A number of the prominent men of tion to attend our County Fair.

We call attention to the Public meeting on Friday evening, in regard to the disposal of the High School building. We consider this a very important matter, and earnestly urge every citizen and tax-payer to turn out and give their opinions on the matter.

Our State Fair takes place at Omaha from September 21st to 24th. For full particulars apply to D. H. Wheeler, Secretary, State Board of Agriculture, at Plattsmouth, Neb. Mr. Wheeler is pushing every means to make this a success. Let us all try and aid our State Fair this year. It is more important than ever.
