The O'Connell centennial was celebrated in many of the larger cities of the Union with much enthusiasm. An oration was delivered in Boston by Wendell Phillips on the life of O'Connell.

We are very much obliged to editor Barrows of the Republican, for his interest in, and notice of our endeavors to stir this people up a little. It's hard work, neighbor, to make a community over, new, but we'll do it yet.

The parties supposed to have stolen the $47,000 from the U. S. Treasury, have been arrested. They are Ben. Hallock, clerk of the cash room, H. W. Ottumwa, a restaurant keeper, and Theo. W. Brown, ex-clerk of Quartermaster General.

The Fairmount Bulletin thinks we are contriving a way to get to Kearney and save our new shoes that Peter Mercer made us.—and suggests that we get Roy's Ballou. How if it, Mr. Bee, can she travel to Kearney or to the Black Hills the only route?

As one Republican exchange after the other comes to us, and we see in all a good fat delinquent list and then look at our own poor, little lean $95 City List, we almost wish we lived in a good Democratic County. For a Republican community, our late tax list in the Watchman looks bad.

The jury in the case of Jno. D. Lee, charged with being the leader of the Mountain Meadow Massacre, reported that they were unable to agree, and were discharged. It is reported that they stood nine for acquittal and three—one gentle and two morose—for conviction.

Natural selections.—Taking the largest apples on the plate.

GOV. GARBER'S RETURN.

Our worthy Governor has returned from California with his bride at last, and is safely domiciled at the seat of Government, in fair health again, and to the great joy of the Lincolnites, who now have a Governor and Governess over them.

Kitty Cummings, a well known bold tailed mare, once owned by Gov. Cummings, is dead at the respected age of 30. J. Sterling Morton says he did not believe for flies and her short tail she would have reached 40. "Yo editor has had many a drive behind "Kitty" in her plaid days.

HENRY M. ATKINSON. "Henry" must have a marvelously happy faculty of getting on the right side of the reporters, for we see the papers full of his good deeds, his urbanity and his abilities. All right, old fellow, go ahead, you are not the worst man Nebraska ever sent to Washington, we believe.

CINCINNATI AND ST. LOUIS UNDER WATER. Both the above cities have been more or less under water lately, and last week were still dreading a further rise. The loss to life and property, by storms, floods and lightning in the past few months is unprecedented in the history of the world.

Messrs. Geo. W. Holdrege, of the B. & M. R. R., Loyd D. Bennett, Hon. Sam M. Chapman, Plattsmouth, and Jno. W. Chapman, U. S. Marshal of Iowa have been on a hunt in this county.

While at the depot a few days ago we noticed something less than a car load of chickens and the ears of a jack rabbit, as they passed to McCarthy of Plattsmouth. Heralds.—Fairmount Bulletin.

Yes, we know it. That was the best party to hunt (and find) we ever knew, or rather they did the hunting and we did the finding down. Billy Neville got the Jack Rabbit's ears, though.

MAJOR WHEELER IS BUSY AT WORK sending out posters, invitations, directions and what not about the State Fair, to be held at Omaha, Sep. 21st to 24th. We may now state that all troubles about grounds and buildings have been overcome by the citizens of Omaha. The grounds at terrace track will be fitted up with every convenience, the buildings made better and larger than ever, and from all accounts the North Platte country is full of grain, a fair amount of fruit and a good stock of enthusiasts to exhibit the same. Wake up your "South Fellows" and get your fatted calves ready.

EDITORIAL EXCURSION. The Editorial fraternity of Nebraska proposes, so we are informed, to take a little excursion about the last of this month, down in Kansas and about, visiting St. Joseph, Kansas City, Atchison, Topeka and other points. A full program will be made out hereafter. Full arrangements have been made with the railroads by Mr. Webster Eaton, the editor of Kearney Junction Press, and all those desiring to go will receive a plan of the proposed routes and such other papers as are necessary, from Mr. Eaton within the next fortnight. As this matter has been undertaken and worked up to a success thus far, we hope our brother quill drivers will turn out and that we may have a pleasant, agreeable and profitable excursion.

COUNTY SEAT. We publish the law on the removal of the County Seat this week. We have no opinions to express on the matter until we have looked it up further. It is said "a man might as well die at once as be scared to death." From our point of view, many of the citizens of Plattsmouth have been scared to death for several years in this County Seat question.

Many men refuse to make any more improvements unless this question is settled. Others will not invest unless they know what basis they invest on. Taking all this in view we believe that we might as well settle this point now. We think the friends of County Seat removal have taken a wrong time, (just as we thought the Capital removal folks took the worst time in the world when we are cramped for money, when our crops are doubtful and times hard generally), but still if they must, they must, and we propose to let them take the vote and try the thing on.

Read the law and then settle in your own minds, every man, what your vote must be.

ONE OF NODDWAY'S OLD PIONEERS GONE. Wm. H. Davis at Rest.

From the Maryville, (Mo.) Republican, July 13. Wm. H. Davis died last Monday noon at the residence of his son, B. K. Davis, in this village. His funeral services took place at the M. E. Church at 2 o'clock p. m. Tuesday. Mr. J. W. C. Coates preached the funeral sermon, taking for the foundation of his remarks the 10th verse of the 4th chapter of a large consensus of friends and acquaintances followed his remains to the grave.

Wm. H. Davis was born in the State of Tennessee, in the year 1814. When he was about 17 years of age his parents moved to Illinois, where he arrived at man's estate and married. He moved to Plattsmouth, in this State in the year 1859. In the year 1852 he came to this county—then a part of Andrew—and settled in White Cloud Township. When Nodaway became a county he was appointed Justice of the Peace of White Cloud Township; and in all probability was the first Justice in the county. He moved back to Illinois in the year 1848.—From thence to Cass County, Nebraska, in 1855. He remained in Cass county till, when he removed to Maryville, in which place and vicinity he has since resided. For years he was the proprietor of the National and then the Central Hotel, and was familiarly known to the traveling public as "Uncle Billy." His last sickness was long and painful, but he bore it with a Christian fortitude, and his end was peaceful, dying in full hope of a better world. He aged parents, over eighty years of age, still survive to mourn the loss of their first-born.—Four generations were at the funeral. Mr. Davis leaves quite a large family, among which may be mentioned, B. K. Davis, Esq., well known in northwest Missouri as a prominent lawyer; Mrs. Coates, wife of our Postmaster, and G. N. Davis, Esq. This one by one do the old pioneers of our country pass away.

It is almost unnecessary to inform our readers that Mr. Davis was the father-in-law of our townsmen Mr. Burwell Spurlock.

COUNTY AFFAIRS, BRIDGES, &c.

We have received a long communication from Mr. Kirkpatrick on our County affairs, which will be published next week.

We complain of several things which we think we can make clear to him. In this issue we have not time nor space to enter into details, but will only say we are running this paper for the good of the tax-payers, the bonafide owners of property in this county, of which we consider ourselves one.

We shall not take the part of any clique or faction, nor lend our aid or influence (whatever that may be) to any corrupt ring or any influence whatever that tends to increase our expenses; set that down for a fact. On the other hand, we shall not lend ourselves, nor our paper, to any set of malcontents, sore-heads, ignorant nor designing men to carry out their schemes.

This paper is edited by the Editor, a citizen among you, a tax-payer, and a bona-fide resident of Nebraska for 18 years,—one who has its interest and its welfare at heart, who has no interest elsewhere, and who proposes to do his duty to the State and the county, as he understands it, irrespective of party whip, friendship dominance or personal aggrandizement.

When the editor does otherwise, please come up and tell us when and where,—but do not bring your own petty personal quarrels, and your own ambitions for us to settle, that we can't do. Republicans of Cass County, you need leaders, you need combination; and at once—now is your time—heed the word of warning.
