Rev. Geo. E. Church will preach at the Christian Church...

And we had a "whirl" - that's what he called it - in John Shannon's new buggy yesterday...

PERSONAL. Gen. Bowen has purchased the Blair Times. Look out for a stunning paper now.

The Weekly Lincoln Globe turns up this time. Well, send it along, we'll judge of your letter by and by.

Mrs. A. N. Carey called in the Herald last week, which resulted in a very pleasant and friendly talk.

Amos Tefft, of Avoca, called on the Herald Tuesday, and helped us out.

We had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Brooks, the new editor of the Republican at Omaha, a few days ago.

More spring and it keeps coming, so do a number of other strangers, we observe on our streets.

Mr. Glas, wife and child have returned home, and Mr. G. will be found in Dr. Chapman's looking just as happy as a big sun dower.

We are sorry to learn that our pleasant Conductor, Mr. Frost, of the B. & M. will be obliged to move to Omaha.

Mr. Jno. Pollock, of Wisner, banker, lumber and grain dealer, and "old business" generally, called on us last week. He is an old friend of the Herald.

Peter Eveland, HERBERT man and good man too, called and kindly got to see us. His day, you know, Peter.

Jos. Beardsley, once "our Joe" but now an honest stranger on the banks of the smiling stream (P) so kindly misnamed - has just up to see us and he left the Herald's letter off by a note or two.

R. W. Hyess, also of W. W. called and left us higher and happier as well.

Billy Haasler is testing from work for a while with a felon on his finger.

We were pleased to meet Mr. A. Smith, of the Fremont Herald lately. Mr. S. is one of the brightest, hardest working, and best editors in the State, Democrat or no Democrat, we will say this for him.

Dr. John Black has been trying dynamite experiments and almost blown his head off. Billy Shryock has a sore head too. If the Dr. would take a joke we should say they were the only sore-heads in town.

Frank Caruth, the best fencer in town, comes to see the Herald once in a while, too.

Frank Guthman has been very sick. Getting better now.

Mr. E. L. Reed, of Reed Bros. Weeping Water, has returned from Chicago lately, and the firm will soon have a large stock of goods for the spring and summer trade.
