PERSONAL.
 Mrs. Gen. Cunningham, who has been very sick, is now able to walk about, and is regaining health very fast, all of which the HERALD is very glad to know.

Perry Walker and wife have gone to the Centennial.

Mr. J. F. Buck and family started on Friday last for a trip to the Centennial and other points East. We wish them a pleasant time, and more so that they remembered the newspaper man before they started.

Capt. Palmer is home from New Mexico and the Antipodes.

Gov. Furnas returned from the Centennial a few days ago, and visited Plattsburgh yesterday. He speaks very enthusiastically of the big show, and thinks every one should go, as few will see another such a sight.

Dr. John Black is very sick again.

Gov. Garber and party returned from their Centennial trip on Saturday last. Sec. Teasack and wife looked in on us between trains a second, long enough to inform us that they had taken a pep at the big show, and to bid us do likewise.

Mr. J. W. Conn and Miss Donnelly were married on the 17th inst. by the Rev. J. T. Byrd.

Contain these things be, and overcome us like a summer cloud?

GLADIOLUS.
 L. A. Moore has a very fine collection of Gladiolus bulbs at his greenhouse, which he offers for sale cheap. 5-21.

GOOD NEWS.
 Hon. Jno. Barnes has received the appointment of Receiver of the Land Office in Beaver, Utah Territory. His appointment was confirmed some time ago, and he expects soon to leave for the arid and arduous region. We are sincerely glad of this appointment, and think our Senators have made a wise selection in recommending him.

Mr. Barnes has been a hard working, true man, a life-long Republican, and an earnest legislator. He merits the position he has secured, and we shall all wish him the very best of luck, honor, and good fortune out there.

E. Parme has bought out the Charley Holmes stable and will hereafter keep Horses to let.

 Horses to trade.
 Horses to sell.
 Horses to feed.
 And any kind of a horse you need. Go and see Elam, and be happy.

We had many old editorial friends at Fremont, and made the acquaintance of some new ones, with whom we were well pleased.

TO THE PUBLIC.
 As I have been credited with several articles, poems, prose and criticisms in general, which have at different times appeared in our city weeklies, I take the liberty of stating to the public that I am not the author of any of them. I am a poor fellow, and do not wish to be credited with anything that I did not do. I am, however, a very good fellow, and do not wish to be credited with anything that I did not do. I am, however, a very good fellow, and do not wish to be credited with anything that I did not do.
