And now the Omaha Herald and Spy claim the election of Senator Paddock as a Democratic victory.

We have received a copy of the Sioux City Weekly Times, containing the opening chapters of O'Neill's Pamphlet, "Northern Nebraska."

A correspondent suggests that by the interference of United States troops to put down the late insurrection in the Nebraska State Prison,

We were opposed to all this foolish plying men to vote for this or that candidate and when ever a man begins to hold up his hands to swear or call on God for a witness that he will vote one way or another, we begin to feel for the last dollar and a half we took in on subscription and then leave.

Senator Griggs comes out strong as one of the able men of our State in matters legislative.

Harpers Weekly is coming back to its old love again and the cartoons of Nast show the Louisiana situation in a striking light.

Judge Dundy behaved splendidly during the late contest and came out with more and warmer friends than he ever had before.

We call attention to the expression of opinion of the Nebraska Press, regarding the election of U. S. Senators. It expresses our views.

Douglas feels sore, we would pity her, did not her papers and some of her politicians always act so selfish about every outside town in the State.

Senator Chapman, of this county has shown himself a very fair politician in the late contest and is making a good record for brains in the Legislature.

Andy Johnson is elected Senator from Tennessee. Look out for a lively mill on the floor of the Senate, when Andy gets sworn in and business opens.

INDIVIDUAL. The committee on expenditures report no corrupt or extravagant expenditures in the U. S. Courts of Nebraska. That vindicates Judge Dundy and proves that Sunset Cox is behind time.

Nebraska is not alone in State's Prison revolts. The Missouri convicts made a desperate stand for their rights, complaining that the food given them was unfit to eat but they too were finally brought to terms.

The Bill passed by Congress for the relief of homesteaders in the grasshopper regions gives them leave of absence until May 1st, 1875. Under such regulations as to proof of the same, &c. as the commissioners may deem best.

The Bee rather intimates that Mr. Barnes of Cass, had better not come up to Omaha this winter. Couldn't the Bee wait until Mr. Barnes wanted to come, when he does we guess Barnes will be there and we should not be surprised if he even walked into the Bee office.

The Capitol removal is the next thing on the carpet at Lincoln, and it is expected to be hot and fierce a fight with more personal feeling than even the Senatorial fight engendered.

THE SENATORIAL CONTEST.

One of the most remarkable Senatorial contests the State has ever witnessed took place at Lincoln last week.

As every one knows, Gen. Thayer and Judge Dundy were the strongest candidates, their fortunes varying from day to day during the four days of the contest.

On Wednesday Judge Dundy had 15 votes, Thayer only 14, being a gain of 7 votes for Dundy, and a loss of 3 for Thayer.

On Thursday morning, Thayer had 21; Dundy 19, and the tables were turned. Thayer men were arrogant, loud, sure to win they said.

But 14 of these votes for Thayer were republican after all; the rest were Democratic. Judge Dundy had really the strongest position; he had 19 solid republican votes; votes of men who were evidently voting on principle, while the Thayer vote was merely a bulge on the part of the Democratic element.

While the necessities of newspaper business force us to return the compliment of the Bee and Republican, and defend our neighbors and friends; we desire to express our sincere respect and esteem for the gentlemen who stood at the head of the Thayer forces.

Of all the nonsensical "yawp" (to use Dr. Miller's forcible slang) we ever heard, the most unjust and foolish is this cry about military interference and layover of Gen. Grant at New Orleans.

Whitelaw Reid, Editor of the N. Y. Tribune was arrested in Washington for libel at the suit of "Boss" Shepherd.

It was a political blunder to allow Judge Dundy and Gen. Thayer to be pitted against each other at all in the Senatorial field.

BARNES!

BARNACLES—BARRIERS—BALKY AND BEE BARRING.—A Bally Bitted Team.

Barnes is coming out; Barnes is getting notorious; all the above named bores have had a fling at Barnes, so we interviewed Barnes to see how he took it.

We found Barnes in good humor, sound and hearty and ready to defend himself. As regards the "Barnacles" of the Omaha Herald, he thinks the Herald has the most stupidly happy faculty of applying misnomers of any editor on the Missouri slope.

THE WAY A GRASSHOPPER WRITES BACK TO US.

INLAND, ADAMS CO., NEB., Jan. 18th, 1875.

Mr. White—My Dear Friend: I joined my family on Wednesday night, and I can assure you they were glad to see me.

I found them in great want of food; they had a few coals left, but not many. When I told them that I had got some meat for them at the depot, they could hardly wait till I had brought home.

So you may think that they needed aid. They had to lay in bed all one day to keep from freezing; it is bitter cold here.

My family join with me in thanking you, and all that aided them to something to eat; you could not have sent me a better man than Mr. Beck, he took right hold to help me get a pass, knowing all the head men at the Depot, and got me a pass without any trouble.

I had to wait till Wednesday, as the head man was at Lincoln, and Mr. Beck told me to go to his house and bear with it until he could get away, and he gave me $2.00 besides; he could not have done more for a brother. I love God will reward him, and all of you.

I am glad to say that my daughter is a great deal better. If you will kindly think my neighbors for me, I shall be much obliged. When you have a little spare time, I should like to receive a letter from you.

I will conclude with my respects to yourself, Mrs. White, and Mary.
