GHOSTS!

The other night our front door bell rang and the old gentleman went to the door, but came back very gravely shaking his head—nobody there.

The ladies began to speculate about what "little rascal" could have rung the door-bell and then scooted.

By and by another visitor came to the house, and as the madam opened the door, he says: "what on earth have you got on your door handle. A light was brought, and there behold were a fine mess of Quail and snipe. Many thanks to the—to the gentleman who rang the door bell—our unknown giver.

Od Monday last the installation of Rev. J. T. Baird as the regular pastor of the Presbyterian (O. S.) church of Plattsmouth took place, in the presence of a large congregation. Rev. J. D. Kerr, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Neb. City, and the Rev. N. C. Robinson of the same place officiating. The sermon was delivered by Rev. J. D. Kerr in the evening. Charge to the Pastor by Rev. Robinson; charge to the people by Rev. Kerr. At the close of these ceremonies the congregation surrounded their pastor extending the right hand of fellowship. For the Rev. Baird we predict a useful career among his flock in Plattsmouth, who are justly proud of their new preacher.

PROGRESS.

We are glad to notice that some of our merchants are making improvements in the mercantile business, by changing into more exclusive trades, which is a great benefit to the whole community. Mr. Plummer sold out his entire stock of boots and shoes to Merges, in order to pay his especial attention to dry goods and groceries to keep pace with his large increasing trade in that line. Merges procured the assistance of his brother to help him along with his large trade, All this proves that exclusive dealers win in the end. Attend to one thing and do that well. 29tf.

A LETTER TO DR. BUTLER.

M. M. BUTLER—Dear Sir: I am told that you were at Greenwood on election day, telling the voters that the farmers have to pay their taxes, but in Plattsmouth they did not, and you stated that E. G. Dovey did not pay his county taxes, and that the county officers levied on his bacon and sold it under the hammer to pay the same. Now sir I think that very unkind in you, and think it would be much better if you would try and find out the truth before you commence to instruct others. You either knew nothing of the matter or you told an unmitigated falsehood. I never refused to pay my county taxes or anything else that I know to be just. I know no reasons why you should abuse me, unless it was because I was opposed to moving the County Seat to Weeping Water, for the reason I could not see or hear any advantages you have at Weeping Water excepting stones, and I never heard them bragged about until you located there.

E. G. DOVEY.

It was the City taxes that Mr. Dovey refused to pay, and had nothing to do with the county levy at all. And the resistance to paying grew out of local city matters, in which the county had no interest.

NO EXCUSE FOR BEING SICK.

No person can use Boschee's German Syrup without getting immediate relief and cure. We have the first case of Coughs, Colds or Consumption, or any disease of the throat and lungs, yet to hear from that has not been cured.

We have distributed every year for three years, over 250,000 sample bottles by Druggists in all parts of the United States. No other manufacturer of medicines ever gave their preparations such a test as this. Go to your Druggist G. B. Chapman, and get a bottle for 75c and try it—Two doses will relieve you. Sample bottles 10 cents each.

Motion was then made to request the ministers of the city to preach a temperance sermon on the first Sunday in November; motion carried.

On motion, committees of five ladies from each church were then appointed, as follows:

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH—Mrs. Chaplain Wright, Mrs. J. N. Wise, Mrs. Yates, Miss S. Baker, Mrs. Donnelly.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Ramsey, the newly elected commissioner comes to town quite frequently now. That's right, get acquainted with our folks.

John Wayman proposes to have his foundry running this fall yet. The brick are already being placed on the ground. Good for John.

Our honest efficient and good looking Postmaster, Capt. Marshal and wife are east on a visit to pa and ma in Iowa. Things seem lonesome 'round the P. O. without them and the "cuckoo" sings no more.

Mrs. Hays, daughter of Postmaster Marshal, left for Boston last week, to complete a musical education. May she most fully and successfully succeed.

Henry Newnham, of "Wisconse," an old acquaintance of the HERALD'S has been visiting us lately and takes a HERALD home.

We acknowledge with thanks the receipt of some very fine butter from Mrs. Ben Droste. We know she never learned to make that at old Brownell.

Mr. Forest, of Eastern Iowa, piloted by his brother-in-law, Mr. Joe Gilmour, made a short call upon the HERALD. Very sorry we were not in to receive it.

Scribner's Monthly for 1876.

The publishers invite attention to the following list of some of the attractive articles secured for Scribner's Monthly for the coming year, in the field of fiction, besides numerous novelettes and shorter stories, there will be

2 Remarkable Serial Stories,

By AMERICAN AUTHORS.

The first of these, now complete in our hands,

"Gabriel Conroy,"
By Bret. Harte.

Begins in the November Number,

and will run twelve months. This is Mr. Harte's first extended work. The scenes and characters, which the author has chosen from his favorite field, California, are painted with characteristic vividness and power; and the work is without doubt the most graphic record of early California life that has yet appeared.

We shall also begin in the January number,

"PHILIP NOLAN'S FRIENDS, Or, Know Your Neighbors."

By EDWARD EGGLESTON HALE.

The scene of this story is laid in the Southwestern Territory, now forming the States of Louisiana and Texas, at the time of Aaron Burr's treason. The characters lived in a section which was more American, more French, and now Spanish, and this record of their adventurous lives make a story of intense and unflagging interest throughout.

A Second "Farmer's Vacation,"

By Col. G. H. P. WARING, Jr.

Col. Waring is now in Europe, visiting, in a row-boat ride of two-hundred and fifty miles, one of the most fertile and interesting of the vine-growing valleys of Europe. This second series of papers promises to be more interesting than that which our readers are already familiar.

CENTENNIAL LETTERS,
Edited by John Vance Cheney.

A rare collection of Revolutionary letters, mainly from scenes in the hands of the descendants of Col. Joseph Ward. They are full of interest, and will be read with a rare relish in connection with the Centennial celebration of the year.

BRILLIANTLY ILLUSTRATED ARTICLES ON AMERICAN COLLEGES.

Written respectively by their friends, will appear during the year. The revived interest in college life makes these papers especially timely, and will secure for them unusual attention.

OLD NEW YORK.

Elegantly illustrated articles on Old New York, by John F. Moses, will appear at once, and will attract the attention of all, in every country, who mark with interest the development of the great metropolis, and affectionately recollect the quaint peculiarities of its old-time life.

Every number is profusely illustrated, thus enabling us to give to our descriptive and narrative articles, an interest and permanent value never attained in a non-illustrated periodical. Under its accustomed management the magazine will in the future be devoted as it has been in the past, to sound literature and Christian progress.

The Editorial Departments.

occupy over twenty pages of each number and contain Dr. Holland's vigorous and timely editorials, as well as reviews of the latest works in Art, Literature, and Science.
