The Social Hop last Friday evening was an enjoyable affair.

They haven't even a devil in Greenwood—so "Argus" says.

Go to Vivians. He's still alive and has everything you want in his line.

20,000 Envelopes want printing at the HERALD office.

Somebody that's owing us, bring us a little pig. We won't squeal, if the pig does.

Plattsmouth was blessed with a nice shower of rain Wednesday evening and this morning.

Marshal Murphy has been putting our crossings in good repair and improving the roads generally.

The Tennessee Jubilee Singers gave one of their performances in town last Thursday evening, which was well attended.

Hatt has a new calf and sheep rack, and he brings in heaps of mutton and sells the HERALD the tenderest beef steaks as never was.

HATS! HATS! A fine stock of new Hats. Latest style at W. STEINMANN'S.

Come to Merges Shoe Store for the largest and best assortment and for the lowest cash prices.

When you go to Weeping Water, don't fail to call on Reed Bros. and examine their stock of goods. They have excellent bargains in boots, shoes and summer clothing. 914

We have received a programme of the Commencement Exercises at Tabor College, Iowa. Among the names of students we see one or two from Cass County.

There will be an excursion train run to Omaha next Saturday evening. It will leave the Depot at 5 o'clock in the evening and return that night. Fare—One fare for round trip.

ESTRAY NOTICE. Taken up by the undersigned, on the 23d of May, in Mt. Pleasant precinct. Two black cows, one two year old, one yearling. (913) J. JO. GILBERT.

We again call attention to the notices of rates of advertising, on communications, legal responsibility for ads and to newspaper decisions, at the head of this column. Also to the change in the time table of the B. & M.

Groceries are usually sold on a small profit, but still you can save considerably on them, by buying of Reed Bros. They endeavor to keep their stock complete, and to keep only the best of goods. 914

FARMERS ATTENTION! Julius Peppenberg, Cigar Manufacturer, opposite the HERALD office, on Main St., Plattsmouth, Neb., Cigar Clippings of Spanish and Assorted Tobaccoes for smoking purposes. For sale. Best qualities of plugsmoking tobacco always on hand. 20-11.

AWININGS! AWININGS! Business and private awnings put up by FRANK STAEDER.

Now is the time to protect your goods and carpets from the Sun and yet have light and air. For business awnings see Peppenberg's and Musher's places. Give me a call. 914 FRANK STAEDER.

$25 REWARD. I will pay $25 to know the name of the man or brute that put out the poison by which my dog was killed. 912 H. J. STEIGLITZ.

May 28th, 1875.

Go see Ben Heupel's "Cornelian" Birds.

We challenge the Watchman to publish that story of Dovey's about the delirium.

Vivian, the grocery man, keeps vegetables, pretty flowers and lots of good things to eat. Go and see him.

WANTED. A lashed or two of corn, or oats, or wheat on subscription. Just a little to feed the chickens, you know, bring it along somebody.

Peenan, the wild Irish stone cutter of Omaha, was in town last week and fixed up a handsome marble wash stand and fountain for Musher, the barber, besides giving the new Catholic church a marble slab and altar piece.

A fellow who has been pecking in windows lately, exhibiting himself for a show and so on, is fairly warned that he is known and that a coat of tar and feathers if not severer treatment by the boys await him if he don't leave town or leave off his tricks.

Win. Eikenberry and his sweet little twins were up to see the HERALD last week. The twins are both girls, weigh just 39 lbs each, and look so much alike their own folks can scarcely tell them apart and have to tie a red ribbon round one to tell it from 'tother.

Fitzgerald is cleaning up and beautifying that "Forty" preparatory to putting up that $35,000 house, we see a notice of in all our exchanges. We admire his enterprise and have great faith in Plattsmouth as long as "Fitz" lives and moves.

Remember Dovey's for Farmers' supplies. New goods.

CLOTHING. For a cheap suit of clothes call on W. STEINMANN.

Councilman Straight and Dave Miller, L. C., Straight & Miller, have gone into the ice cream business too. They have a very neat little parlor fitted up in the rear of their Confectionery Store. Go and taste Straight Ice Cream once.

Hesser's Pie N'ie Gardens are a favorite resort for our young people, and old too, on Sunday afternoons. They are about five miles from town, just a pleasant drive, and a person is well repaid for the trouble of going there. Mr. Hesser and his family take great pleasure in showing folks around his greenhouse and pointing out to them the objects of interest on the place.

The B. & M. R. R. will run an extra train on Saturday next to Omaha for all desiring to attend the Circus. It will leave the Depot at 5 o'clock in the evening and return that night. Fare—round trip, $1.10. Give 'em a lift.

Dovey's, the oldest mercantile house in town, is receiving new goods, spring styles, all the time.

Reed Bros. desire to call the attention of the public to their stock of dry goods, during these close times there is nothing on which you can save so much, by exercising care in buying, as on dry goods. In looking for cheap goods beware that you do not get goods cheap in quality. 914

FOR SALE. An excellent stock of Gladioli, Verbenas, Geraniums, Dahlias and a general assortment of BEDDING PLANTS. Also a nice lot of Tomato plants, both Troy and Canada Victory. 914 L. A. MOORE.

M., we will purchase two hundred and fifty-eight and 70-100 dollars ($28,250) worth of the stock issued to aid in the erection of the Masonic and Odd Fellows building in Plattsmouth. No shares will be purchased unless the said shares have been used to some MEMBER OF THE MASONIC FRATERNITY. Bids will be received for the money until June 20th, 1875; and those shares purchased from which the owner will make the largest per cent discount from the par value of the shares. The bids should be sealed and addressed to Julius Peppenberg, Sec'y, Plattsmouth Neb., and endorsed "Bids for sale of shares in the Masonic and Odd Fellows' Hall Co."

Bids must be on file on or before June 20th, and the awards on the same will be made on Thursday July 1st, 1875.

Plattsmouth Nebraska, May 19th, 1875.

FRANK E. WHITE, W. M., ELBERT T. DUKE, Treas., JULIUS PEPPENBERG, Sec'y, Plattsmouth Lodge No. 6, A. F. & A. M., 8-16

OUR IMPROVEMENTS. Plattsmouth is really doing more in the way of improvements and building this spring than any town we have visited lately. Mr. Fitzgerald has spent a good deal of time and money improving, cleaning, and beautifying his forty acre Park, on the avenue, Judge Eillon has a new house, the HERALD a new OFFICE. The Catholic church, and Ed Ruffner's residence are under way, besides a great many smaller buildings, additions, new fencing and general fixing up. We are doing splendidly the HERALD thinks this spring.

BOOTS & SHOES. I have the largest stock and assortment and deal exclusively in Boots and Shoes and can do so well for you cheaper than the cheapest. PETER MERGES.

MARRIED. Valentine Rauen and Miss Jennie Scott on Sunday the 23d, by Rev. Fr. Bobal, at the Catholic Church. In the evening the friends of the bride had a house warming, and some fun mit de pogas.

IMPORTANT NOTICE! TO FARMERS OF CASS COUNTY! As the undersigned will go East on or about the 31st day of June, and be absent for a month, those in the time to bring your wheat for the boys' will "let down" the price as soon as I leave. A word to the wise is sufficient. JOSEPH A. CONNOR. 912

The grasshoppers are very bad in many sections, and will no doubt entirely destroy some fields of grain. The prospect is foreboding enough to warn all classes of people to be careful and spend their money where it will buy the most. Try where you will it will be difficult for you to find a place where your money will buy so much as at Reed Bros. of Weeping Water. 914

PIGS! HOGS! HOGGINS! The assessors report in Douglas Co., last year, gives them $14,000 worth of hogs. Our old friend Sam. Bauer shipped over Seven Thousand Dollars worth of hogs on last Tuesday. One-half as much as Douglas reports they have got in the county. How is that for high?

NOTICE OF SALE. The material of the Deutsche Wacht will be sold at Sheriff's sale on the 12th of June. German type, press and material of the paper, a small weekly German newspaper. 814.

One of our young men thought he would raise side whiskers; so when Boone's assistant shaved him last week he had him skip a part of his cheeks for a starter. This week he got in John's chair, and as he commenced to shave him, after lathering him well, he was interrupted by an angry exclamation and a demand to know why he was cutting off his whiskers. John in his surprise and fear of losing a good customer begged his pardon and said he didn't see them. We draw a veil over the poor fellows anguish of mind at hearing this.

GRAND WEDDING. WHITE—VALLERY—Married, on the 27th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, in Plattsmouth, by Rev. Chas. McKelvey, assisted by Rev. A. Wright, Mr. F. E. WHITE and Miss LOTTIE VALLERY, all of Plattsmouth.

This coming event has been casting its shadow before for some time in our little burgh, and not often are two people united in the holy bonds of wedlock who carry with them more of the good wishes of the people than do this couple. "FRANK," as he is generally known, is one of our most enterprising and industrious young business men; and Miss LOTTIE is the daughter of one of Plattsmouth's oldest settlers and staunchest citizens.

The relatives of the bride and groom and a few intimate friends comprised the guests. The ceremony took place about eleven o'clock. The bride's dress was drab green silk made with trained skirt and basque, the trimmings of tulle, arranged in sash ends and loopings at the back. After the ceremony and the attendant congratulations during which the bride and groom comforted themselves with becoming dignity, a dinner was served of the most bountiful kind.

Among the wedding presents were a handsome casket, a butter cooler, two very handsome napkin rings, inscribed with "FRANK" and "LOTTIE," and the groom's present to the bride, a very handsome watch and chain.

They left on the afternoon train for a short bridal trip, the good wishes of their many friends following them.

PERSONAL. Hon. H. D. Hathaway, of Lincoln, was in town this week.

Silas E. Greenleaf, of Elmwood, remembers the Herald, and has our most sincere thanks.

Mrs. Wm. Hartsell, of Lincoln, has been in town for several days, visiting her friends and acquaintances.

The report came in on Wednesday that Hon. John Brown was very low and not expected to live many days.

Hon. John Barnes left on Wednesday for Greeley, Colo., to take such steps for his comfort as may be found necessary.

L. F. Reed, of Weeping Water, and of Reed Bros., called to see the Herald Tuesday. He is looking much better and has the same old push and snap about him.

Hon. A. L. Sprague called around and helped us out of a tight pinch last week, for which we are under many obligations.

Sam Rector of Weeping Water, one of the best of Cass citizens called on the HERALD Tuesday. We were very much pleased to see him.

Champion & Babbington, two of our best carpenters, have received the contract for doing the carpenter work on Fitzgerald's new farm house. It is to be a very large and handsome dwelling. They also have the wood work of P. E. Tuffner's residence.

Julius Peppenberg, cigar man and one of the cutest, cleverest, handsomest little fellows in this town or any other goes east this week for a new stock of tobacco, and other things. May he return fresh, good natured, and full of vim, for new works and more of 'em.

Prof. Dilleman ran a wagon over his foot the other day and spruce his foot. Sorry, but your toes in your pocket, Prof., as the boys say.

The Rev. Mr. Crippen of Mt. Pleasant called on the HERALD last week just before we went to Press. We are sorry to learn of his late and dangerous illness, and very glad to see him in town. The HERALD hopes he will reconsider (as the Con. Cons. say) his notion or his notion of leaving us, and that with restored health and better times we can keep him in Nebraska.

Lieut. Col. Upton, commander of cadets at West Point, has been relieved and Lieut. Col. Thos. H. Neill has been ordered to that point. This change is made in accordance with the custom of the war department which change the commanding officer there every four years.
