

THE HERALD.

J. A. MACMURPHY, EDITOR. PLATTSMOUTH, AUGUST 3, 1876.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President, RUTHERFORD B. HAYES, of Ohio.

For Vice President, WILLIAM A. WHEELER, of New York.

CALL FOR REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Republican electors of Cass county are hereby called to elect delegates to a county convention to be held at...

SEPTEMBER 12TH, 1876, at one o'clock to elect delegates to the State Convention to be held at Lincoln, September 22th, also to elect delegates to the Representative district.

PLATTSMOUTH. Second Ward 3. Third Ward 4. Fourth Ward 5. Fifth Ward 6. Sixth Ward 7. Seventh Ward 8. Eighth Ward 9. Ninth Ward 10. Tenth Ward 11.

They have a summer's Hayes & Wheeler's Club in Saunders County. The President has issued a proclamation declaring Colorado a state of the Union.

Thank God we're not a Cent. Committee man. Already some of the counties are finding fault with the latest Rosewater apportionment.

A young man by the name of Hascal was drowned in the Platte on Saturday. His father lives on the old Stocking farm. He was 19 years old.

It was reported that a dead body, supposed to be young Hascal's, was found at Rock Bluffs, yesterday.

We think Richardson can grin and bear that out down from 15,000 to 11,377. "We uns" has to grin and stand that estimated 15,000 two long years.

The Beknap impeachment trial has concluded with a verdict of not guilty, the vote standing 35 guilty, and 35 not guilty; two thirds being required for conviction.

OUR AFTON LETTER. AFTON, NEB., July 29, 1876.

Ed. Herald:—Hop! Hopper!! Grasshopper!! That's what ailed us on the 27th; two or three fields nearly stripped; others not hurt much.

We present you this week the annual tax list from the hands of our efficient treasurer, J. C. Cummins and his assistants.

We want to say one word in regard to the copy for this list. It has been a perfect model, clear, definite and plain, the pages duly numbered, and all in such good shape that it was fun for the boys to set it.

From a private letter received from a young lady resident of Plattsmouth now at the Centennial, we venture to clip the following, knowing it will be interesting to our readers:

"It (the Centennial exposition) exceeds all expectation, and is too marvelous for so feeble a pen as mine to attempt to describe. Come on and see for yourself or you can never imagine the half of the wonders in store for the curious and eager young Americans.

We arrived at Beaver about sunset on the 4th, and when we saw the Star Spangled Banner floating from the top of the Mormon church and from Fort Cameron we remembered for the first time that day that it was the Centennial 4th, and we think we always shall remember it hereafter.

I made a visit to "Old Abe," the hero of twenty-five battles. He is a fine looking specimen of the Bald Eagle, and his white eyes light serenely at the crowd of admirers that daily visit him. It is highly interesting also to enter the gates and behold the foreign nations, to watch them in native costumes performing their work in native style.

Beaver is the best town in southern Utah, and it could be much better. It covers two sections of land, has nice pure water, and a population of about 1600 Mormons and 100 Gentiles.

The Agricultural and fruit interests of southern Utah do not half come up to our expectations, but the mineral interests go far ahead of our anticipations; the truth is the mineral and mining interests are about all there is to this country. We have just returned from a visit to the mining districts. The first is Lincoln District, 18 miles west of Beaver; here the following mines have been opened and worked:

FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

The NEBRASKA HERALD from now until November 25th, 1876, for FIFTY CENTS. Almost four months.

MEETING OF THE REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

The above Committee met at the Commercial Hotel in Lincoln on Wednesday the 26th. Present:

J. W. Davies, chairman; G. L. Brown, Secretary pro tem; H. Leland, Geo. Merrill, T. J. Majors, E. T. Warren, A. A. Brown, J. H. Millard, H. Sprack, E. K. Valentine, E. Rosewater, J. C. Laughlin, L. Clark, R. T. Steele, L. Gerrard, O. M. Carter, C. H. Gere, T. P. Kennard, A. S. Stewart, N. Blakely, H. D. Rogers, E. C. Carrs, L. B. Palmer, R. Hill and A. H. Church.

Mr. Kennard offered a resolution setting forth the grievances and disturbances created in the State and party by reason of the last apportionment, also asking that a member at large from each organized county be allowed.

Mr. Rosewater offered a substitute motion to allow the member at large. Both motions tabled and a Committee of seven on apportionment was appointed which reported as follows:

Your Committee would report recommending that the counties be allowed representation in the next State Convention as follows:

Adams 7 Johnson 5. Andrew 2 Kearney 2. Boone 2 Keith 2. Buffalo 4 Knox 2. Butler 4 Lancaster 13. Cass 2 Merrick 4. Colfax 4 Otoe 6. DeWitt 2 Richardson 13. Franklin 2 Sherman 13. Grant 2 York 6. Hamilton 2 York 6. Kearney 2 York 6. Lincoln 2 York 6. Madison 2 York 6. Nemaha 2 York 6. Platte 2 York 6. Polk 2 York 6. Saunders 2 York 6. Wayne 2 York 6. Wheeler 2 York 6.

By a vote of 17 to 12 it was decided to hold the next convention at Lincoln and on motion it was carried that it be held on the same day as heretofore called by the former committee, viz: September 26th.

The secretary was instructed to embody in his call, to be nominated at this convention, State officers, members of congress, contingent congressmen and three Presidential electors, to be voted for Nov. 7th, 1876.

A LETTER FROM UTAH. BEAVER CITY, UTAH, July 21st, 1876.

Ed. Herald: After two weeks' running around in the Mormon Dixie, I must fulfill my promise and drop you a line. We left Salt Lake City July 3d, passing, by rail, through a lovely and well cultivated valley, for a distance of 80 miles to the little town of York; here we were informed that we were through railroading, and there was substituted therefor a pair of grass-fed Broncos hitched before the dirtiest, worn-out old hack that I ever saw.

The driver cracked his whip, a cloud of dust rose simultaneously with the report, and off we went. Not a cloud to obscure the rays of the scorching sun, not a blade of grass to hinder the rising dust, with just wind enough to bring it square in our faces, you may imagine we were comfortable.

We had one lady aboard, and she foolishly shed tears; it was amusing to see the dust and tears mix, it made her look so pretty. But we all nerved up to the task, and on we plodded, day and night.

The valley from York to Beaver is level and smooth, walled in on either side by snow-capped mountains, and varying in width from three to thirty miles. There are no settlements except at the villages, which are from ten to twenty-five miles apart.

We arrived at Beaver about sunset on the 4th, and when we saw the Star Spangled Banner floating from the top of the Mormon church and from Fort Cameron we remembered for the first time that day that it was the Centennial 4th, and we think we always shall remember it hereafter.
