THE RESERVE TO SERVE THE PARTY OF THE PARTY PLATISMOUTH MARCH, 4, 1875.

We are very much pleased with Gen. Tracy's opening speech in Beecher's defence. We believe he can and will prove his theory and show Beecher to the world not as the villain, but as the martyr of the age.

The Enterprise and "Get Up" of Chicago is proverbial. Its newspapers is not an exception, and the Post & Mail is the best of them all. Price per year, postage paid: Daily $6.80; Weekly, $1.65.

Neither Mrs. Moulton nor any of the witnesses yet examined swear that Beecher committed adultery with Mrs. Tilton. All the talk is about a "crime," some crime, an "offense," some offense. Why don't we have one plain statement of what the crime and offense

The HERALD has repeatedly expressed the view that we need a short, coneise, plain document, covering just as much ground as is necessary to provide a framework for laws and statutes to he attached afterwards. Constitution document will have to be carefully on worded or it will be voted down again. Twenty thousand dollars every year or two is too expensive a luxury to spend for a Costitution that is likely to be rejected.

Let us see to it then, citizens, that we get pure, able, and sound men, if Case has any more left of that sort, to represent us this time.

Synopsis of Ameaded Census Law.

Entire law as published in Revised Statutes must be carried out. If assesors, or commissioners or county clerks fail in this duty they are liable to penalty of $500, and it is made the special duty of District Attorney to make dilligent enquiries in each county to ascertain if law has been complied with. Where failures exist he is compelled to prosecute the neglectful parties.

Compensation is 2 mills per capita to assessor, 1/2 mill to county clerks, and 1/4 mill to Secretary of State. We call the attention of all our County officers to the above law as it is important they should carry out the

The Favorite Home Remedy. Is eminently a Family Medicine, and by being kept ready for immediate resort will save many an hour of suffering and many a dollar in time and doctor's bids.

EFFECTUAL SPECIFIC For all diseases of the Liver, Stomach and For all diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Spices.

The avmtoms of Liver Complaint are a bitter or bad taste in the mouth; Pain in the Back, sides or Joints, often mistaken for Rheumatism; Sour stomach; Loss of Appetite; Bowels alternately costive and lax; Headache; loss of memory, with a painful sensation of having failed to do something which ought to have been done; Debility, low spirits, a thick yellow appearance of the skin and eyes, a dry cough often mistaken for consumption. Sometimes many of these symtoms attend the disease, at others very few; but the liver, the largest organ in the body, is generally the seat of the disease, and if not regulated in time, great suffering, wretchedness and death will
