

THE HERALD.

LOCAL NEWS.

LOCAL ADVERTISEMENTS.
Transient, 25 cents a line. Regular advertisement, 10 cents per line. No advertisement inserted for less than 25 cents.

District Court commences March 13th.

Macy Lodge festival next Monday. Remember the night.

"Rush" is happy; he got a picture of a handsome type for a valentine.

Men's boots from $2.50 up, all sizes. 43tf W. H. Pool.

"Oh! the snow, the beautiful snow," our poets are exclaiming.

We understand that a little son of George Ruby's, fractured his arm last Friday.

Runaway and upset last Friday afternoon near Streight & Jones' stables. Nobody hurt.

Presbyterian Sociable at the house of Mrs. Chas. Yates, one week from this evening.

Judge Ellison has moved. He was afraid the wind would blow him away, in his old residence.

Roberts, the expressman, has gone into a new business; we saw him hauling hides last week.

Dick Clarnorne's dramatic entertainment is postponed until the Monday after Easter. Just one week along.

Some sneak thief or thieves entered the cellar of Mr. Benton Brown and stole a lot of meat he had hung up there.

Wm. G. Woodruff still runs his grocery store and is prepared to furnish you with any thing you may want in the grocery line.

CLOTHING.
For a cheap suit of Clothes call at Wm. Stadelmann's. 37tf.

Go to Merges' Shoe-store for the best and cheapest, and choose from the largest assortment. 43tf.

Send in your subscription for the HERALD. The best paper in the country. 22 columns of reading matter this week.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Episcopal Church, will give their sociable at the art gallery of Mr. V. V. Leonard, next Tuesday evening.

Judge Ellison and Joe Gilmore are removing the old ice house back of the HERALD office, and are going to lay in a supply of ice.

The Largest and Best
two cent paper in the West is the Chicago Post and Mail. Per year, postage paid, $3.50; weekly, $1.50.

The best and cheapest foot gear at Merges' Shoe Store, call and see, no charge for examining. 43tf.

JEWELRY JEWELRY!
Wm. Stadelmann has 10k gold rings at $1.25 per pair, also a nice lot of jewelry low down. 43tf.

Go to W. H. Pool and get a No. 1 pair of fine custom kip boots for $4.50 warranted. 43tf.

Notice.

GREENWOOD, Neb., Feb. 15, 1874.
Whereas, my wife left me on the 20th day of January last, leave my bed and board. I hereby notify all persons to not harbor or trust her on my account, as I will not be responsible for the same. J. T. WILBURN.

French Calf Boots, and Women's French Calf and Goat Shoes put up in the best style by W. H. Pool. 43tf.

PERSONAL.

John Tutt shows his smiling face in our town again. He is here on a visit to his friends.

Anny Tutt has got tired of Kansas grasshoppers and came back to his old home, Plattsburgh.

Miss Gertrude Lewis and Mrs. Barrett called Tuesday to investigate the mysteries of printing.

Rolf Mettler, Esq., returned from a visit East last week, and has left us some notes of his trip which will be published soon. Too much legislature to be found out. That young lady school beats us the most. Dan is good-looking yet, and if we were Mrs. W., we should be afraid to have him go back to that neighborhood, even now.

The advantage of buying Wall Paper and Window Shades at Frank Stadelmann's, is that he sells cheap, trim the first without charge, and hangs the shades if desired, guaranteeing them to run well. 47tf.

DR. HEMPEL'S OYSTER HOUSE.

This old reliable oyster and eating house now has the run of a large country custom, and Ben, desires us to say that he will re-fit and fix up the premises for summer trade and hopes to see all his old customers and new ones. Remember, next door to Donegan's drug store, on Main street. 47tf.

FARMERS ATTENTION!

Julius Pepperberg, Cigar Manufacturer, opposite the HERALD office on Main St., Plattsburgh, Neb., Cigar Clippings of Spanish and American Tobacco, for smoking purposes. For Sale. Best qualities of plug-smoking tobacco always on hand. 20tf.

ANALOGY.

Talking of hard times, Frank Stadelmann says when was was 60 cents, and corn just at its lowest, about 12½ cents a bushel, old farmers would come into the Restaurant and ask the price of mince-pies. "Ten cents?" they would answer with open mouths and rolling eyes, "What? mince-pies at 10 cents, and corn only 12½ cents a bushel?" As if we made mince-pies out of corn-meal — adds Frank.

READY! READY!

The largest assortment, the best assortment, the cheapest assortment, of Boots & Shoes at the exclusive Shoe Store.

All and examine; no charge.

PETER MERGES.

The Deutsche Wacht made its appearance again last Friday.

We noticed Sam Long's handsome face on our streets last week.

Read our Lincoln Letter, to be found in another column.

Maguire & Curtis have some good cider. Call again, Curtis. (?)

Macy Lodge festival next Monday. Remember the night.

"Rush" is happy; he got a picture of a handsome type for a valentine.

Men's boots from $2.50 up, all sizes. 43tf W. H. Pool.

"Oh! the snow, the beautiful snow," our poets are exclaiming.

We understand that a little son of George Ruby's, fractured his arm last Friday.

Runaway and upset last Friday afternoon near Streight & Jones' stables. Nobody hurt.

Presbyterian Sociable at the house of Mrs. Chas. Yates, one week from this evening.

Judge Ellison has moved. He was afraid the wind would blow him away, in his old residence.

Roberts, the expressman, has gone into a new business; we saw him hauling hides last week.

Dick Clarnorne's dramatic entertainment is postponed until the Monday after Easter. Just one week along.

Some sneak thief or thieves entered the cellar of Mr. Benton Brown and stole a lot of meat he had hung up there.

Wm. G. Woodruff still runs his grocery store and is prepared to furnish you with any thing you may want in the grocery line.

One would think, to see the way our coal merchants are laying in coal, that winter was going to continue for the next twelve months.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. F. Gyger has been confined to the house for the past three weeks, on account of having his feet frozen.

W. H. Pool is putting up the best french calf boot for $9.50. He warrants a good fit or no sale. 43tf.

Sunday was Valentine's day, and our youngsters invested every spare nickel they could raise and scrape in sending tokens of regard(?) to their friends.

I received Diploma for fine Boots, at the State Fair, and can still make the finest and best boots. Repairing done neatly and with dispatch. Warranted satisfaction. PETER MERGES.

The Largest and Best

two cent paper in the West is the Chicago Post and Mail. Per year, postage paid, $3.50; weekly, $1.50.

The best and cheapest foot gear at Merges' Shoe Store, call and see, no charge for examining. 43tf.

ATTENTION FIREMEN.

Next Wednesday night, February 24, is regular meeting night. All firemen are summoned to appear as there is business of importance to be transacted.

By order of the President.

R. O. FELLOWS,
Secretary.

One of our citizens, who is fond of kraut, and not being able to put up any in the fall on account of the grasshoppers, called on a German friend who had managed to get some cabbage and of course made some kraut, for the purpose of purchasing some. He went to the house and stated his errand, and was told by the man "that he only had two barrels, and he wouldn't like to spare any, as he wanted to have a little in the house in case of sickness."

French Calf Boots, and Women's French Calf and Goat Shoes put up in the best style by W. H. Pool. 43tf.

PERSONAL.

John Tutt shows his smiling face in our town again. He is here on a visit to his friends.

Anny Tutt has got tired of Kansas grasshoppers and came back to his old home, Plattsburgh.

Miss Gertrude Lewis and Mrs. Barrett called Tuesday to investigate the mysteries of printing.

Rolf Mettler, Esq., returned from a visit East last week, and has left us some notes of his trip which will be published soon. Too much legislature to be found out. That young lady school beats us the most. Dan is good-looking yet, and if we were Mrs. W., we should be afraid to have him go back to that neighborhood, even now.

The advantage of buying Wall Paper and Window Shades at Frank Stadelmann's, is that he sells cheap, trim the first without charge, and hangs the shades if desired, guaranteeing them to run well. 47tf.

DR. HEMPEL'S OYSTER HOUSE.

This old reliable oyster and eating house now has the run of a large country custom, and Ben, desires us to say that he will re-fit and fix up the premises for summer trade and hopes to see all his old customers and new ones. Remember, next door to Donegan's drug store, on Main street. 47tf.

FARMERS ATTENTION!

Julius Pepperberg, Cigar Manufacturer, opposite the HERALD office on Main St., Plattsburgh, Neb., Cigar Clippings of Spanish and American Tobacco, for smoking purposes. For Sale. Best qualities of plug-smoking tobacco always on hand. 20tf.

ANALOGY.

Talking of hard times, Frank Stadelmann says when was was 60 cents, and corn just at its lowest, about 12½ cents a bushel, old farmers would come into the Restaurant and ask the price of mince-pies. "Ten cents?" they would answer with open mouths and rolling eyes, "What? mince-pies at 10 cents, and corn only 12½ cents a bushel?" As if we made mince-pies out of corn-meal — adds Frank.

READY! READY!

The largest assortment, the best assortment, the cheapest assortment, of Boots & Shoes at the exclusive Shoe Store.

All and examine; no charge.

PETER MERGES.

The Deutsche Wacht made its appearance again last Friday.

We noticed Sam Long's handsome face on our streets last week.

Read our Lincoln Letter, to be found in another column.

Maguire & Curtis have some good cider. Call again, Curtis. (?)

Macy Lodge festival next Monday. Remember the night.

"Rush" is happy; he got a picture of a handsome type for a valentine.

Men's boots from $2.50 up, all sizes. 43tf W. H. Pool.

"Oh! the snow, the beautiful snow," our poets are exclaiming.

We understand that a little son of George Ruby's, fractured his arm last Friday.

Runaway and upset last Friday afternoon near Streight & Jones' stables. Nobody hurt.

Presbyterian Sociable at the house of Mrs. Chas. Yates, one week from this evening.

Judge Ellison has moved. He was afraid the wind would blow him away, in his old residence.

Roberts, the expressman, has gone into a new business; we saw him hauling hides last week.

Dick Clarnorne's dramatic entertainment is postponed until the Monday after Easter. Just one week along.

Some sneak thief or thieves entered the cellar of Mr. Benton Brown and stole a lot of meat he had hung up there.

W. H. Pool is putting up the best french calf boot for $9.50. He warrants a good fit or no sale. 43tf.

Women's heavy kip shoes, only $1.50. 43tf W. H. Pool.

"Oh! the snow, the beautiful snow," our poets are exclaiming.

We understand that a little son of George Ruby's, fractured his arm last Friday.

Runaway and upset last Friday afternoon near Streight & Jones' stables. Nobody hurt.

Presbyterian Sociable at the house of Mrs. Chas. Yates, one week from this evening.

Judge Ellison has moved. He was afraid the wind would blow him away, in his old residence.

Roberts, the expressman, has gone into a new business; we saw him hauling hides last week.

Dick Clarnorne's dramatic entertainment is postponed until the Monday after Easter. Just one week along.

Some sneak thief or thieves entered the cellar of Mr. Benton Brown and stole a lot of meat he had hung up there.

W. H. Pool is putting up the best french calf boot for $9.50. He warrants a good fit or no sale. 43tf.

Women's heavy kip shoes, only $1.50. 43tf W. H. Pool.

"Oh! the snow, the beautiful snow," our poets are exclaiming.

We understand that a little son of George Ruby's, fractured his arm last Friday.

Runaway and upset last Friday afternoon near Streight & Jones' stables. Nobody hurt.

Presbyterian Sociable at the house of Mrs. Chas. Yates, one week from this evening.

Judge Ellison has moved. He was afraid the wind would blow him away, in his old residence.

Roberts, the expressman, has gone into a new business; we saw him hauling hides last week.

Dick Clarnorne's dramatic entertainment is postponed until the Monday after Easter. Just one week along.

Some sneak thief or thieves entered the cellar of Mr. Benton Brown and stole a lot of meat he had hung up there.

W. H. Pool is putting up the best french calf boot for $9.50. He warrants a good fit or no sale. 43tf.

Women's heavy kip shoes, only $1.50. 43tf W. H. Pool.

"Oh! the snow, the beautiful snow," our poets are exclaiming.

We understand that a little son of George Ruby's, fractured his arm last Friday.

Runaway and upset last Friday afternoon near Streight & Jones' stables. Nobody hurt.

Presbyterian Sociable at the house of Mrs. Chas. Yates, one week from this evening.

Judge Ellison has moved. He was afraid the wind would blow him away, in his old residence.

Roberts, the expressman, has gone into a new business; we saw him hauling hides last week.

Dick Clarnorne's dramatic entertainment is postponed until the Monday after Easter. Just one week along.

Some sneak thief or thieves entered the cellar of Mr. Benton Brown and stole a lot of meat he had hung up there.

W. H. Pool is putting up the best french calf boot for $9.50. He warrants a good fit or no sale. 43tf.

Women's heavy kip shoes, only $1.50. 43tf W. H. Pool.