice in any crime against, or fraud upon, the customs revenue laws by the discontinuance or dismissal of any proceedings against such accomplice. Bills of a private nature were considered....Adjourned.

THE MARKETS.

NEW YORK.—Cotton—14% @14% c. Flour—Good to choice, $5.00@5.60; white winter extra, $5.60@5.65. Wheat—No. 2 Chicago, $1.12@1.14; No. 2 Northwestern. $1.14@1.15; No. 2 Milwankee Spring, $1.15@1.17. Rye—Western, 94@96c. Barley—$1.45@1.50. Corn—87@89c. Oats—Mixed Western, 68@71c. Pork—New mess, $20.50@20.2024, Lard—134@133%c. Cheese—124%@15%c. Woot—Common to extra, 43@65c. Beeves—$10.00@13.00. Hogs—Dressed $8.874@9.00; live, $7.0 @7.25. Sheep—Live, $5.50@6.75.

CHICAGO.—Beeves—Choice, $5.75@6.10; good $5.00@5.50; medium, $4.25@4.85; butchers, stock, $2.75@4.35; stock cattle, $2.60@ 3.75. Hogs—Live, good to choice, $6.90 @7.30. Sheep—Good to choice, $5.00@5.75.

CINCINNATI.—Flour—$4.90@5.05. Wheat—Red, $1.05@1.08. Corn—New, 68@70c. Rye—$1.19@1.10. Oats—60@62c. Barley—$1.27@1,27\4. Pork—$19.00@19.25. Lard—13\\\@14\\\chic. St. Louis.—Cattle—Fair to choice, $4.50@6.00.

Hogs—Live, $6.50@7.25. Flour—XX Fall, $4.50@4.65. Wheat—No. 2 Red Fall, $1.06@1.061%.

Corn—No. 2. new, 63@64c. Oats—No. 2, 5614@5814c. Rye—99½c@$1.00. Barley—No. 2, $1.23@1.30. Pork—Mess, $19.23@19.50. Lard—12%@13c. Milwaukee.—Flour—Spring XX, $5.25@5.50.
Wheat—Spring, No. 1, 95@954c; No. 2, 904@90%c
Corn—No. 2, 644@65c. Oats—No 2, 514@51%c.
Rye—No. 1, 954@96c. Barley—No. 2, $1.264@

CLEVELAND.—Wheat—No. 1 Red. $1.114@1.12; No. 2 Red. $1.054@1.06. Corn—New. 71@72c. Oats—No. 1, 5842@59c. DETROIT.-Wheat-Extra, $1.141/@1.15. Corn

Toledo.—Wheat—Amber Michigan, $1.09%@ 1.10; No. 2 Red, $1.08%@1.09. Corn—High Mixed, new, 70@70%c. Oats—No. 2, 57@57%c. Buffalo. — Beeres—$4.75@6.15. Hogs—Live, $7.00@7.25. Sheep—Live, $4.50@6.00.

Catching a Lunatic.

A FINE elm tree, which stood near the gold-fish pond directly before the Capitol, has been cut down, unavoidably, as it with others obstructed the view of the building. At one of the inaugurations of Mr. Lincoln—the first one, I believe—a crazy man clambered up into ous, and such a young lady don't deserve this tree, and going out on one of the branches till it swayed with his weight he began to address the assembled multi- years old. presented asking for the passage of the bill re- tude at the top of his voice on slavery. Leagues." He suggests that if Congress would ported by the Committee on Military Affairs to The officials entreated him to come pass a bill declaring them banditti they could be tried by a military commission. Among the witnesses before the Congressional Investigation Committee on the 5th sional Investigation Committee on the 5th soldiers of such army, did in any manner intersection. The officials entreated him to come dwn. Thurman that the President of the United States be requested to inform the Senate if any one attempted to climb up after this whether any portion of the army of the United States, or any officer, officers, soldier, or soldiers of such army, did in any manner intersection would jump to the ground, which would jump to the ground, which would jump to the ground, which would have killed or maimed him. And soldiers of such army, did in any manner intersection would have killed or maimed him. And soldiers of such army, did in any manner intersection. were ex-Gov. Hahn and Gov. Kellogg. In the fere or intermeddle with, control or seek to con- so he continued shouting away, although ably of it was almost time for the President | Gian t sa was a general cry of disapprobation.

In the House, John M. Thompson, of perched, he said, in a commanding tone: sioned by the resignation of McJunkin, was sires to see you a few moments to conmended, in warm terms, the efforts making to improve the navigation of the Mississippi, Fox and Wisconsin Rivers, as tending toward cheaper transportation. The position taken by the Order in regard to railroad transportation he thought should be maintained. He urged the sending of helm of the measure, and after a colloquial delay with Louisiana affairs was discussed, objection was made and sustained to further debate with Louisiana affairs was discussed, objection was made and sustained to further debate. Washington Cor. Boston Herald.

"There is a good time coming, boys;"
So rans the hopeful song;
Such is the poetry of youth
When life and hope are strong.
But when these buoyant days are passed
Age cries, "How changed are men!
Things were not so when I was young;
The best of times was then." "There is a good time coming, boys;"
The truth we will allow;
But, waiting not for brighter days,
There is a good time now.
Why not improve the present, then.
Where'er the future lead;
And let each passing moment's page
Bear proof of thought and deed?

"There is a good time coming, boys," And many a one has passed; For each has had his own good time. And will have to the last. Then do thy work while lingers youth With freshness on its brow, still mindfal of life's greatest truth, THE BEST OF TIMES IS NOW.

KISS PRETTY POLL.

"Poll! Pretty Poll!" the parrot screamed, And "Pretty Poll!" repeated I. The while I stole a merry glance Across the room, all on the siy, Where Someone plied her needle fast,
Demurely by the window sitting;
But I upon her cheek beheld
A multitude of blushes flitting.

"Kiss pretty Poll," the parr, t coaxed; "I would, but dare not try "I said, And stole another glance to see How Someone drooped her golden head,
And sought for something on the floor
(The loss was only feigned, I knew);
And still "Kiss Poll," the parrot screamed
The very thing I longed to do.

But Someone turned to me at last:
"Please, won't you keep that parrot still
"Why, yes," said I; " at least, you know, If you will let me, dear, I will."
And so-well, never mind the rest; But Someone said it was a shame To take advantage just because A foolish parrot stole her 11 1

OLD FLAMES. A Camp-Meeting Romance.

"It's too aggravating, so it is! Dear me! I wish I never forgot anything." got anything at all, then we'd have to carry down to our graves the vivid recollection of all the grief, or sorrow, or pain we ever suffered, of all the hateful things folks have said to us and about us, and, above all, of every time in our lives when we've made fools of ourselves. You will find that it's much to be thankful for if you can forget the occasions on which you've made a fool of yourself when you come to be an old maid like your Aunt Lactitia."

Alice Kildare laughed "Not much like being an old maid, is t, seventeen, and already engaged six

"Well, I was engaged at sixteen, and have been engaged three times in my life, and yet here I am, an old maid in eye-glasses, and intend to die the same, please God. Think, now, what a budget of heart-breaking recollections I'd be moieties, shall not be construed to affect any authority, power or right that might thereunder have obliged to carry about with me the rest

"Sue and I are going to have our fortunes told, Aunt Laetie. Go with us, venerable mother, and see that it's done

"I can tell yours without looking into a globe of mesmerized water. You'll be an old maid; mark the prediction. You have the elements of an old maid in your soul-one sort of old maid, that is. "What are the 'elements of an old maid.' Aunt Laet?"

"Oh!-of your sort of old maid-a high spirit, a bright mind, a sharp tongue, and an uncontrollable love of flirting. You'll be the sort of an old at so much a head. Alice was betrothed to a slim, handsome, long-haired college student, who wrote poetry and had an Eolian harp in one window and a rose-geranium in the other, and meant to go into the literary line as soon as he was done college. He was very much in love, and Alice wasoh! dreadfully in love, but that didn't at all prevent this truthful young lady from flirting with a dozen other young men all at once, and telling no end of white lies about her engagement. She was exceedingly attractive, but not so pretty as she was bright, piquant and spirited. At this very time, when she lay awake nights thinking of her betrothed, and never went to bed without tenderly kissing his photograph, at this very time she was flirting desperately with Tom Creighton, her lover's classmate, a rich man's son, who was home on a three months' leave of absence contemplated resumption of specie payments by the United States.

East Library. — Beeves — Best, $6.20@7.00; medium, $5.25@5.75. Hogs—Yorkers, $7.00@ which had been recommended by the 7.10; Philadelphia, $7.50@7.70. Sheep—Best, 6.00@6.25; medium, $4.50@5.25. allowed Tom Creighton, in the presence of a third person, to tell her a slanderous story about her lover, one which she knew must be false; and there she sat and listened to it without the faintest attempt to fight for her lover's good name, just for fear Tom Creighton would think she was engaged if she said anyher, no, not if she lived to be a thousand student had beaten Tom Creighton half Well, what does the sibyl say?" asked

Laetie.

"This time Sue laughed. The sibyl course of his statement the latter said he did not think the State Government could support itself without the United States forces, he claiming that the great bulk of his supporters are in the country, while a large element opposed to his administration reside in had the lunatic continued to yell out his incoherent and blasphemous sentences great, hollow, black eyes. She had a fired at the slim student. so near him. What was to be done? glass globe of water before her on a lit Some shouted: "Shoot him!" but there the stand. The water had been magnet ized, she said, and she, being a clairvey-A mounted army officer conceived a ante, was able, by her second sight, to plan for quieting the noisy fellow. Rid. see in the water beautiful pictures and three steps before the slim student who ing up to the tree on which he was visions of events to come. Then she wrote poetry was upon him. He sprang perched, he said, in a commanding tone: took Alice's hand and pressed it against up, covered with blood, and leaped madly Pennsylvania, elected to fill the vacancy occa- "You, sir, up there! Mr. Lincoln de- her forehead, and began to wink and forward, with a roar like a lion. roll up her great, hollow eyes in an awsult you about his inaugural!" "Does Lincoln really want my sublime ideas?" Laetie. By and by she bobbed her head He was in a fair wa about and mumbled something, and, still, said the interested lunatic. "He is about and mumbled something, and, still, wounded though he was, when the camp waiting in the Senate Chamber," replied with her eyes rolled back and half-shut, police appeared and arrested both the she began looking into the globe of magswered the crazy man, and he descended netized water. Then presently she with great rapidity, but no sooner had he to retire with him before this show of arms. The Conservative Representatives a sort of sing-song said to Alice: 'My the hands of naughty Alice Kildare, who You were always too hard and unforgiveness to retire with him before this show of arms. The Conservative Representatives headed by Speaker Wiltz, In the Senate, on the 6th, a memorial detectives grabbed him. He struggled spread out here and there before my inments.

The condition of affairs in Louisiana was discussed at the Cabinet meeting in Washington on the 5th. A protest against the action of the United States against the action of the United States against the action of the United States troops, received by the President from the state of the formula of tree without thinking of this incident .- picture, a long way off in the future, it his manhood and earthly hopes at a One summer moonlit evening Alice no wedding. The water is not clear to-day, you must come again. Mercy! her, and cried all night over it. In the and joined her in the porch what is this? Here is a great crowd; morning she bathed her red eyes very they are making a noise, and looking at carefully, and looked at herself narrowly to bid you good-by. two men-young lady, the two men are in the glass as she combed out her dark fighting, and, Heavens! the water locks. turns red; it is blood, blood! But I see "A no wedding. I see blood, but no wedding.'

"She looked so weird and dreadful Aunt Laet, that I was afraid to have her tell my fortune after that. She told us to come again when the water was clearer; wouldn't go back again for anything." Whereupon and finally Aunt Laet had hollow tree. I can hardly believe you good as a poet."

After the property of the property Didn't I say you were to be an old maid? what you were fifteen years ago when Kildare?

It was foreordained by the fates. Only, you visited us, and look at you now, Alice, let me request one thing of you, stout, chuffy, slovenly and rich, caring yea, two things, come to think. Don't for nothing on the earth or under the you ever go to petting cats, or dveing your hair with vile-smelling sulphurous stuff when white threads begin to sneak how. Sam Harrington! I say-for the in around your temples. I'll never will you my tea-pot or eye-glasses if you do | shirt!" Aunt Lactitia, who liked to tease people, laughed again. It was the season of peaches and melons, the roasting season when idle people hunt cool places, and devout him again. people hold camp-meetings. Alice went to a camp-meeting with her father, mother and Aunt Lactitia. Is there anybody here, I wonder, who doesn't know what hecamp-meeting is like? If there is, let her go to the next one and find out for and not a Hottentot or a red Indian. "Alice," he said, "why haven't you

Father and mother sat up among the with tears in my eyes to oblige me im-worshipers, close to the preachers' mensely and go and change your linen, She looked at him and tr platform; Aunt Laet sat half-way back and not disgrace me before the world. in the congregation, like one who was doubtful in her mind as yet whether to ought to move a heart of stone." separate herself from the world or not, while giddy-pated Alice didn't pretend left knee and regarded attentively a cold hands in both his own. to sit among the congregation at all, but hoic in the toe of his ragged right sliphovered away back on the extreme bor- per. ders, where the preacher's voice could scarcely be heard at all. Their position | pest on earth equal to a woman." in the camp-meeting audience was an exact barometer of the devotional states of you," continued the little woman, "No, no! for mercy's sake, don't wish of these excellent people, namely: Fath- punching him with great vigor. you never forgot anything; for then you'd always have to remember all the point of fact the young people on the you'd always have to remember all the disagreeable things that ever happened outermost borders of that devout assemto you in your life. Believe me, it's bly were flirting with all their might. vastly better as it is. If we never for Alice Esmerelda Kildare was flirting wristbands were unbuttoned and the back?" she said, softly. "Will you take

> When the cat's away the mice will that beautiful bosom, too, looks as if play, and the mouse will play till the you'd been rolling down somebody's shed. | carried it very last minute before the cat comes," roof. I declare, you're enough to drive Alice had remarked to herself as she ad- a woman mad. And you're going to our remove all that gives you pain or trouble mired her bright, brunette face in the camp-meeting with us, too, and I wanted as long as you live. God bless you, my glass that morning

> So she sat upon one of the rude wooden benches under a tree, and let Tom Creighton talk soft nonsense in halfwhispers to her. Was all this wicked, of | widows." a Sunday, at camp-meeting? Yes, certainly it was, but two-thirds of the young she's-she's an old maid. I don't know cousing people about them were behaving in the why everybody calls her Widow, but same wicked manner. Suddenly Tom that's the name she is always known by. Creighton's soft, lazy voice ceased, and | She used to be rich when she was young Alice looked up, presently, to see why. but she was real bright and learned then, She could hardly keep down a cry as very learned for a rich man's daughter. she saw, approaching them, her own Her father died, they lost their fortune, betrothed, the slim, handsome student, and Widow had to work for a living. She who had been gone a whole year. Some- came here, and has actually been princihow she felt dreadfully guilty as she caught his bright gray eyes. It was such fun to flirt, but—dear me! pal of our village High School for the last seven years. There never was a woman held the place before, and there

The slim student passed her with a cold bow. His mother was on his arm, and he led her to a seat up among the Alice's heart beat a little make good wives, Sam. I used to be a Legislature: queerly, and Tom Creighton watched her school-mistress myself. keenly. It wasn't pleasant, and Alice hated unpleasant things. Suddenly her know. betrothed came back toward them. had seated his mother and left her. He touched his hat to Alice. "I beg pardon, Miss Kildare; but I as they've sense enough to be it-brave, wish to ask you something, in presence strong, honest and wise. There never of this person. I may not have the op. was another like her, Sam. She supports portunity again. I may not see you her mother out of her earnings, and-and again soon, indeed."

He took a paper from his pocket and unfolded it. "Read that, if you please," said the slim student to Miss Alice, who by this time was beginning to be conscious of a powerful inclination to run away. The paper contained an exact copy of the slanderous statements which Alice had world before you, and we were all so allowed Tom Creighton to repeat to her proud of you, and had such high hopes concerning her betrothed. "I only wish to know," said the slim student with simple dignity, "whether you allowed this person to tell you the stuff that is on that paper?" Alice did not answer. She wanted worse than ever to run away, but to save her life she could not have gone past that her like a siege gun. "A very short answer is sufficient, yes or no, Miss Kildare." "I won't tell you," said Alice, pouting, "Do you think you can make me do any-thing I won't do?" "I beg your pardon," said the slim wrathful, gray eye which was fixed on student with icy politeness. "I would not for the world ask you to do anything which is disagreeable to you. Allow me to wish you good morning.' But as he strode away and left them Alice didn't like the looks of him. Consequently she flirted harder than ever. During the dinner recess after Tom Creighton had gone away and left Alice, suddenly there arose a terrible roar and rumpus in the edge of the woods. Then there was a pistol shot and the next moment were heard cries of "Prize fight!" 'Murder!" "Part 'em!" "Give it to him, little one!" Those who rushed to the quarter whence the cries came saw a slender man, all bloody and foaming like a wild beast, madly beating and pounding a thing. I don't defend her, mind you; big fellow who was trying faithfully to think such conduct was simply scandal-shield himself from the blows which were raining down upon him. And beever to have anybody fall in love with fore they could be separated the slim

> "And good enough for him too," said everybody who saw the encounter. "But who'd have thought that a slim fellow who wrote poetry could do it?" It seems that the two rivals had met somewhere in the grove. Angry words had passed between them and at last Tom terror lest the other would "pitch into way, with a little spot of quivering sun- been represented to him as being the him," the boys said, suddenly drew his pistol, without a moment's warning, and she passed. And the first thing Sam Har the members returned as elected The blood streamed from the young man's arm, and he fell to the ground, wounded and stunned. Tom Creighton turned to run away, but had not taken up, covered with blood, and leaped madly

"I'll beat your infernal head off," He was in a fair way to do it, too young men in the name of the offended majesty of the law.

"I return you your troth. It is nothmust be, because it is so dim, and in it woman's feet and for compensation have Kildare sat in the porch of the little cot THE HERALD.

ADVERTISING RATES.

SPACE, 1 w. 2 w. 3 w. 1 m. 8 m. 6 m. 1 yr. column. 15 00 18 00 21 00 25 00 40 00 60 00 100 0

All Advertising bills due quarterly. Transient advertisements must be paid for Extra copies of the Herald for sale by H. J. Streight, at the Postoffice, and O. F. Johnson, corner of Main and Fifth streets.

Alice took the letter up stairs with Sam Harrington came slowly up the walk Widow Kildare," he said, "I've come "Have you?" said Widow. She would not ask a word more. "And so I'm to be an old maid for all "Yes; I must go back to my muckraking. Bricks, you know, and clay and furnaces and things. I meant to be a poet when I used to be in love with you fifteen years age. Now I am a brickmaker. Used to be! That was what she had "Sam Harrington! before heaven, I and then we came away, and Alice has believe you are the laziest, slovenliest, stayed an old maid tor. Her heart was been cross ever since. But I'm sure I crossest, uncivilizedest old bachelor that like lead in her bosom but she smiled ever vegetated outside of a grizzly bear's and said: "After all, a brickmaker is as " Are you sure you think that, Widow

> "Yes: quite sure. "Wouldn't you like to see 'em-the great brick-yards, and the huge furnaces, baking the patent bricks by the half bachelor is a disgrace to humanity, any-"Yes; answered Widow. "I could Lord's sake, get up and put on this clean tell the school-children about it, you know. Sam grunted The little woman poked Sam Harrington made a face. Then he looked at her and saw that, in spite of "Your duty to your health imperative- the brave, proud head which she held up so stately, her face was pale and sorrow-Sam groaned. The little lady poked ful as face could be, as though she were parting with a last great hope. And he actually smiled to see it. She "By all the laws of reason and logic this duty is pressingly incumbent on you. had tortured him bitterly once. He Allow me to put it to you in the light of threw his hat across the floor and sat

Moreover, I, your cousin, implore you been married? What have you stayed She looked at him and tried to answer but the sound died away in a sorrowful, There, now, is a consideration which bitter sob, and she covered her face with her hands. The brave, proud woman Sam elevated his right foot across his was crying. He took one of the slim,

"Alice-I never got over it-the old hurt you gave me once. I never got over the old love either. Be my wife now, "Oh, pshaw!" says he. "There is no darling, and let us begin all new again." "And besides that society expects it A little, old-fashioned portfolio lay on her lap. She took from it a slip of paper, all yellow and creased with age. She He arose and lowly stretched himself. held the paper toward him.

He tore the paper into shreds and frag-"See the man now!" she said. "And ments and blew it away through his hat beautiful bosom, too, looks as if fingers, and I don't know where the wind so much to introduce you to Widow wife! God bless us all! In spite of the globe of magnetized water Alice Kildare didn't die an old

"Drat all women-especially maid. "There is no love like one's first love, after all," said little Mrs. Gerty to her "No, there isn't-that is if one's first love changes so as to suit as one grows lder," answered Sam, with a miserable attempt at being philosophical instead of sentimental And that is the romance of the second camp-meeting.

The following is a summary of the Associated Press dispatches of the 4th, giv-well. Here graduates make the best wives and the best school-mistresses in ing an account of the proceedings attend devout people around the preachers' the country. School-mistresses always ing the organization of the Louisiana At twelve o'clock several members had assembled in the hall of the House, and the Chief Clerk called the roll and an-"And Widow has done an immeasurenounced that 102 members were pres able lot of good among the girls here. ent. A motion was made that L. A She has made them like herself, as far Wiltz (Conservative) be made temporary Chairman, and he immediately took the chair, when the utmost confusion pre vailed. Sergeant-at-Arms and a tempo rary Clerk were appointed. Several dresses like a lady too," said Sam's motions were made amid great concousin, adding the last as the climax of fusion. Col. Lowell protested against the manner of the temporary organiza-"I don't like paragons," said Sam. tion, and the Speaker replied that the manner of organization was identical "At any rate, you're in no danger of with that of 1868, in which Mr. Lowell being taken for one yourself," replied participated. Five members, not re the sharp little woman. "You had the turned by the Board, were declared, by resolution, members of the House and took their seats. Motions to go into of you. You were going to be a famous permanent organization and to seat the poet, reform preacher, and the Lord members from the contested parishes re knows what, and you've not been any of terred to the Legislature caused great it. When you die, I shall have this label excitement. The members from four tacked across your coffin: He began life contested parishes were admitted to their a poet, full of grand hopes and aspiraseats, and the motion to go into tions, and he ended by being a slovenly old bachelor, who made a fortune in the a permanent organization was put and clared carried. Wiltz and ex-Gov brick-pressing business."

"Cousin Mary, let's start to the camp-Hahn were put in nomination for Speaker. During the progress of the vote Mr. Hahn addressed the House, by At the camp-ground, Sam Harrington permission, protesting against the or and little Mrs. Gerty sat among the deganization as irregular and informal, and vout part of the congregation, and list ened to the sermon like old folks. When t was over, and they had all left the wooden benches, a tall, pale lady, with lustrous black eyes, and dark, wavy hair, stood up facing them. An aged lady with silvery hair and a sweet, placid face leaned on the other's arm, and the younger lady carefully supported her "That's Widow and her mother," whispered Sam's cousin. "Isn't she Sam looked. The fine, delicate face was the least bit faded and tired-looking, but not a bit soured or gloomy. Oh, no not the least. It was a clear, true facefine, strong and pure, like steel or silk, or something of that sort. Little Mrs. Gerty caught the schoolmistress's hand. Widow!" said she, "this is Cousin Sam Harrington, a rich, slovenly, old bachelor. I wish you'd take him off my hands. Sam-Miss Kildare.' "Wh-a-a-t!" screamed he, crazily "Don't hurt my arm so. What did you do that for?" said Mrs. Gerty.

each other long ago, when I was young,' said the school-mistress, calmly, but with an ineffable look from her dark, softly- he refused to point out the five members fringed eyes. "I met Mr. Harrington ordered to be ejected as not being refifteen years ago at a camp-meeting. I turned to the House, and said they have never seen him from that day to would not leave the House until force Then she moved on in a calm, graceful Trobriand afterward said Vigers had shine glancing across her gray dress as Clerk of the House who had a list of reddened slowly with the memory of an test on the part of the Conold flame. He laid his hand upon Mrs. servatives such roll was called. The Gerty's arm. "Cousin Mary, you said awhile ago five members present not returned by that I used to be a poet and an enthusi. the Board. An attempt of Vigers to obast, with bright hopes and grand aspira- tain possession of the Clerk's desk was tions, and it has all ended in my being a objected to by Speaker Wiltz, and the useless, slovenly old bachelor, who got rich at patent brick-making. That wom-than she wronged you. She is the tion. Speaker Wiltz then solemnly truest, best, brightest woman I everknew. protested against this interference on I do wonder if you are the man she the part of the military of the United nearly broke her heart about long ago? States, and called on the members I've heard a whisper of that, I'm sure. to retire with him before this declining to participate in the body under such organization. Wiltz was declared elected by a vote of fifty-five to two for Hahn and one blank, the Republican members having gener refused to participate in the proceedings or to recognize their validity. During further proceedings and while the Sergeant-at-Arms was seeking to obey instructions to allow no member to leave the hall, several scuffles ensued, when, on motion, Gen.

de Trobriand was sent for, who cleared the lobby of police and spectators at Speaker's request. About fifteen minutes later Gen. de Trobriand reappeared with two staff officers, and bearing letters from Gov. Kellogg, which were read, one of which stated to the General that an illegal body was sitting in the House of Repre sentatives and that Mr. Vigers, Clerk would furnish him with a list of those members who had been duly elected and returned as such by the Returning Board. The other letter requested the General to eject those not returned by the Board. To this "Mr. Harrington and I used to know Speaker Wiltz protested, claiming that the House was legally organized, and was used to expel them. Gen. de rington did was to look sheepishly down at his dusty old boots, while his face considerable objection and a promilitary were then used to eject the an knows why." "Then I'm sure you wronged her more upon and put him in the coveted posi-

Little Mrs. Gerty, romantic as a girl, then marched out of the hall and Statewatched them narrowly. Were the old House. After the Conservatives withflames kindling into life again? Some- drew the roll was again called, and, a times little Mrs. Gerty thought they had quorum being present, ex-Gov. Hahn never died entirely out from the heart of was elected Speaker, and the Governor's either. Sam Harrington began to black | message was received, read and referred.

An Arkansas grocer has been sent to ent when the Senate organized.

as Clerk, when the military were called sentatives, headed by Speaker Wiltz,

The Democratic members were not pres-