1614. JOS. SCHLATER.

We have received, from a friend at Louisville, the plot and story of a romance that happened in that region on which Brougham or Boncicault might find a very good play. It might be called "Love, Cousins and Rivals," Want of space prevents now.

I am constantly in receipt of fresh Candies, Nuts, Fruits, Canned Fruits, Salmon, Sardines, &c., at the P. O. News Depot.

Those who are indebted to me are hereby notified to call and settle with me as soon as convenient after harvest. For I must pay my creditors, and you will much oblige your sincere friend at Eight Mile Grove.

August 1st, 1876. A. L. Root, M. D.

It should be remembered that any Book, Newspaper, Magazine, Sheet Music, &c., wanted, not in stock, will be furnished on short notice, by J. P. Young, at the P. O. News Depot.

We call attention to the notice about examination of Teachers on last Friday and Saturday of August at Weeping Water, and at Plattsmouth first Friday and Saturday of September.

Also to Institute at Peru August 15th to last three weeks.

We hear that Leg. Wright has struck a lead out in the Black Hills, and is taking $100 a day, with the help of three or four men. Glad to hear it.

From Mr. E. Kirkpatrick, we learn that Mr. S. M. Kirkpatrick's house was struck by lightning in one of the recent storms, tearing up one side of the house badly, and shocking Mr. and Mrs. K., who were in bed against the wall that was struck, so that they could not speak for some time.

THE SUMMER EXODUS. OFF TO THE CENTENNIAL.

At this time when so many of our patrons are preparing for or contemplating their usual trip during the summer solstice, it is well to present to our readers the premier advantages offered by the railroads running direct to the Centennial grounds. To this end we would speak of the economy, convenience and desirability of taking the Great Fort Wayne & Pennsylvania Line, which is running three (3) daily Centennial trains from Chicago to the very gate at the main entrance. These trains are made up of the elegant Pullman Parlor Sleeping and Hotel Coaches, and combine the luxury and comfort of a life at home, yet gliding over the famous route, noted for its perfect equipment and careful management, at a safe rate of speed never yet attained by any rival. A feature not to pass unnoticed is the facility for reaching hotels. In the immediate vicinity, within five minutes walk of the Centennial Depot, are to be found hotels, at which good accommodations can be obtained for two to five dollars per day.

The Encampment at Elm Station, near the Centennial Grounds, was established by the National Grange of the Patrons of Husbandry, for the purpose of accommodating the large number of agriculturists who desire to visit the Exhibition, and to afford a comfortable and suitable resting place at the moderate expense of two dollars per day.

Taking into consideration the immense sum of money, time and labor expended by this line to render perfect its accommodations for the comfort and safety of its patrons, we unhesitatingly recommend it as the most desirable route to reach the Centennial Exhibition.

HAYES AND WHEELER CLUB MEETING.

The Hayes and Wheeler Club, and many other Republicans, met in the Court House on Saturday evening to hear the Hon. J. L. Webster and other speakers discuss the questions of the day.

Capt. Wiles in the Chair, Geo. Smith Sec'y.

After the business routine of the Club had been attended to, Mr. Webster, of Omaha, made us a very handsome, logical and interesting speech, followed by Hon. Sam. M. Chapman, who for ten minutes condensed a volume of practical ideas, Judge Sprague followed in a twenty minutes speech, good, sound and true. The court house was filled, and every one felt that the issues of the day had been well and ably presented. Lack of space, owing to the tax list prevents a more extended notice of the meeting.

ATTENTION, TEACHERS.

The Teachers' Institute for this district will be held at West Point, to commence on Tuesday, August 1st, 1876, and continue three weeks.

It will be conducted by Prof. Thompson, Principal of the State Normal School, Prof. Wightman, of Plattsmouth, Prof. Palmer, Editor Neb. Teacher, Prof. Nicholson, of Peru, and other able teachers.

Practical teaching for the common schools is the main work; but regular class work will be carried on, under competent instructors, not only in the common branches in higher English, but with special reference to the wants of those teachers who may desire to obtain First Grade State Certificates, for which an examination will be held. Instruction will be given in drawing and in theory and art of teaching.

The membership fee for the term, is only $1, and arrangements are made to furnish board to members at $3 per week. It is confidently believed that this Institute offers the best opportunities at the least expense. The teachers of Dodge county are earnestly urged to attend.

H. G. WOLCOTT, Dodge Co. Supt.
