

THE HERALD.

J. A. MACMURPHY, EDITOR. PLATTSMOUTH, NOV. 2, 1876.

RESOLUTIONS. The Republican of Cass County through our Representatives in the Legislature...

Resolved, That it is the sense of this convention that the so-called Pro Rata measures...

Look out for false tickets. Read the ticket you vote carefully all through.

Read Judge Clifford's decision against Gen'l Neal Dow and then tell us there is no danger that the southern debt will be paid if the Democrats win.

Please send the paper the vote from each precinct at once after election day, as we will go to Press Wednesday afternoon...

The HERALD will attend to the posting of election notices next week. Now we have our hands full.

Meetings were held at Greenwood, Tipton and Weeping Water last week, at which Hon. Sam. Chapman and others spoke to enthusiastic audiences.

The Omaha Herald republishes from the Albany Argus speeches made in 1872 and coolly supposes that Schurz is making the same speech now.

A very pleasant little meeting was held at Glendale schoolhouse on Saturday evening. Messrs. Dovey, Cunningham and MacMurphy spoke.

We understand our old friend Todd, has been maligning Mr. Chapman. Go slow on that. People who live in glass houses mustn't throw stones.

The grasshopper Congress in Omaha closed its labors last week. The governors of Minnesota, Iowa, Kansas, and Missouri were present.

Every Republican vote must be got out and this county carried. Local feud make the election of Republicans doubtful in several strong Republican counties in the state.

The more you hunt up Sam Chapman's record, the more you find it to suit the people. He has been maligning about the bill on Sheriff's fees.

On the school fund he has already vindicated himself. The Superintendent of Public Instruction and State officers made an estimate of what they accepted that. If to blame, he is only one-fifty-second to blame.

On the game law, he proposes a modification of the present law, which was passed on the plain understanding that the farmers asked for such a law to protect the game.

On the settlement of B. & M. Bonds; we believe that such settlement was for the best interest of the county. It was so advised by Judge Wakely, good Democratic authority.

candidate for Attorney General, addressed the people of Cass at Republican Headquarters, on Saturday evening, the 28th.

Vote the clean Republican Ticket. Dr. R. H. Livingston addressed the people at Weeping Water on Saturday last.

The county has been thoroughly canvassed, speeches have been or will be made from every schoolhouse in the land.

NEVER BACKWARD. Our enemies are in the field. They are active, they are venomous. Cass must never step backward.

There can be no doubt as to the issues of this campaign. Never before within our knowledge has the subject been so thoroughly discussed.

Douglas County, by her folly, her feuds and her blunders, seems bound to send the Democratic members to the Legislature.

Cass County could and should roll up the biggest kind of a Republican vote to make up for this defection.

Cass county cannot afford to go Democratic this fall, during a great national campaign. She cannot afford to be left out of the glorious galaxy of bright Republican counties.

We publish this week the premiums awarded at our Co. Fair. "Better late than never." We are also requested to state that owing to the bad weather.

We have naught at present to say against the candidates on the other side. They may be good men, they probably are; but the republican party have put up just as good men, yes, better, in many respects.

GREENWOOD, Oct. 31st '76. ED. HERALD:—Last night a meeting was held at the town hall at this place, and the political issues of the day were ably handled by Hon. S. M. Chapman, Judge Sprague and Dr. Root.

ARGUS. We have been asked who is to be believed in this pro rata question, Mr. Chapman or Mr. Livingstone?

The pro rata measure advocated by the HERALD has been for the people. It is not a measure for the benefit of the B. & M. alone, nor against the U. P., but it is for the benefit of the South Platte, and will benefit the B. & M. R. Co. undoubtedly.

The letter which Twid wrote, and signed with the name of Samuel the slippery, has been often published, but like the tale which the villain tells in the drama when we wish he wouldn't, it will bear repetition. Here it is.

"ROOMS OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE, October 27, 1868.—My Dear Sir: Please at once to communicate with some reliable person in three or four principal towns and in each city of your county, and request him (expenses duly arranged for this end) to telegraph to William M. Tweed, Tammany Hall, at the minute of closing the polls—not waiting for the count—such person's estimate of the vote. Let the telegraph to be as follows:

This town will show a Democratic gain or loss over last year of _____ of the vote. If satisfactory result. This town will give a Republican (or Democratic) majority of _____.

"There is of course, an important object to be attained by a simultaneous transmission at the hour of closing the polls, but no longer waiting. Opportunity can be taken of the usual half-hour bill in telegraphic communication over lines before actual results begin to be declared and before the Associated Press absorb the telegraph with returns and interfere with individual messages; and give orders to watch carefully for the count.

"SAMUEL J. TILDEN, Chairman."

GRAND RALLY.

REPUBLICANS OUT IN FORCE. Our Candidate for Representative and Elector speak to the Farmers of Cass County.

The Eight Mile Grove Meeting. At an early hour on Tuesday forenoon any one might have seen that something unusual was afoot in Plattsmouth. Teams and men began to gather on the street and hurry and scurry, thither and yon.

MASS MEETING at Eight Mile Grove. The morning train brought Gen. Connor and Hon. Frank Welch, and pretty soon a large string of teams began to file out on the Avenue.

Quite a number of ladies were present and took seats inside of the building. Watsons were also drawn up on the outside of the benches.

A telegram received from General Manderson that morning said he could not possibly attend, court being in session in Douglas county, and Judge Mason was not set from some cause.

IN DUE SEASON the meeting was called to order and Mr. Jos. Hall elected chm. The band gave us some most excellent music, and then Mr. Hall introduced the our candidate for Congress, Mr. W. is a very fine looking man, of very pleasing address. He spoke for about an hour on the topics of the day in a clear, logical, convincing way that is seldom equaled in a campaign speech.

He announced himself as unflinchingly for pro rata, and said he was willing to go even further than the present platform and say that the Legislature should not grant any further charters to new railroads except they do provide with other roads in the State.

also one of the finest appearing men that ever stood on a platform to address an audience. He was for a number of years chairman of the Republican State Central Committee of Indiana, a very important position there, as the chairman has charge of the conduct of the whole campaign.

After the speech, a political meeting was announced at McFarland's school house, Wednesday evening, at which Hon. Sam. Chapman would address the people; and another at Weeping Water.

Saturday evening next, to be addressed by Mr. Geo. Smith, Mr. Reed and others. This was the largest meeting yet held in the county. It represented the back bone of Cass county republicanism, and every one was enthusiastic for the ticket, Hurrath for Hayes & Wheeler, F. Welch and all the rest.

Let Us "seriatize." As Gov. Tilden says, "the danger to the United States Treasury is not from claims of persons who added the Republic, but from claims of persons residing in the Southern States who were or pretended to be, or who for the sake of aiding claims, now pretend to have been loyal to the Government of the Union."

Another claim is by another woman, of course loyal, a Mrs. Annie Whitmore, of Georgia. She wants altogether, $849,194, of which a few items are as follows:

- 1 horse which was by good judges valued at $2,300
12 young mules, $175
1250 bushels corn, $150
20 tons fodder, $20
10 tons hay, $20
20 head beef cattle, $20
200 head of pigs, $20
200 head of sheep, $20
100 head of calves, $20
100 head of lambs, $20
100 head of kids, $20
100 head of goats, $20
100 head of geese, $20
100 head of ducks, $20
100 head of turkeys, $20
100 head of chickens, $20

CASS COUNTY POLITICS.

PLATTSMOUTH, Oct. 30, 1876. Error! REPUBLICANS.—Politics are lively in Cass County. The candidates on the several tickets and their friends are daily addressing meetings in various parts of the county, and making a thorough canvass of the same. There are nominally three tickets in the field, the republican, the democratic and the greenback; but as the two latter have the same men on their tickets, there are only two sets of candidates. The tickets are:

First, the republican; S. M. Chapman, for the senate. S. A. Davis, J. M. Boardley and T. W. Bobbitt for the house. Sam Barker, for float between Cass and Saunders.

Second, The solidly united democratic-independent-greenback; Dr. R. K. Livingston, for Sena. e. Joseph C. Gilmore, James Clark and Wm. Laughlin for the house; S. Ballou, float, and W. D. Davis, for county commissioner.

Mr. Chapman the republican candidate for the senate, is a prominent lawyer, a highly esteemed gentleman, and as good and strong a man as it was possible to place on the ticket. His rival, the democratic-independent greenback candidate, Dr. Livingston, is one of the oldest and most respected citizens in the town, and at the present time mayor of Plattsmouth. We may also mention that he is a son-in-law of the Republican, since it was stated, eighteen years ago. Both gentlemen lend strength to the tickets they lead, and no man who is elected, Cass county will be well represented in the senate. The rest of the personal on both tickets is unexceptionable.

The greenbackers and the democrats have been exceedingly busy, providing that the greenback movement is in reality nothing but a democratic show. Republicans over the state should take this as a warning, and ponder well before they withdraw their vote from the party and give it to the enemy. Every vote cast for the greenback movement is either a direct endorsement of the democratic ticket, as in Cass county, or when there are several democratic and greenback tickets, it is an indirect endorsement by reducing the republican majority.

The correspondent makes some further remarks which lead us to comment that one County fight is as much as the Republicans can attend to, and he had better keep a little and his one.
